Bills are out for the Bethany band concert at Beaverton on the 20th of next month.

—If you want a nice mattress or lounge cheap for cash call at Patterson's furniture store.

—Dont forget that a first class haircut can be had at Spencers barber shop for twenty cents.

—Services at Leisy's school at 3:15 p. m. next Sunday, October 28th, by Rev. F. J. Strayer.

—Mrs. Jennie Long, of Willapa, Washington, is here visiting with her mother, Mrs. S. D. Powell.

—The Bazar is headquarters for School books, writing books, tablets, pens, inks, slates and pencils

—An article on the free coinage of silver from the versatile pen of John Hansen, will appear next week.

—A good double-backed wash board and a can of Imperial baking powder for "four bits" at Bob Greer's.

—There will be a grand, social dance at Dr. Parkers hall, in Greenville, Friday evening, October 26th.

—The Czar of Russia is probably dead. At 10 o'clock last night there was indication of a sudden collapse.

—Remember THE ARGUS is located first door north of the post office, and does first-class job work on short notice.

—County Clerk R. B. Goodin, wife and daughters visited Tacoma and the Inter-state Fair last week and returned home Tuesday.

—C. E. Deichman has improved the appearance of hi residence by giving it a coat of paint. Spooner and Beauchamp were the artists.

—S. D. Powell and I. B. Mullen started last week for the mines in Southern Oregon, where it is hoped they will retrieve their fortunes.

—H. T. Bagley has sold his harness shop to S. B. Huston. The two shops will now be consolidated under the management of A. M. Carlile.

—A game of foot-ball is to be played at Forest Grove Saturday, October 27th, between the clubs of Portland University and Pacific University.

—Messrs. Wm Tucker & Co., will soon have their goods rearranged and will again be ready for business in their new quarters next door to the post office.

—Exactly one thousand different pieces of sheet music just now received at the Pharmacy at uniform prices of ten cents each. Get your selection before it is gone.

—Saturday evening was nomination night in the Good Templars lodge. They will hold their election next Saturday night when it is hoped there will be a full attendance.

—Mr. Finney has commenced the repairing of his building. The damage done by fire and water will probably reach $800. This is a heavy loss to Mr. Finney these hard times.

—There will be preaching services at the Evangelical church next Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor. Eorning theme, "Real Christianity;" evening, "Clearness and Mystery."

—An interesting and exciting game of base ball was played last Sunday, between Farmington and Laurel clubs on the grounds of the former. The score stood 11 to 12 in favor of the home club.

—All lovers of the terpsicorean art will be pleased to learn that the club dances will commence at the opera house Saturday evening. All are cordially invited to attend and assist in the organization.

—Highwaymen, a few nights since, held up A. Burkhart in his barn-yard on Cooper mountain, and also Frank Pauli, near Farmington. The latter gentlman was relieved of $14, and his watch.

—Saturday night Marshal Redmond offered to furnish lodging to a gentleman of the road, but the gentleman would not accept the marshal's hospitality, and drawing a bead on the marshal, he crawfished out of town. It is supposed that he is the man who held up Pauli and Burkhart.

The members of the M. E. church met at the parsonage of their pastor, Rev. Elworthey, Monday evening. It was a reception and pound social, every one bringing something in the way of eatables. Most of the members were present and gave the new minister and his wife a royal reception.—Woodbern Independent.

—Hon. H V. Gates returned last week from a trip to Castle Rock, Wn., where he has secured the franchise for an electric light plant. The citizens of that little metropolitan city subscribed one-half the capital stock necessary to organize. The incandescent system will be used, the electricity being generated from a dynamo, the same as that in the Hillsboro plant. The citizens of Castle Rock may congratulate themselves that they have secured Mr. Gates' services to assist them in their new enterprise. Our people have found him a straight forward business man and his word as good as gold. We understand that Castle Rock has no water works; if this be true, they can do no better than give him a franchise. The system of water works adopted here is as good, if not better than any other in the state. This was thoroughly demonstrated at the fire in the Finney building on Wednesday morning of last week. Twice the water works have saved Hillsboro $100,000 worth of property.

—Now that the republicans through Czar Reed, McKinley and the Oregonian admit that the McKinley tariff was a failure, and only brought harm to the government, why don't they go farther and make a full confession in all honesty and for their black souls' sake, that all the false legislation and disaster was caused by the republicans in congress, in and out, for the purpose of distressing the laboring classes, whether on farms or in the shop.

—Dr. Tamiesie and wife returned yesterday morning, after a ten days' visit to Spokane and Eastern Washington. The doctor reports having had a very pleasant trip. He found thousands of bushels of wheat that could be bought at 15 cents a bushel. This wheat would grade about number three and would be worth 31 cents in Portland. While absent, they visited Tacoma and other Sound cities.

—Notwithstanding the severe rain storm Saturday evening the Bethany Band boys turned out and gave a free open air concert in the band stand. The music was good and the boys are deserving much praise for the progress they are making. Come again boys.

—At a business meeting of the Epworth League last evening, the following were elected to represent Hillsboro chapter in the Epworth District Convention, at University Park next Monday and Tuesday: Max Crandall and wife, Miss Eva Archbold and R. H. Mitchell.

—A vagabond ordinance should be enacted at once by the city autorities and rigidly enforced. Hillsboro is becoming the house of refuge for the Portland rock pile prisoners who are permitted to escape in order that the city need not support them.

—On complaint of the boys and girls home in Portland Emma Koberstine, a fourteen-year-old girl, of German descent, was arrested and is now having a hearing before Judge Cornelius. Some of the testimony is very damaging against the father of the girl.

—A Salem paper noticing the arrival of a fresh batch of convicts at the penitentiary, names Oscar Rust, larceny of four cows, three years; John Thorpe, larceny of three cows four years. This looks like a bounty for cow-catching —Sun.

—Geo. Ferral arrested some time since for larceny of a watch was rearrested Saturday and required to give additional bonds for his appearance before the grand jury.

—On October 19th, marriage license was issued to C. H. Willoughby and Matilda L. Wolf. Also on the 20th, to August Rossi and Hattie Wolf.

—On Monday night Andrew Vaughn was held up at the point of a loaded gun while on the highway between Forest Grove and Dilley, forty-five cents' worth.

—The farmers are now busy with fall plowing, the late rains having moistened the ground to a depth sufficient for farm work.

A Creed of Love.

Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them. The kind things you mean to say when they are gone say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them. If my friends have alabaster boxes laid away full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection which they intend to break over my dead body, I would rather they would bring them out in my weary and troubled hours and open them, that I may be refreshed and cheered by them while I need them. I would rather have a plain coffin without a flower, a funeral without a eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to anoint our friends beforehand for their burial. Post mortem kindness does not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward over the weary way.
—George W. Childs.

Brain Restorers.

Milk and cheese have been placed in the list of brain restorers by members of the Paris Academy of Medicine. Experiments have shown that absolutely pure caseine contains 753 parts out of 1,000 of organic phosphorus. The welsh rabbit may now be eaten late at night with a clear conscience.—Kate Field's Washington.

FOREST GROVE.

(From to-day's Times.)

Senator Huston was in the city on legal business Saturday.

A Gentleman from Oregon City, where electricy is manufactured to light and furnish power for the whole region, was much surprised at the cheapness and quality of the electric lights in our residences.

Dr. Large has just completed two hundred feet of fine sidewalk east of the campus on the west side of his lot. This is a great convenience for students who come from the east side of town. He will build a hundred and fifty feet more and a picket fence on the south side of his lot very soon.

Westley Arnold and Fet Hall have material on the ground for the immediate construction of residences in Dilley. A Portland man recently bought seven Dilley lots and expects to move out this fall, build and go into the prune raising buisness.

The Southern Pacific bridge gang at Dilley has moved the section house and work shop to the west side of the track for the purpose, it is said, of making room for a new depot to be begun soon. Messrs. Purdy & Briggs have made an offer of land to the company for this purpose whenever it will put in a depot building.

Rev. Arthur H. Smith, of China, preached Sunday morning and evening in the Congregational church to large audiences. His originality of thought and unique style hold the close attention of an audienc. His sprightly manner, apt illustrations and plain exposition of the truth, made deep impressions.

A. Anderson has from seven to eight thousand pounds of dried prunes curing in his new fruit house on the hill. They are mostly the Italian variety, are of good quality and will bring a good price. He finished drying and started in on his grape crop ten days ago.

Max Pierter, Fred Charman and John Bradley, from Oregon City, passed through Forest Grove Monday enroute for the Salmonberry on an Elk hunt, Mr. Pierter is the carp commissioner for Clackamus county and intends to stock the famed Blue lake with the quarry fish. Mr. Charman is cheese commissioner for the same county, and Mr. Bradley is a noted scout. The party were well supplied with carp in demijohns and expect a plesent trip.

Patton Bros' sawmill, four miles from Gaston, and 50,000 feet of lumber, burned last Friday morning about 20 minuts to two. Joseph Patton, who slept in the mill, was awakened at that time by falling cinders and had barely time to escape. The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin as it was found to have been started in the lumber in two other places at the same time, kerosene oil having been used. The value of the property was about $8,000 with $2,000 insurance. The mill will probably not be rebuilt by the same company.

The Congregational club, of Oregon, met at the Congregational church in this city Monday evening. On account of very stormy weather, the number present was smaller than it would have been. Those from abroad, about twenty-five in number, came from Portland by evening train and were driven to Ladies hall where they were received by Mrs. McClelland, Mrs. Clapp, and Miss Brooks. Supper was served in the dining room by members of the Ladies' Working society, to which about forty sat down. The exercises at the church were presided over by Dr. McClelland, president of the club. After prayer by Dr. Wallace, of Portland, and a solo beautifuly sung by Miss Gladys Jones, Rev. J. W. Cowan, D.D., of Oregon City, the speaker of the evening, was introduced. The subject of his address, "The Ultimate Church," was developed along three leading lines, and the conclusions were that the coming church would be Christian, broadly, denominational, and that its creed would contain the vital principals of those of the past. A quartet was rendered by the Misses Stewart and Brooks, and Messrs Loyd and Pates, after which Rev. Arthur H. Smith, of China, was called upon. He spoke in his inimitable and forcible style expressing the views of one at a distance of the tendancy of the church. He reiterated the opinion that the church needed a reformation, and that it had lost the "faith talent." Principle Bates favored the audience with a solo which was followed by a P. U. college song, "Our College," sung by a company of students. Places were assigned the guests by Rev. C. F. Clap, and the exercises were concluded by the benediction by Rev. D. A. Waters of the Methodist church. At a buisness meeting held at the conclusion of these exercises, it was decided to have the next meeting at Oregon City on Nov. 26, and to celebrate at that time the 50th Anniversary of Congregationalism in Oregon; also to celebrate Forefathers' Day, Dec 21, in Portland. Gen. O.O. Howard will be present and has been invited to deliver an address at the former meeting, and Rev. C. O. Brown, of the First church of San Francisco, is expected to deliver the address at the latter.

If Mr. Bratton's gun goes off on his hunting trip as indiscriminately as his mouth went off before he left, the coroner may have a job, —Portland Sun.
