Carpenters Dress Babies At Party

Mrs. Harry Godard and Mrs. Harry M. Ross were in charge of the program for the ladies' evening which the local carpenters union held in Odd Fellows hall Monday evening, and many of the carpenters were sore the next morning from laughing so hard at the stunts attempted by the male contestants. The Bandon union and their ladies had been invited to attend and there were 38 present.

After the fine dinner served, Frank Smiley of Bandon was chosen as captain of one team and Harry Godard of the other, and the members then began to attempt the stunts arranged for by the ladies, darning a pair of socks and putting them on, sewing buttons on a shirt, patching a coat, and such matters which are part of a housekeepers' work. The crowning stunt, which caused the greatest hilarity was the dressing of a baby, the infant being nude to start with. Levi L. Bunch and Frank Herker were the contestants in this stunt, Mr. Bunch winning, while Mr. Herker's principal attempt was to steal the clothes from Mr. Bunch's baby..

Altogether it was one of the most amusing and enjoyable parties the carpenters have ever had.

Patricia Nosler Married August 14

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nosler announce the marriage of their daughter, Patricia, to Jack Towne at the Christian Church in Vancouver, Wash., on Thursday, August 14. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Towne of this city.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Coquille High chool. They will make their home in Lebanon, Ore., where the groom is employed in the plywood plant.

Robert Bailey attended the wedding from Coquille.

Card of Thanks

This is to publicly thank the Coquille Fire Department for their successful efforts in saving my Coquille Auto Court from destruction by fire recently. I was away from home at the time, hence this delayed word of appreciation. LeRoy Rice.

Members of the Monday Night club were entertained this week by Mrs. Jane Williams and Mrs. J. A. Lamb at the Lamb Bandon cottage. The group drove down late Monday afternoon for dinner at the beach, and an evening of bridge. Many of the members spent the night at the cottage. In the party were Mesdames H. A. Young, J. L. Smith, Jane Williams, H. W. Pierce, Bert Folsom, J. A. Lamb, Merle Pettit and R. V. Wilhelm.

Sergeant Irving Larson was surprised Wednesday evening when Mrs. Larson invited friends for an outdoor party at the Harold Varney's, to celebrate her husband's birthday. Hamburgers, grilled over the barbecue pit, were a treat. For dessert, everyone went to the Larson home. Guests included Messrs. and Mesdames E. W. Tichenor, Robert Mason, Harold Stromquist, Walter Moore, Chester Liechty, Mesdames Todd Knapp and Claire Alderson and Marvin Kloster.

Members of the J. G. W. club and their families had a good time Sunday when they picnicked at the C. J. Fuhrman ranch on Sixes River. They spent the day fishing, playing games and eating. Picnic fare was served from the summer house and long tables under the trees accommodated the members of the party. Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames E. E. Johnson, Charles Kash, J. A. Lamb, J. E. Norton, L. L. Rosa, J. L Smith, James Walstrom, of Bandon, M. O. Hawkins, H. N. Lorenz, O. C. Sanford, C. J Fuhrman, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Lucas, of Bandon, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rietman, Mesdames Jane Williams, E. W. Lorenz, R. V. Wilhelm, C. E Huling, of Marshfiled, Edna Hartson, the Misses Markie Smith and Ann Hawkins, Messrs Maurice Williams, Dick Sherrill, of Marshfield, and Rolph Fuhrman.

A potluck picnic in the Donald Farr yard made a pleasant change in the usual routine of Cornerstone Class meetings Thursday afternoon. Each member of the class brought fruit for a big salad. After lunch, the group went inside for the program. Mrs. Delbert James reviewed a travel book on South America. Mrs. Berlyn Billings reviewed briefly several religious novels and gave a list of those available at the Coquille library.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Clinton Bash, Doffis Bash of Albany, Berlyn Billings, John Boots, Willard Burrell, George Chapman, Raymond Cooper, W. A. Earls, Donald Farr, Henry George, Walter George, T. S. Harrington, Delbert James, Amzy Mintonye, Elwyn Nosler, E. H. O'Dell, Earl Steward and Tom Stevens.

The home of Mrs. Mac Gant at Lee was a scene of a party Thursday when members of the Co-Workers club gathered at noon for potluck luncheon. They showered their hostess with bath towels. Mrs. Frank McNair, who had recently celebrated both her wedding anniversary and her birthday, received presents from her secret sister.

Guests and members present were Mrs. Marjorie Clouse and her children, Kathryn Louise, Jimmy and Janice, all of California, Mesdames Louis Detwiler, C. H. Dondono, Bailey, George Hultin, Cook, Roy Hultin, James McGuffin, Frank McNair, John McNair, Ivan Robison, W. H. Schroeder and Lou Smith.

Members of the Tauk-an-So club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Earl Schroeder. Some knitted, other sewed and still others played pinochle. Mrs. Guy Torrey won the drawing for the hostess' prize. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Henry Belloni, E. E. Benham, James McGuffin, Marjorie Clouse, Ellis Martindale, George Burr, Al Burch, Guy Torrey and Ernest Embree, of Eugene.

Mrs. Ed Detlefsen entertained members of the Laf-a-Lot club Thursday afternoon. Her guests surprised her with a dish towel shower for her birthday. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon to the following: Mesdames W. E. Cross, George Gilman, Alex Mackey, O. K. Rakestraw, J. W. Ruble and Arthur Ellingson, who was a guest at the club meeting.

Mrs. Carl Alwert and Mrs. Carl Kramer organized a surprise handkerchief shower Friday evening for Mrs. Merle Kamer, who will leave here soon to join her husband at Prineville. After Mrs. Kramer had opened her gifts, everyone went over to the Alwerts for refeshments. Among those on the guest list were Mesdames Jim Stevens, Edell Bryant, Faye Ousterhout, Michael McCarthy, Tharon Thornton, William Holcomb, Joe Scolari, R. E. Hamilton, Lester Billings, Todd, Leontine Knox, Edna Pointer, Wilbur Ritchie, Messnard, Norbert Bruggeman, Ed McKeown, Tom Rutledge, Elizabeth Lane and Dick Anderson.

Mrs. Ted Snyder was the week's hostess for members of the Friday Pinochle club. The group assembled for one o'clock dessert. About the rooms were lovely bouquets of mixed flowers. Mrs. Clovis Church won high and traveling prizes and Mrs. Julius Ruble was consoled. Mrs. Ruble substituted. Members present were Mesdames Jay Carter, Clovis Church, D. G. Ireland, Clyde Minard, Leland Peart, Elton Savage and Ted Snyder.

The K. Y. N. club enjoyed an unusually pleasant day Wednesday, when members drove to Haynes Inlet to picnic with Mrs. George Sanford, (Kate Watson). Many of the members were making their first visit to Mrs. Sanford's new home, and they thoroughly enjoyed seeing her lovely garden and eating their lunch under the big tree in the front yard. Miss Audrey Sanford played several accordion solos. Other guests included Mrs. Russell Morgan and Mrs. Earl Hamilton of Hillsboro, Gordon Sanford and her two children. Members present were Mesdames Jim Dawson, Bob Gearney, Guy Kelley, C. C. McCurdy, V. R. McCurdy, Sandra and [illegible], Eugene Nosler and Roy Pettengill.

Bridal Shower For Eileen Kern

Eileen Kern, bride-elect of George Alder, was the guest of honor Wednesday at a miscellaneous bridal shower given by Mrs. C. C. Farr, Mrs. Robert Wheeler and Mrs. V. L. Bailey at the Church of Christ parlors The table on which Miss Kern's gifts were piled, was decorated with a dainty centerpiece of pastel sweetpeas and scabiosa. On the piano was a Fostoria bowl filled with exquisite asters from Mrs. Wheeler's garden. Mrs. Ralph Harry sang, "What Does It Matter." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Verene Bailey. Several amusing games, pertinent to the occasion, added to the fun of the party. The most hilarious of all was one in which Miss Kern drew from a box the items she would give her husband for breakfast. Included on the menu were chives, pickles, onions, a popular brand of cleansing powder and zucchini squash.

Gifts were received from the following: Mesdames W. S. Holcomb, Robert Wheeler, Pearl Cardwell, Mary Burns, Willard Sloan, Tom Henderson, Oma Hemstreet, George Chapman, C. C. Farr, Arthur Hooton, S. S. Hardenbrook, George Swinney, John Sullivan, Ernest Benham, Guy Torrey, Gus McCulloch, Mary Wimer, John Widmark, Leona Foley, Paul Simpson, Ralph Harry, Dan W. Brown, V. L. Bailey, Walter Addison, E. E. Nosler, Elwyn Nosler, Ernest O'Dell, Guy Kelley, Maul Skaggs Woodyard, G. L. Maynard, A. M. Willey and the Misses Doris Hadsall, Verene Bailey and Elizabeth Hooton.

For a Birthday or "going away" gift, use monogrammed stationery. This service of imprinting the name or monogram on each sheet is furnished at Norton's at a small additional cost.
