LIBERTY THEATRE

Sunday and Monday, Nov. 3 and 4

LON CHANEY
in
"THUNDER"

Lon Chaney in something different. An old-time railroad engineer grim and determined. A story that plays on your heartstrings. A run with supplies to the marooned, through a flood with rails submerged, will thrill you through and through. Just enough comedy and romance to make it good. A better picture silent than in sound. Matinee Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p. m.

Adm. Matinee 35c; Night 50c; Child 10c

Tuesday and Wednesday, Tim McCoy in "SIOUX BLOOD." A classic of the great plains. Also Chapter No. 6 of "TARZAN THE MIGHTY." The great Jungle Serial.

Thursday, Ladies Golden Pheasant China Nite, Beatrice Burton's Mighty Novel, "SALLY'S SHOULDERS" with Lois Wilson and Huntley Gordon. The girl of today stripped of sham and shame.

Friday, Double Feature Day, Whoopee Korn Show! George O'Brien in "MASKED EMOTIONS," A tale of smuggling Chinese into the U. S. Also Ted Wells in "THE SMILIN' TERROR." A Universal Thrill Feature.

Saturday, More Korn Show Whoopee! Willim Fox Presents

"THE GREAT WHITE NORTH"

Actual film record of amazing adventures in the Far North by Sydney Snow. It is packed thrill upon thrill. The most wonderful scenes of the far North ever filmed. Also Charles Chaplin in 'SHOULDER ARMS." And Oswald in "ALPINE ANTICS and JUST MONKEYS." A Leammle Novelty. Altogether some show!

On Friday and Saturday the show will start at 1:00 P. M. Silent pictures for your own interpretation. Come, rest and relax. There's lots of action and no squeaky squawky. Miss Lucile Lore presiding at the organ.

Don't forget Friday and Saturday—2 Big WHOOPEE Days

Jas. R. Benham at Rest

Jas. Robert Benham passed away at his daughter's home in Drain, Oregon, Oct. 24, 1929, and was buried by the side of his wife in the Dora cemetery Oct. 25, Rev. Henry Carver, of Myrtle Point officiating.

Mr. Benham was born in Valpariso, Mo., April 30, 1858, being 71 yrs., 6 mo. and 6 days of age at the time of his death.

His father and mother, William and Martha Susan Benham, were the parents of nine children of which he was the third child. They crossed the plains with an ox team when he was a small lad but he remembered many things that happened on the long trip. The only surviving members of the family are Mrs. Amanda Hollenbeak, of Coquille, Ore., Mrs. Nancy Neely, of Fairview, Ore., and Wm. C. Benham, of Portland, Ore.

When the family first came west they settled twelve miles east of Harrisburg in the Willamette Valley. In 1869 they moved to Modoc Co., California, and in 1875 to Coos County, where they have all lived most of the time since, their first night being spent in Brewster valley, where Mr. Benham later lived for many years.

The family moved to Fairview and conducted the stage station on the Coos Bay wagon road for several years. They also had the Western Union telepragh in connection with it.

On Dec. 5, 1884, Mr. Benham was married to Miss Callie Mast, of McKinley. In January they moved to Brewster Valley, lived on a rented place for one year, then bought a ranch on Brummett Creek, where they lived for several years, moving to Fairview for one year and then returning to their old home in Brewster Valley, where he lived the rest of his life, except that for the past two months he was with his daughter in Drain.

To this union three children were born, who survive to mourn his death. They are Mrs. Zilpha Krewson, of Sitkum, Oregon; Mrs. Linnie Krewson, of Drain, Oregon; and Julius L Benham, of Sitkum; also six grandchildren survive, Forrest, Gene, Eloda, Velma, Keith and Glade Krewson.

When the Benhams moved to their home on Brummett Creek it was nothing but a forest of myrtle and maple trees, there not being enough cleared ground to turn the wagon around. Out of this he carved their home and raised his family. Mrs. Benham died Mar. 11, 1925. Mr. Benham has belonged to the Christian Church ever since a young man in Fairview, he always went to church every chance he had and his home was always a home to the preacher when one was in the valley.
