drier, above Dilley, and are delivering them this week. —— Fern Hill was well represented at the Blooming dance Saturday night. —— The Wolfe boys have been hauling cordwood for Wm. Leiger this week. —— Mr. P. Filbert and daughter, of Manning, brother-in-law and neice of Wm. and Alida Aiton, were their guests a few days this week. —— The Hendricks sawmill, after having been closed up for several months, will commence work again in about two weeks. —— Mr. Cooper's fruit drier, which he has recently built, caught fire last Saturday from a defective flue, but by prompt action the blaze was put out before much damage was done, only a few trays being burned. —— Several farmers in this vicinity are on the look out for good cows to buy, with a vew to increasing their supply of milk for the condenser. —— Lawrence Dixon was a Grove visitor Sunday.

TIGARDVILLE.

Portland Visitors—House Repaired—Burning Slashings—Many Attend Portland Carnival.

Tigardville, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Elizabeth Crocket, of Portland, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Frewing, of this place. —— The S. P. R. R. surveyors who were stationed at this place moved to Scholls Monday, where they will complete this line to Hillsboro; they have been moving quite rapidly on this line, for it is only a preliminary, but, prospects being good, they think they will be back soon to make a permanent line. —— Mrs. Grove has returned to Portland, where she will work for G. P. Rummelin & Sons, furriers. —— A large number of Tigardville people have been attending the carnival at Portland this week. —— Mrs. J. M. Overholtzer has had a lady friend visiting her from Portland. —— Mr. A. P. Smith is going to have his house repaired. —— There have been some large fires about Tigardville this week, as people were taking advantage of the good weather to burn their slashings. —— The Misses Pollard were visting at Progress this week.

Grange Fair—Principals in Baker City Trouble Formerly Parish Priests—New Four-room Public School Building—School to Open Monday—Railway Surveyors Move Camp.

Tigardville, Sept. 23.—The Annual Grange Fair to be held Oct. 4th, has become a holiday next only to Fourth of July, and it is expected to be better than ever this year. Cash premiums will be paid for best exhibits. Admission is free for all. —— Bishop O'Reilly and Father Desmarius, who are having trouble at Baker City, Ore., were both formerly at this parish. —— School will open next Monday, Sept. 28th, in the new 4-room schoolbuilding, which is jjust completed, making the largest and best country school in the county. —— Engineer Macleod has moved his force up to Growers', of Scholls. The survey has been made up the Tualatin as far as N. G. McDonald's, opposite Kinton. —— Mrs. E. J. Godman, who has been on the sick list, is slightly better. —— Mr. Behenke is now busy drying prunes for the public.

SHERWOOD.

Pleased With the State Fair—Hotel Landlord Retires—Disorderly Visitor Contributes to City Treasury—Railroad Officials Inspecting—Public School to Open—Hops in Demand at 22 Cents.

Sherwood, Sept. 22.—J. C. Smock and wife, Mrs. J. E. Morback and G. W. Duke were attendants at the State Fair last week. All returned very enthusiastic as to the way the various features of the fair resulted ——Mrs. Champan and daughter, who have been visiting with Mrs. Snyder during the last two weeks, have left for their home in Walla Walla, Wash. —— Mr. R. Jones has vacated the Sherwood Hotel, and is now living a retired life in German Town, a suburb of Sherwood. —— Clyde Baker, of Pleasant Hill, was arrested by the town marshal on last Saturday, and upon conviction before Recorder Morback, was fined $10 for being drunk and disorderly. —— The Sherwood depot is taking on quite a shine today, preparatory to the arrival of the S. P. Co.'s annual inspectors. —— The Sherwood public school will open on Monday, Sept. 28th. As most of the fall work is over, we anticipate a good attendance for the first day. —— Several hop buyers have made their annual arrival in town, and as far as reported two sales have been made, Price: 20 cents and 22 cents.

BEAVERTON.

Town Again Lively—Large Gathering at Funeral Honors Memory of Late J. N. Fisher—Petty Theft—A Hot Time in the Town.

Beaverton, Sept. 24.—All the hoppickers have returned from the hop yards and the town has taken on its usual activity.——One of the largest crowds ever in attendance at a funeral here attended the funeral services of the late J. N. Fisher, last Sunday.—— J. M. Hankin and wife are attending the funeral of Mr. Searles at La Camas, Wash., this week. ——J. M. Smith reports the theft of a pair of lines from his barn.—— Mrs. Desinge is convalescing after quite a spell of illness. ——G. W. Stett is again able to be out. ——Fred Foster was in town on business Thursday. ——Beaverton had a taste of real excitement Wednesday evening. Early in the evening four young men stole a railroad velocipede at Bertha and came down to the edge of town and there left the velocipede and proceeded to "size up" the town. A little later they brought the velocipede up town and left it on the railroad track by the depot. Some of the young men of the town thought these fellows acted too suspiciously and undertook to gather them in with the aid of the marshal, but through a misunderstanding some of the boys told the strangers that they would be arrested if they did not move on, so they left the town immediately, and also the velocipede.

GALES CREEK.

Cattle Sell Cheap—Condenser Cow Shipment Received — Bears on a Veal Diet—Prune Driers Busy.

Gales Creek, Sept. 23.—The Rev. Howard Latourette, of McMinnville, preached an eloquent sermon last Sunday at the Union church. Text Heb. 2:3. —— Misses Marie and Anna Peterson of The Dalles are visiting their cousin, Miss Cora McClarren. ——Mrs. Sam Wells has returned from her Eastern Oregon visit. —— On Tuesday Mr. Nick Moner and sons had a sale of livestock. About forty head of cattle were sold at a very low figure.——Will Williams and family, accompanied by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, and Miss Mary Williams, of Dilley, also Ernest Burke and Mrs. Sadie Griffith spent Sunday at Will's mountain ranch.—— The factory cows have arrived. So far they are giving very good satisfaction. There may be one or two of the nineteen that lifts a foot occasionally while being milked, but that is a very small item if the cow gives the required amount of milk. Cows received by John Heisler, 6; Mat Hines, 3; Grey Thrapp, 3; Bud Ranes, 1; Frank Allen, 2; Met Vincent, 1; Wilson, 2.——John Proctor, who has been pasturing his yearling and spring calves in the hills about a mile from his home, has had five of them eaten by bears. Mr. Proctor, accompanied by some neighbors, hunted for bruin on Monday, but were unable to find him.——The prune season is here, picking up prunes and drying them are keeping the people, and Messrs. Berry, Thrapp and McGilvery, very busy. ——Mrs. Caroline Iler has just returned from the state fair. She reports a pleasant trip and the cattle exhibit worth going a long distance to see.—— Hoppickers are coming in from all directions with well-filled pocketbooks. Mrs. Guy Thrapp has just returned from Hopewell, where her father runs a hop yard. Mrs. Thrapp made $30 in less than two weeks. ——Mrs. Brice Willson, of Glenwood, visited with Mrs. A. C. Sargent on Sunday last.

The next semi-annual reunion of the Washington County Veterans' Association will meet at Beaverton on Thursday, Oct. 1, at 10 o'clock A. M. A full attendance is requested. William Leach, President. 18-19
