AUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

e Man Here—W. F. Kel- Dexter was in the city yes- on business.

• • •

Durbin Has Guest— Mrs. enton of Albany is here to e sister, Mrs. M. S. Durbin, Seventh avenue west.

• • •

uff at Oakridge—Nelson F. r, supervisor of the Cas- tional forest, left yesterday for Oakridge to be gone days.

• • •

ness Name Is Filed — The e of the assumed business Eugene barber shop, was the office of County Clerk yesterday.

• • •

Members Go to Portland y Judge Barnard and Commissioners Crowe and went to Portland last night ll be gone several days.

• • •

Bubb Ill—Major John P. (DOL) officer in charge of corps activities, with head- s in Eugene, underwent a operation Saturday noon. ajor was back at his desk ay.

• • •

Talk on Thrift—R. C. Sim- ill speak on "thrift" at the Wednesday assembly of the high school, it was an- d yesterday. Following the ly the examination period rt.

• • •

n Veatch Gets Water Right n Veatch of this city has water right on a small near his summer home on cKenzie river for domestic e, according to the records state water superintendent.

• • •

Animals Slain—Wild ani- unties were collected yester- the following: W. M. f Oakridge on three coyotes bobcats; Virgil Newman of on one bobcat; A. S. Lan- f Cottage Grove on one ing Man Sought—Chief of Judkins is in receipt of a s from Thomas S. Parker ston, Idaho, offering $100 for locating Noble R. L. member of the Shrine of ty, who disappeared a short o.

• • •

• • •

l Merchant to Speak—Paul en, local merchant, will on "Business With the Col- y" at a meeting of the Ore- tail Clothiers and Furnish- ociation to be held in Port- January 25 and 26, it was nced yesterday.

• • •

Rooms to Be Shown—With cial program arranged, mem- f the Business and Profes- Women's club, will hold a warming" and reception in ew club rooms in the Hamp- uilding tonight. The affair egin at 6:30 o'clock.

• • •

rch Annual Meeting Wednes- Members of the First Metho- Episcopal church will hold annual meeting Wednesday resent plans for the session e reorganization of the Sun- hool department. Reports for st year's work will be read.

• • •

mer Schoolmates Meet—R. R. ell, assistant freight traffic er of the Union Pacific, and Auld, vice-president of the States National bank of Eu- schoolmates in Atchison, met here yesterday for the time in 16 years. They spent asant hour together recalling es.

• • •

ail McCormick Improving — d McCormick, who has been ill from an attack of spinal ngitis in Portland, is slowly ving, according to his father, McCormick, who returned last from that city. His case looks hopeful, the doctors told him. McCormick is constantly at edside.

• • •

y Recruiters Here — Chief rtender J. N. Cochran, and rtender First Class E. B. Les- f the Portland navy recruit- epot, opened an office in the man hotel yesterday where will receive applicants for en- ent. Recruiting activities have resumed in the navy for the time since July 1, 1925.

• • •

Farm Girl Scout Troop—Mrs. Godfrey Banks has sponsored organization of a girl scout in the Washington school, to be the first organization of nd in the public schools of ne. There will be a meeting e Washington building Friday noon to perfect the organiza- it was reported yesterday.

• • •

other Appointed Administra- Walter J. Holland was ap- ed yesterday administrator e estate of his brother, Fran- Holland, who died at Veneta ary 10, 1926, at the age of 56 leaving property of the esti- d value of $3200, according to petition to appoint an admin- istrator. The appraisers are David Auld, Ruby Callison and F. N. McAlister.

• • •

Loggers Get Permit—Allen and Durst yesterday were given a permit by the county court to haul logs over county roads.

• • •

Liquor Possession Charged — Howard Mitchell and J. S. Pittman were arrested by a deputy sheriff early yesterday morning on a charge of unlawful possession of liquor and are in the county jail. It is alleged that they had moonshine in their car.

• • •

Miner Building to Be Fireproof —The new two-story building being erected by W. E. Miner on Ninth avenue east, west of his eight-story office building will be fireproof like his big building. Steel floor joists are now being laid and the upper joists will be of the same material.

• • •

Thrift Speakers Named—L. J. Temple and C. P. Devereaux were named yesterday as speakers at the Lincoln school Parent-Teacher association meeting Wednesday, on the subject "Thrift Week." The meeting will begin at 3:30 p. m. Girls of the Eugene high school quartet will provide music.

• • •

Carload of Lambs to Go Out— The Lane County Co-operative Shipping association is arranging to ship a carload of lambs from the Jasper district to the Portland stockyards. W. H. Fowler, assistant manager of the association, in the absence of W. A. Ayres, the manager will have charge.

• • •

Car Reported Stolen—The Chevrolet touring car owned by H. H. Earle, 1138 Jefferson street, was stolen yesterday afternoon between 3:30 and 5 o'clock, it was reported to the police. The license numehr was 21-253 and was a 1926 plate. The car was parked on Olive street between Ninth and Tenth avenues, west.

• • •

Lumber Company Incorporates —The Cascade Lumber Manufacturing company of Oakridge has filed articles of incorporation in the office of the county clerk here. The incorporators are J. H. Henderson of Portland, J. H. Crahane of Lane county and C. W. H. Wilson of Washington county. The capital stock is $30,000. The company expects to engage in the sawmill business near Oakridge which is given as the principal place of business.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE ALTAR GUILD OF ST. Mary's Episcopal church will meet tonight at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. G. M. de Broeckert, 345 Mill street.

THE WOODCRAFT THIMBLE club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Zimmer, 220 Blair boulevard on Wednesday afternoon. There will be sewing. Come prepared to work.

THE CONGREGATIONAL WOmen's Missionary society will meet this afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. F. Getchell, 1372 Oak street. A large attendance is desired.

TEACHING RELIGION WILL BE the subject of the Rev. Charles F. Elliott at the program meeting of the Unitarian Women's alliance today at 3 o'clock, in the club room of the church. A general invitation is extended to all interested in the theme.

BORN

TOMSON—At their home near Springfield, Saturday, January 16, to Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Tomson, a son, weight eight pounds.

WRIGHT—At Springfield, Friday, January 15, to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wright, a daughter, weight six pounds.

SUNDAY SCHOOL FORMED

LUTHERANS PREPARE FOR RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Organization of a Sunday school and the selection of pastors to preach at services in the near future, were the principal business items covered at a meeting of the Eugene Evangelical Lutheran church (American,) held at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow on the university campus, Sunday.

Forty-two members were registered in the Sunday school, and 19 in a young people's Bible class.

Rev. Luther B. Deck of Vancouver, Wash., will preach here next Sunday and on February 14 Rev. E. O. Bloomquist of Portland, will come.

Organization of a local Lutheran league will take place at a meeting to be held at the Nordling home 970 Seventh avenue west at 7:30 o'clock this evening, and the organization of a ladies' aid society will be at the Peterson home, 735 Seventh avenue west at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Read Register Classified Ads.

Lorenz Here

Dr. Adolph Lorenz, famous bloodless surgeon of Vienna, has returned to America to conduct several clinics.

INFANT BOY DIES HERE

BABY IS SURVIVED BY PARENTS, GRANDPARENTS

Chester Alvin Elspas, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Elspas of 1233 Emerald street, died at the home of his parents Sunday at the age of one year, 11 months and 17 days.

Funeral services will be held in the Branstetter chapel at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, when Dr. E. V. Stivers, pastor of the First Christian church will preach the sermon. Interment will be in the Laurel Hill cemetery.

The baby is survived by his father and mother, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Renne of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Elspas, also of this city.

TESTING TO BE LATER

ASSOCIATION NOT YET READY IN WESTERN LANE

Organization of a cow testing association in the western part of Lane county will not be attempted at this time, according to O. S. Fletcher, county agent, who returned Sunday from that section.

Mr. Fletcher held three meetings in company with N. C. Jamison, dairy specialist of the extension division of the state college. He said the dairymen are not quite ready to organize, but that he thought an organization might be effected some time in the future, if the farmers of Douglas county will co-operate so that the cost of employing a tester will not fall so heavily on one group of dairymen.

PLAN FARM MEETINGS

FLETCHER AND LONG TO SPEAK AT FOUR OAKS

A series of farm meetings has been arranged by O. S. Fletcher, county agent, during the latter part of this week, according to announcement at his office yesterday.

Thursday evening he will address a meeting of members of the Spencer creek Farmers' Union at the home of Joe Gimpl, where he will talk on general farm subjects.

Friday night Mr. Fletcher and C. L. Long, horticultural specialist from the state college, will address a meeting at Four Oaks Grange hall. Mr. Jamison will talk on fruit problems.

NEW BRIDGE IS OPEN

SPAN OVER McKENZIE RIVER IS COMPLETED

The new state highway bridge over the McKenzie river a short distance below the old Hendricks bridge, near Walterville, was opened yesterday for traffic and will continue to be used, according to members of the Lane county court.

The Union Bridge company of Portland had the contract and work was started early last summer. The structure was paid for jointly by Lane county and the state. It has two long steel spans, a long approach on the north side of the river and a short approach on the south side.

MRS. M. FREEMAN DIES

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS ARE NOT COMPLETED

Mrs. Margaret Elmeda Freeman, 50, resident of Elmira for the last 23 years, died at her home Sunday. Funeral arrangements have not been completed and the remains are at the Branstetter chapel.

Mrs. Freeman is survived by the following children: Mrs. Florence Armstrong, Alvadore; Mrs. Myrtle Jacobson, Vinuba, Cal.; Mrs. Agnes Lingo, Junction City; Mrs. Hazel Haas, Bremerton, Wash.; Clifford Freeman of Vaughn; Ruth, Thelma, Mildred, Ilo and Donald, all of Elmira.

MRS. ROACH IS DIVORCED

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS MONTH ALIMONY GRANTED

Mrs. Georgia L. Roach yesterday was granted a divorce from Milo A. Roach on the ground of desertion. She was given $100 a month alimony according to the order filed by Judge Skipworth of circuit court yesterday.

Max Schwartz yesterday began suit in circuit court against Sarah Lou Schwartz for a divorce on the ground of desertion. They were married in New York City, August 25, 1895, according to the complaint, and have one son, 17, who is now providing for himself, says the plaintiff in his complaint. Herbert W. Lombard is attorney for the plaintiff.

Gasoline Tax Upheld

(By The Associated Press)

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 18.—Federal Judge C. E. Wolverton today upheld the validity of the Oregon tax of three cents a gallon on gasoline for automobiles.

All Tickets to Sousa and His Band On Sale Here Daily 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.—Telephone 631

60c Forhan's Toothpaste Special This Week 48c

McMorran & Washburne Store
"EUGENE'S OWN STORE"

Bouquet Cashmere Soap 12 Large Cakes For 79c

January Clearance Sale

More than an ordinary clearance! There is something you need in this Greater January Sale, at a price less than you would pay at any other time of the year! Hundreds are wisely supplying needs for the entire year NOW! Many items being closed out at cost and less—will you get your share of the most outstanding January economies in the history of "Eugene's Own Store."

Many Are Buying Shirts By The Half Dozen!

—And little wonder when standard $2.50 and $3.00 shirts may be had for such a price!

$1.79 3 Shirts for $5.00

Collar attached and neckband style shirts. Fresh new patterns and plain colors. Good looking, long wearing fabrics such as madras cloth, fine count percales, English broadcloths, Ivanhoe flannels.

All Guaranteed Fast Colors!

All correctly sized and well made throughout! AND PLEASE NOTE: Every shirt is brand new! The result of a lucky cash purchase from a large manufacturer of better grade shirts!

Cowhide Hand Bags, $3.95

Genuine cowhide handbags in 16 to 18-inch size. Finished in black or dark brown. Good leather handles—heavy trimmings—reinforced corners.

Men's Overalls, $1.29 Pair

$1.29 instead of $1.85! A saving of 56 cents on every pair. All regulation 220 weight blue denim. High or suspender back style. A well made, satisfactory overall.

Chambray Work Shirts, 59c

Regular $1.00 grade offered during January sales at 59c. Good medium weight blue chambray, extra heavily stitched. Two roomy pockets. Generously sized.

Dress Sox, 6 Pair $1.55

Genuine "Miller" brand lisle hose—a standard 35c grade. A saving of 55c on every six pair! Black, cordovan, gray and white. Sizes 9½ to 12. Buy them by the box men!

Holeproof Sox, 6 Pair $2.00

Fine mercerized lisle sox in light or medium weight. Black, brown, gunmetal or navy. A standard 45c value now at a saving of 70 cents if you buy 6 pair!

Men's Felt Hats, $2.45

100 hats in this lot. Good staple styles and colors selling formerly at $5 to $7.50. To make room for spring stocks arriving soon these will go at $2.45!

Boys' K & E Blouses, $1.10

All regular $1.25 K & E blouses now at $1.10. Mothers know well the sterling qualities of these blouses and here is a saving. 3 blouses for $3.10.

Boys' Unionsuits, 95c

Good cotton, winter weight unionsuits—some fleece lined. Long sleeves and ankle length. All regular $1.25 and $1.50 suits. Additional savings in two suits for $1.85!

Basement Store

Garbage Pails, $1.19

Heavy galvanized pails, convenient 14-quart size. Tight-fitting lid—bale handle.

Clothes Baskets, $1.29

Extra large size fine white willow baskets, substantially woven. Good strong handles. No rough ends to tear fine apparel.

Wood Baskets, 98c

Good heavy splint wood baskets so handy for carrying in wood and so much cleaner and easy to handle than a wood box.

Royal Society Crochet Cotton All Colors, 5c Spool

Aluminum Canisters, 39c

A tightly covered aluminum canister in a handy size for carrying preserves or vegetables in the lunch kit. Pint size.

Vacuum Fillers, 60c

Extra fillers for vacuum bottles in pint size at 69c, and quart size at $1.39.

New Dust Cloth, 29c

Liquid veneer dry dust cloth. A big cloth specially treated for dusting. Picks up and absorbs dust.

January Clearance! Hosiery

"Munsing" Silk and Fibre Blend Hose, Pr. 49c

A fine, lustrous, perfect fitting and long wearing hose. Has the appearance of much higher priced silk hose. Lisle foot and top. Black only. All sizes.

Heavy Service Weight Pure Silk Hose, Pair $1.59

Selected irregulars of a famous hose selling regularly at $2.50. The imperfections are very tiny and in no way interfere with the beauty or wear. All good colors.

Genuine "Phoenix" Pure Silk Hose, Pair 89c

Heavy pure silk hose, regular $1.35, $1.85 and $1.98. Brown only! Every pair perfect!

Holeproof Hose for Boys and Girls, 3 Pr. $1.00

Medium heavy and fine ribbed hose, selling regularly at 50c and 60c pair. All sizes 6 to 10 in this lot. Supply their needs for winter and spring in this extra value!

Women's Regular 75c Outsize Lisle Hose, Pr. 45c

Fine mercerized lisle hose in black and brown. Every pair perfect in every way. Outsizes only. 45c pair.

Infants' Regular 50c Cashmere Hose, Pr. 15c

Size 4 only in this lot! Fine soft cashmere hose in black and tan. If you can use size 4 here is a most exceptional clearance value!

Basement Sale of Pure Silk Hose at 79c Pair!

Good medium weight pure silk hose free from any artificial loading or weighting! Mercerized lisle foot and top. Tiny occasional flaws account for the uncommon low price!
—ON SALE IN BASEMENT ONLY!

McMorran & Washburne Store
"EUGENE'S OWN STORE"

Nelle Kitson
MARCELLEUSE
Formerly with the L. & R. Beauty Shop

Is Now With The City Beauty Shop
882 Oak Street

I will be more than glad to receive my friends at my new location. My efforts are always my best.

Call 349
For Appointments

AMUSEMENTS TODAY

AT THE THEATRES TODAY

McDonald—Last day: Ernest Lubitsch's sparkling comedy of tangled loves, "Kiss Me Again," with Monte Blue, Marie Prevost and Clara Bow; extra added attraction, "A Trip Through the Studios," with the First National stars; also comedy and news.

Coming—Mary Pickford in "Little Annie Rooney;" Blanche Sweet, Robert Frazier and Charlie Murray in "Why Women Love;" Sidney Chaplin in "The Man on the Box;" Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien in "Graustark;" the Liberty magazine special, "Mannequin," by Fannie Hurst; James M. Barrie's "A Kiss For Cinderella," with Betty Bronson; D. W. Griffith's "Sally of the Sawdust;" Raymond Griffith, in "Hands Up."

• • •

Rex—Last day: "What Fools Men," with Lewis Stone, Shirley Mason, Barbara Bedford, David Torrence, Tom Wilson and Ethel Grey Terry, in a drama of men who think they know all about women, and how to handle them; comedy, "Mummy Love," a lively laugh-fest; Rex news events of world interest; J. Clifton Emmel in melodious musical accompaniment to the picture on the organ.

Coming—"New Brooms," with Bessie Love, Neil Hamilton and Phyllis Haver; "The Midnight Flyer," with Cullen Landis, Dorothy Devore and Frankie Darrow; Evelyn Brent in "The Broadway Lady;" Emery Johnston's "The Last Edition," with Ralph Lewis; "Madame, Behave," with Julian Eltinge and Ann Pennington; "The Home Maker," with Alice Joyce and Clive Brook; "The Street of Forgotten Men;" "The Scarlet West," with Robert Frazer, Clara Bow, Johnny Walker, Ruth Stonehouse, Robert Edeson and Gaston Glass; "Seige," with Virginia Valli and Eugene O'Brien; "Abraham Lincoln," with George Billings; "Sundown," with Bessie Love, Hobart Bosworth, Robert Stewart and Charley Murray; Douglas Fairbanks in "Don Q, Son of Zorro."

EUGENE PRINTING CO.
1047 Willamette Phone 148
12-28-tf

PHONE 80 YELLOW CAB CO