(Coos Bay News.)

A two-masted schooner, supposed to be the Coquille, was seen off the Siuslaw on the 17th. She disappeared during the night, and nothing had been heard of her up to the end of last week.

J. C. Christie, a Southern Pacific bridge expert, is examining the route between Drain and Coos Bay, to decide on what kind of bridges are necessary.

A surveying party arrived on the bay last week, who were supposed to be in the employ of the Southern Pacific. Later it was rumored that they represented the Oregon Coast & Eastern R. R.

The report regarding John D. Spreckles' illness was exaggerated, according to news brought by officers of the Breakwater. His health is far from good, but his condition is not nearly so serious as was reported.

The Larson dredger Oregon will probably be employed within a few days, building a road bed along the north bank of Coalbank slough, near Eastport. This is on the line of the new portion of the road being built from Railroad Addition to connect with the old road at Eastport.

Capt. Duggan, of the Czarina, slowed down his steamer while crossing the bar Saturday, and took careful soundings at less than half tide. The lowest water found on the bar was 30 feet. He says it's the best bar on the coast; far superior to the Columbia river bar, on which such an enormous amount of money has been expended.

Three eight-hour shifts are employed at the maxwell mine, sinking the slope, which is progressing at the rate of about nine feet per day. The slope has been started from the level, which is 600 feet from the surface, and the lift will be 300 feet. Development work shows an excellent vein of coal, with an exceptionally good sand rock roof and floor.

For a Weak Digestion.

No medicine can replace food but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the the amonnt digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion, don't fail to give these Tablets a trial. Thousands have been benefitted by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

NOTICE.

I will pay a reward of $50.00 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who threw a wire over the electric light line, near the Myrtle Point depot, on the night of January 3, 1906, or any party or parties who may in the future, shoot off any insulators or otherwise interfere in any way with any of the poles, wires, or other apparatus of the electric system of the Coquille River Electric Company.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," says Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be pr cured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by R S Knowlton.

M. J Kinney Closes Deal

The stave mill property owned by the Flanagan & Bennett Bank has been sold to M. J. Kinney and his associates for sixteen thousand dollars.

A telegram came yesterday from M. J. Kinney to Diers Brothers & Pugh who negotiated the sale that eight thousand dollars of the money had been deposited in bank and that the remainder would be paid upon the receipt of the abstract of title.

Mr. Kinney has had this property under option for some time and his cruiser has been at work verifying the report.

Besides the old mill at Kittyville the property includes 500 acres of timber on South inlet. The cruiser's report shows 26 million feet. The mill has 300 feet of water front on the bay.

This is a most important deal and it is taken to mean that Marshall Kinney and David Eccles are getting a foothold in Coos county. Other deals are supposed to be under way.—Coos Bay Harbor.

Bryan Abroad.

W. J. Bryan will write a series of letters while on his two-year tour of foreign lands. These letters will appear once a week in a select list of the leading American daily newspapers, among which is the Journal.

The Bryan letters in the Sunday Journal will make clear the point of view of foreign countries on many of the questions which now confront us.

Few men are better qualified to treat large questions in a large way than Mr. Bryan, and no one who wishes to keep abreast of the times can afford to miss these letters.

The Sunday Journal is a great newspaper, filled with "good things." With its beautiful color supplements, its cartoonists like Opper, Swinnerton, Sullivant, Howarth and others of like renown; with its special staff of famous writers, including such stars as Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs Osborne, Mrs. Henry Symes, Lady Henry Somerset, Beatrice Fairfax, Max Nordeau, Maurice Maeterlinck, Count Tolstoi, Prof. Garrett P. Serviss, and humorous sketches by George V. Hobart (Dinkelspiel), Wex Jones, William F. Kirk and others, and with all the world's news by leased wire, and the home news, The Suuday Journal is a thoroughly representative newspaper.

The Journal is "the paper of the multitude," in sympathy with and pledged to the cause of the masses of mankind—of "equal rights to all"—a square deal.
