EUGENE VETS EXPECTED

MARSHFIELD READY FOR LEGION CONVENTION

Marshfield legionnaires have been working three months to prepare for the state convention to be held there in August and a large delegation is expected to follow the Eugene drum corps to that city, according to Ben S. Fisher of that city, who was here last night.

The Marshfield post will have $6000 to spend, half of the amount being already raised, he said. Between 2500 and 3000 ex-service men are expected and housing committees are already lining up the various places where rooms may be obtained. A new hotel will be finished then to help in this problem.

ELK EXECUTIVES NAMED

CONVENTION MARSHALS WILL MEET MONDAY

Dates Suggested by District Deputy Ben S. Fisher Include June 23, 24 and 25

Executive committeemen of the Eugene Elks' lodge, who will blaze the trail for the state convention to be held here late in June, were appointed last night at a meeting of the order, by Harry H. Hobbs, exalted ruler.

The exact date of the convention has not been selected, although Ben S. Fisher, Marshfield attorney, district deputy grand exalted ruler, who was here last night, suggested Thursday, Friday and Saturday of June 23, 24 and 25.

Mr. Hobbs after naming the executives for the convention, called a meeting of the members for Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Elks' temple.

Those appointed were as follows:

Entertainment—Fred Chess.
Accommodations—O. E. Lee.
Parade—W. W. Branstetter.
Finance—J. S. Magladry.
Publicity—Otto Gilstrap.
Reception—C. V. Simon.

These executives will probably be empowered to appoint others to work with them, it was said.

Additional committees, such as delegations, sports, dances, concessions, etc., will be appointed later.
