CHANGES TO BE MADE IN HALL EQUIPMENT

Budget Committee Will Be Named —to Care for Four-L Funds for Coming Year

(Register Lane County Special)

WENDLING, Ore., Dec. 3.—Wendling Four-L local, No. 80, district 1, voted to back the Wendling lyceum, at a meeting held Tuesday evening, December 2. The Four-L also voted to accept recommendation of the committee appointed to investigate installing mazda equipment for the motion picture machines.

The recommendation opposed the purchase of this equipment, but recommended that new screen be purchased, that the rheostats now in the motion picture booth be moved to give better fire protection and that a certain sum be set aside each month for purchase of motion picture equipment.

It was voted to appoint a budget committee which would consider the whole of the Four-L funds with the idea of caring for the several needs which arise from time to time.

The lyceum as presented by J. J. Skornichka and F. F. Foster calls for six numbers as follows: (1) vaudeville from Portland circuits; (2) Royal Rosarian quartet; (3) Rex Underwood and wife with other University of Oregon musicians; (4) Lieutenant Oakley Kelley with motion pictures of his exploit; (5) National Collegiate Players from O. DAILY MARKET REPORT

(Oregon Journal Market Review)

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 3.—Further price concessions in the market for eggs continue to be made not only on the dairy exchange but on the open market. In fact, exchange values are being maintained only in spots, a very large per cent of the deals being below the established figures.

Exchange prices were 1c to 2c dozen lower for the session, all showing the smallest loss with the exception of firsts.

Receipts of eggs continue to increase and the abundance of fresh stock is playing further havoc with the storage market, which is already in very bad shape. The public seemingly is off storage eggs. The processed stock received its first real trial this season and much complaint has been received about deteriorating quality on washed offerings.

With fresh eggs arriving so freely that practically all wants of the trade are being taken care of, storage holders are taking a severe loss on their investment.

Butterfat Price Live Topic

Buterfat values refuse to remain down in face of the fact that a surplus of both butter and butterfat is shown at this time. The late reduction of 2c in butter forced fat down 3c, but now the price is but 2c below butter.

Chicken Demand Very Good

Very good call continues all through the chicken trade. Live poultry is being sought not only for local killing but for shipment to other points. Prices are firm for all offerings.

Meat Trade Is Held Steady

Practically no change is shown in the market for country-killed meats along Front street. Receipts are taken care of, with prices continued for both veal and hogs. Latter are fully firm.

Cranberry Market Is Steady

While some interests continue to discriminate against the home-grown product, local cranberries are still meeting with the best demand because of their superior quality and lower price. Even in the home territory of the eastern product the Oregon-Washington stock sells best.

Hop Market Is Quiet Affair

Market for hops is a very quiet affair. Limited trading of late has been confined to small lots at prices that are just about steady. Dealers claim there are few orders for hops, but these can be filled at the price.

Market Volume Expands

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Undisturbed by danger that the advance in the London bank rate to five per cent would increase the local reserve rate, the stock market pressed forward to higher ground today on an expanded volume of trading. Total sales reached two million shares for the first time in more than a week.

Early nervousness over the bank rate was dispelled by assurances from bankers and treasury officials that no immediate change was necessary at New York. Their views were borne out after the close of the market when the local 3½ per cent rate was retained. Initial selling orders were readily absorbed. Prices moved up under the leadership of standard industrial shares, gathering momentum as trading progressed.

Wheat Up Seven Cents

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Wheat trading expanded today to the largest volume in months and whirled the market almost straight up 7c a bushel. Corn finished 2 3-8c to 3c up, oats at 1¼c to 1½c advance, and provisions varying from 12c decline to 3c equal gain.
