EAST FORK NOTES

Colds and flu have been getting in their work at the logging camp. In fact so many are sick, the work is shut down. Dr. Mast of Myrtle Point, was called for Mrs. Grove.

I wonder if a more beautiful Feb. first was over any part of the earth than that which Coos county enjoyed.

Wild currants have commenced to leaf out and blossom.

The county court did a good job when James Benham was re-appointed road patrol for the upper part of the road district. He would not take the job for the whole length of the district. There is one thing about Mr. Benham, he won't give a man a job just to give him a job. It was fifty years last fall since he came to Coos county and that which he has is in this county and the most of it in this road district.

Elmer Wilson and Walter Laird were around with a petition to the postoffice department for a daily mail service to Sitkum. The people of Myrtle Point are taking a hand to help get it through.

The commercial club of Coquille is to be congratulated on the stand taken by its members in opposing the gambling fakers at the Myrtle Point fair. The Coos county court is not compelled to give that crowd money under the guise of a Coos County fair with Curry county as an annex. All the court has to do is to say: "If you allow gamblers and fakers—no fair money from the county;" and pay over no money until after the fair. And the sheriff should take in the gambling fakers and their aiders and abettors, the fair directors, the same as any other gambling outfit.

It was a great sermon we heard Sunday night from the Church of the Open Door, Bible Institute, Mr. McKennon pastor, Los Angeles. On the historical fact of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, his text was Paul's appearance before King Agrippa and Paul's declaration: "These things were not done in a corner."

A big news iem last night, Monday, was that the British government had honored the captain and crew of the steamship President Roosevelt for saving the crew of the British freighter Antinoe. Great deeds are done upon the sea but none greater than that under the head of "A Pathetic Incident," as told in the Sentinel of Janaury 29.

When God and man are lined together then man does not slump on his job.

When Mrs. J. W. Hall, of Whittier, Cal., whose death was mentioned in the Brewster Valley notes last week, lived at Coquille, it struck me that she and Mr. Hall were pulling a load without much snow under the runners. But they did not advertise the rough sledding. Mrs. Hall always had a cheery countenance and Mr. Hall never doubted but that they would be able to pull through. They did.

Those U. S. senators who thought they could blow back the tide with the wind of words found that they were swamped by the high tides of public opinion and the votes of honorable men in the senate when that vote authorized the United States of America to become a member of the International Court of Justice.

The articles in the World's Work on "The Rising Tide of Crime" by Lawrence Veiller, chairman of the criminal committee of the Charity Organization Society of New York, should be read by every man who has any regard for individual responsibility and the duties of citizenship. Let these figures soak in : "In 1923 there were 10,000 murders in America (11,000 in 1924) as compared to 151 homicides in England and Wales. More men are slain with the pistol in New York City in one year than are murdered in all of England and Wales in the same period and Chicago and others of our cities beat whole nations at murders. Robbing is 36 times as prevalent in New York as London and in Chicago it is 100 times as prevalent." R. A. Easton.

Why not eat Sunday's dinner at the Hotel Coquille? You'll enjoy it, as well as a day of rest.
