FOLK SONGS ARE LIKED

UNIQUE PRESENTATION IS PROMISED FOR CONCERT

Grace Wood Jess Will Appear This Evening at Methodist Church In Entertaining Program

Something unique in vocal entertainment is to be offered Eugenians this evening at the presentation of Grace Wood Jess, who is coming heralded in advance as one of the very few singers of folk songs who really interpret the emotional values contained in these little known but interesting and entertaining musical selections.

The appearance of Grace Wood Jess is the first of a series of musical events to be held here during the coming year under the auspices of the recently organized civic music clubs, of which Eugene forms one of a chain with Seattle, Portland, Salem and Medford. The concert here this evening will be held at the Methodist church.

Grace Wood Jess

The repertoire of Grace Wood Jess ranges from the songs of the peasants of Russia and the vineyard workers of France and Spain to the back country folks of the Kentucky hills. Born in the South, the singer from childhood has been in touch with the melodies that have charmed a nation and she believes that the simple songs of the people in the hills hold a fascination for music lovers whose ears have become jaded by certain strains and a longing is prompted for something of a pleasant and more restful relaxation.

In the singing of the plantation songs and melodies the singer wears a gown that was once the property of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln when she resided at the White House. Six changes of costume are made during the presentation of the folk songs and an appropriate gown is worn for each of the series of melodies from other lands and from the hill country of Kentucky.

GRAPHOPHONE CO. FAILS

COLUMBIA CONCERN IN HANDS OF RECEIVERS

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The Columbia Graphaphone Manufacturing company, one of the pioneers in the talking machine trade, was placed in the hands of receivers today when an involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in federal court in behalf of several creditors. The action was a friendly one and plans for the corporation's reorganization under a new name will be made public tomorrow.

H. L. Willson, president and general manager of the company and James R. Sheffield were appointed receivers by Federal Judge Learned Hand, and a joint bond of $100,000. No estimate was made of assets but liabilities were given as approximately $20,000,000.

FIVE ARMENIANS DROWN

STEAMER STRIKES ROWBOAT IN DETROIT RIVER

DETROIT, Oct. 15.—Five of six Armenians in a rowboat, piloted by a Canadian, were drowned in the Detroit river between River Rouge and Ecorse, Mich., early today when an unidentified steamer struck the small craft and precipitated its human cargo into the water. The Canadian pilot also was drowned. Abedes Gudoshian, 40 years of age, of Delray, Mich., was the only one saved.

Government immigration authorities and Ecorse police expressed the belief that the Armenians were being smuggled into the United States from Canada. This belief was strengthened when it was learned that the Armenians had made application to be admitted into this country a few weeks ago, but due to the Armenian quota being filled, their application was refused.

NEGRO WITNESSES FOR STOKES BADLY TANGLED

CONTRADICT THEMSELVES IN CROSS-EXAMINATION

Mrs. Stokes Returns From Missouri With Depositions Refuting Testimony of Two Witnesses

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Two negro witnesses for W. E. D. Stokes contradicted themselves today during searching cross examination at the retrial of the wealthy hotel owner's divorce suit against Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes. Cross examination of a third negro witness had just been begun by Samuel Untermyer, counsel for Mrs. Stokes when court adjourned until tomorrow.

The trial was resumed after a three-day recess when Mrs. Stokes returned from Missouri with depositions refuting testimony of two witnesses for Mr. Stokes, that she had been in Hunceton, Mo., in 1901 with Edgar T. Wallace, chief co-respondent. One of the documents alleged that Mr. Stokes offered the deponent, Hayden Moore, a grocer, $1000 to testify against the defendant.

Dictograph Found In Room

After Mrs. Stokes returned she charged that a dictograph had been found yesterday in her hotel suite by W. C. Nannenberg, a Chicago investigator. It was attached to an extra wire in the wall, but was not connected at the other end, Charles E. Erbstein, Chicago attorney for Mrs. Stokes, declared.

All three of today's witnesses repeated testimony they had given at the former trial. Joseph A. Thornton, negro janitor at the East 35th street apartment house in which Wallace lived, had stated he had seen Mrs. Stokes there three or four times in the summer of 1914. Mr. Untermyer asked him what he would say if told Mrs. Stokes was in Kentucky throughout the summer and gave birth to one of her children in Denver in the fall. The witness said he would say Mrs. Stokes looked very much like the woman he had seen at the house.

HEIGHTS LAND IS SOLD

ADDITION MADE TO JEWETT RESIDENCE GROUNDS

Price of $7000 Is Said to Have Been Paid For Site 155 By 226 Feet

Purchase of property on Fairmount Heights for the extension of the grounds of the residence of Mrs. M. H. Jewett has been completed by taking over a tract owned by Martin Svarverud on Heights avenue. The vacant property has a dimension of 155 by 226 feet and the amount paid is said to have been $7000, which is the highest price paid for a residence site in Eugene in many years, according to those who have been handling the deal for the property.

The property will form an addition to the already extensive grounds of the Jewett home. Plans are being made for the improvement and beautifying of the ground with ornamental landscape work.

Another piece of property on the Fairmount Heights, adjacent to the Jewett grounds, will also probably change hands today, as negotiations are about to be closed whereby Carl G. Then Sheik Omar was banished from Mocha

NEARLY seven centuries have passed, but the name of Sheik Hadj Omar is still highly honored in Arabia.

Mocha, his native city, cast him out into the desert to die of starvation. He had dared to love the daughter of his king.

Yet banishment led to fame, for in his wanderings Omar discovered the coffee shrub and brought coffee berries back to Mocha. Then his praise was sung far and wide, and he gained a place in the legendary tales of his country.

But Omar could not offer even the King of Mocha such coffee as you may now enjoy—M. J. B. COFFEE.

M. J. B. COFFEE offers you the utmost in coffee satisfaction.
