Lost—A dear little child who made home happy by its smiles. And to think, it might have been saved had the parents only kept in the house One Minute Cough Cure. the infallible remedy for croup. J. C. Clark, druggist.

A GOOD LETTER.

From the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

FERNANDINA, Fla., Feb. 28, 1896.

MR. J. GEORGE SUHRER, Druggist, City.

Dear George.—Please send a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I would not feel easy if I knew there was none of this valuable Remedy in the house. I have given it a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.

Yours respectfully, GEO. E. WOLFF.

Sold by J. C. Clark, Druggist.

The basket social at the Evangelical church was well attended considering the inclemency of the weather. About $22 was realized from the sale of the baskets. There were thirty-three baskets sold and it is evident a much larger sum would have been realized had not the auctioneer requested the baskets returned, which somewhat dampened the ardor of the men and nonplused the ladies as many of the young ladies had spent considerable time in the construction of their beautiful mementoes which they expected the gentlemen to keep in fond remembrance of the occasion.

A weed in the garden can be easily destroyed when it first starts. Consumption can be nipped in the bud by One Minute Cough Cure. J. C. Clark, druggist.

GALESPUR.

Mr. Schofield and wife of Cornelius visited at George Beal's last week.

August Roth is talking of building an addition to his barn in the spring.

Peter Stakeley has rented his farm to John Troutner and is coming to the Spur to live.

Prosperity will come when the flowers bloom. The seed was sown last November and will germinate in due season.

Owing to the bad weather last Friday the creamery meeting was not very well attended and so was adjourned to meet Saturday, Feb. 20th, at one o'clock.

America is the best country in the world, Oregon is the best state in America, Washington is the best county in Oregon and Galespur is the best town in Washington.

Keep a stiff upper lip and don't get discouraged. Only a few days more until McKinley will press the button and the wheels of industry will move in earnest.

Business has been pretty good at the Spur the past week. August Roth shipped two veal calves, Cooper Brannaman a carload of hay, W. K. Newell a carload of straw, Harry Ball a carload of oats and John Dethlefs two cars of straw and one of hay.

They may talk about Oregon and defame her as a state, they may talk about her statesmen and tell how they legislate, they may talk about the country till the cows come home at night, but the people will declare that "she is all all right." You will find the people prospering all over this great state, you will find the railroads hauling in and out all kinds of freight, you will find the country healthful and so pleasant to the sight, that you'll clap your hands and shout with us that "she's all right."

From everywhere come words of praise for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Allow me to congratulate you on the merits of your Remedy. It cured me of chronic bronchitis when the doctor could do nothing for me." CHAS. F. HEMEL, Toledo, Ohio. For sale by J. C. Clark, Druggist.
