BLACHLY NEWS NOTES

(Register Lane County Special)

BLACHLY, Ore., May 31. — I. Slayter and sons are very thankful to the friends and neighbors who so quickly responded to the fire call Saturday. The fire, which started from sparks from the creamery near by almost destroyed a large grain warehouse and threatened the store and nearby buildings. Mr. Slayter attributes his good luck to the quick action of the bucket brigate, also to the Horton Timber and Lumber company chemical hose wagon which made a record run from Hortor to Blachly, soon quieting the flames confining them to the warehouse alone.

W. B. Blachly and Jess Seavey expert fishermen, had to lay their poles down to Dale Blachly Sunday in a fishing trip up the McKenzie. Dale is the young son of W. B. Blachly and had the pleasure of landing two big Chinooks and one redside. While his father caught one measley little trout and Jess Seavey got nothing.

Ben Jones is helping I. Slayter build a new wood shed for Mr. Slayter's store.

The entertainment given at the school gym Friday evening by the Camp Fire Girls was attended by a good crowd. A good program was rendered and several dollars taken in to supply the girls with equipment and supplies.
