Tracy & Givens

Estacada, Oregon.

News Notes From All Sections

J. P. Woodle of Estacada has offered the suggestion that in the coming nomination of the candidates for the next city election, a general mass meeting be held, and that nominations be handled by ballot, with the two candidates receiving the highest votes, being on the final ticket. This system is used successfully in the Estacada school nominations and should be a fair solution of the city's nomination troubles.
