Woman's Club Greets State Pres.

Mrs. A. C. McIntyre, of Pendleton, state president of the Federated Women's Clubs was the honored guest at the meeting of the Coquille Club held in the Guild Hall Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was preceded by a noon no-host luncheon at the hotel for the officers and guest of honor. Mrs. Jas. Watson presented them with lovely corsages. The meeting was opened with the club song led by Mrs. Geo. Bryant, accompanied by Mrs. Skeels. This was followed by the salute to the flag. Two pep songs, complimenting Mrs. McIntyre, were sung by the club ladies.

Committee reports were given, followed by the election of officers for the new year: president, Mrs. E. E. Leslie vice president, Mrs. George H. Chaney; second vice president, Mrs. R. E. Boober; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Slack; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. T. Slater; treasurer, Mrs. Keith Leslie. Mrs. Keith Leslie reported $31.10 as realized on the recent sale of tickets for the show sponsored by the club. The annual spring lupcheon is planned for May 10 at the hotel with the professor of public speaking at the university as the sprincipal speaker.

The program was presented by Mrs. Sanford; it had been arranged by Mrs. M. Earl Wilson. Two very clever dancers, Joyce and Beverly Whited, of Marshfield, entertained, first with a Swedish song and dance and second with a snappy tap dance. Campaign songs for Mrs. Saidie Orr-Dunbar, the new national president of the Federation, were sung by the club members. Mrs. McIntyre, winsome president of the state federation, gave a splendid talk on club affairs and told of her trip to Washington, D. C., and to Tulsa, Okla. Her talk was interspersed with clever poems.

Tea was served from a most attractive tea table presided over by Mrs. Frank Leslie and Mrs. R. A. Wernich. The centerpiece was an attractive bouquet of spring flowers. The hostess committe was composed of the following ladies: Mesdames F. L. Greenough, H. L. Claterbos, Ernest Whereat, Geo. Oerding, Frank Martin, Julius Ruble, B. W. Dunn, O. C. Sanford, F. C. McNelly and J. L. Stacer.

Mrs. McIntyre then graciously gave a few of her splendid readings by request: "What Makes a Home," "The Right Family," "Wonderland" and "At the Movies." These were thoroughly enjoyed.

Other ladies present were: Mesdames Ida Owen, W. H. Mansell, W. A. Ireland, Harold McCue, Rose Wisebock, Clarence Tuttle, Lafe Compton, Birdie Skeels, D. D. Dale, C. W. Kline, Harry Slack, U. E. McClary, Geo. Jenkins, Cyril McCurdy, J. E. Norton, G. W. Tyrell, F. S. Emery, R. L. Stewart, J. R. Bunch, M. Earl Wilson, Elbert Schroeder, Geo. Bryant, Leland Petersen, Lee Hand, Keith Leslie, Earl Leslie, C. C. Farr, Roy Barton, Frances Holmstrom, Jas. Watson, C. J. Fuhrman, Ray Jeub, J. A. Lamb, K. P. Lawrence, R. E. Boober, R. B. Rogers, J. L. Smith, O. B. Harriman, Bert Folsom, L. H. Hazard, V. A. Dimmick, June Walker and Roy Wheeler.

Jr. Women's Club Convention Sunday

The County Convention of Junior Women's Clubs was held in Coquille Sunday, starting with registration at the I. O. O. F. hall at nine o'clock a. m. A breakfast was held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Bunch, for the presidents, past presidents and contact chairmen of Jr. Women's Clubs, also Mrs. Albert Powers Mrs. A. C. McIntyre and Mrs. H. D. Peterson. Other delegates breakfasted at Brandon's. Mrs. Bunch's home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and at each plate were attractive Easter Egg place cards and Easter corsages.

A round table discussion was held on selling advertising for the "Oregon Clubwoman." The next issue of the Clubwoman will feature the "Junior Clubs." The committee appointed on selling the magazine is: Miss Marjorie Baird, Mrs. Marlin Brandon, Mrs. Hal Howell and Mrs. Dan Fish.

At eleven o'clock the club women attended St. James Episcopal church in a body. A no-host luncheon was served in the I. O. O. F. hall at 12:30 o'clock.

At the afternoon session, which was held in the I. O. O. F. hall, Mrs. Elbert Schroeder, local president, extended the addres of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. Lucy Jacobs, president of the Bandon club. Miss Rose Nagel sang a solo and was accompanied by Miss Catherine Barker.

In the absence of Miss Cena Smith, of Marshfield, district chairman, Mrs. Schroeder presided at the business meeting which followed. The ladies voted to have a 25c registration fee for all who attend the conventions and each club to be rseponsible for the number of delegates they guarantee. They also voted to have as their project "The Education of the Cause and the Prevention of Syphilis." Reports were heard from the following clubs: North Bend, Roseburg, Newport, Powers, Myrtle Point, Bandon, Marshfield and Coquille. The North Bend club extended an invitation for the clubs to meet with them in October. Mrs. Ronald Craven, of Salem, third district chairman of Juniors, gave a most interesting resume of work accomplished by the Salem club.

Following the business meeting a splendid program was enjoyed. North Bend club presented a skit entitled "After School." Splendid talks were given by Mrs. A. C. McIntyre, state president of the senior clubs; by Mrs. Albert Powers, national vice chaiman, and by Mrs. H. D. Peterson, state chairman of Juniors. Mrs. Powers urged contributions toward the Foundation fund. She also urged clubs to pledge 100 per cent toward the club magazine. Mrs. Peterson gave excerpts from addresses at the national convention held in Tulsa, Okla. Mrs. McIntyre gave two splendid readings, accompanied by Mrs. Craven. Mrs. J. T. Brand, president of the senior club in Marshfield, the guest speaker, gave a splendid talk, her principal theme being, "Personality."

Seventy-one ladies attended the convention.

Mrs. Ruth Clayton was hostess to the N. O. M. A. club Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in sewing and knitting, after a short business session. Both prizes were won by Mrs. Yvonne Carl. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mesdames Frances Detlefsen, Alice Morris, Ferryl. DeJarnett, Olive Kuehn, Yvonne Carl, Lucille Ellison, Bernice Ireland and Lorraine Perrott.

Mrs. D. B. Estes entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening. Yellow and blue was the color scheme, the flowers blending most attractively. Contract bridge was played, Mrs. Lanis Bosworth winning high score and Mrs. Kenneth Kistner, second. Those present were: Mesdames Walter Litzenberger, Julius Ruble, T. S. Stevens, O. T. Gant, E. A. Walker, Kenneth Kistner, Lanis Bosworth, Fred Watson and the hostess.

Mrs. Ralph Hurlburt entertained the Pinochle club at the home of Mrs. Roy Wheeler, with Mrs. Wheeler as joint hostess last Saturday evening. John Wersh won high score and Chas. Lewis received consolation. A delicious lunch was served at a late hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lewis and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McElhaney and Clyo, Mr. and Mrs. John Wersh, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wells, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jenkins and Mr. Harris, of Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hurlburt.

Mrs. K. P. Lawrence was hostess to her neighborhood club for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon Wednesday. Contract bridge was played, Mrs. Geo. Holbrook winning high score and Mrs. L. A. Greene second. The rooms looked lovely with bouquets of apple blossoms and trilliums. Those present were: Mesdames Geo. Holbrook, C. V. Carmichael, G. H. Hoxie, Fred Hudson, L. A. Greene, Fred Jensen, B. W. Dunn and the hostess.

Sunday morning, April 3, the children's department of the Pioneer church held a medal contest at which Mrs. Esta Ellis presented Bobby Jenkins with the medal for the winner. Monday, April 4, another contest was held and Eula McCracken was the winner. At the close of the contest Monday, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. James Richmond, assisted by Mrs. Walter Oerding and Mrs. Orville Newton, served refreshments to the group of youngsters. The tables looked lovely with decorations of rainbow-colored crepe paper. About 25 children and Rev. Howard Graybeal were seated at the tables. The medal winners so far are: Geraldine Oerding, Laura Emily Ruble, Bobby Jenkins and Eula McCracken.

April 5th, at the all-day session of the W. C. T. U. held in the Church of Christ, Mrs. Esta Ellis, county and city director of the medal contest, gave her report and a talk on the value of medal contests. She reported seven silver medals have been given in the county and four bronze medals in Coquille.

About forty members of Beulah Chapter, including the officers, attended the district meeting of the O. E. S., held in the Masonic Hall, Marshfield, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Hazel Ingram, worthy grand matron, made her official visit to the chapters of the county. Other chapters were well represented. Beulah Chapter put on the initiatory work in a splendid manner and iniated two ladies: Anna Davidson and Edna McClarrin. After a splendid meeting and very worth while talks by the worthy grand matron and others, delicious refreshments were served. Dr. June Martin, member of the jurisprudence committee, had charge of the arrangements.
