Local Events.

—Come to the GRAPHIC office for neat job work.

—Miss Elva Coppock visited relatives at Oregon City, this week.

—We wish all our readers, and all the rest of mankind a happy and prosperous New Year.

—Miss R. E. Deskins is spending the holiday season with her mother on the old homestead.

—Luther Hill of the Center street barber shop was in Portland this week on business.

—Miss Ella Hadley, school "marm" of Dayton, was visiting at Lin Parker's one day this week.

—Every body is cordially invited to attend Sunday School at the Free Methodist church at 2 o'clock p. m.

Wm. Ralston of Washtucna, Wash., spent Christmas, visiting with one of Newbergs fairest daughters.

—O. E. Rees, Frank Elliott, Fred Oliver and Mr. Harford of Portland spent Christmas in Newberg.

—104 couples are reported as being present and participating in the dance at Jones Hall Christmas night.

—L. C. Washburn, adjuster for the Pacific Fire Insurance Co., is spending the holidays with his family.

—John Brown came up from Portland, on Tuesday, to spend Christmas and visit his daughters.

—Mr. and Mrs. Buckman dined with Mrs. Graham at the Newberg house, Christmas.

—Convention at the school house this Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, to nominate city officers. Don't fail to attend.

—Miss Janie Graham, station agent at Tualiton and her sister Twink spent Christmas night with their mother in Newberg.

—The prospects are that a capitalist from Lynn, Mass. will erect a large mill, sash and door factory on the river at this place.

—Mr. Hiatt, of Whittier Cal. who has been sojourning in Newberg for the last month starts for his southern home this week.

—Don't fail to attend the entertainment on Tuesday evening at the old Friends Church. They have an excellent program.

—Arthur Austin and Clyde Hobson have organized a new band since Santa Clause's visit on Christmas, and are making lively music.

—For letter heads, bill heads, statements, envelopes, cards, in fact for nearly all kinds of job work, give the GRAPHIC office a call.

—Is it not about time we hear again from our Alaska correspondent? We should like an account of Christmas and New Year in that far north land.

—There has been a number of parties held by the young folks recently, but as no party of the GRAPHIC force were invited to attend we are unable to give full particulars.

—All memberes of the G. A. R. Post are requested to be present at their Hall on Dec. 31st at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of mustering.

C. Maris commander.

—The GRAPHIC office was remembered by the Christenson—Larkin wedding, with a generous supply of cake. The youngest member of the force wishes there was a wedding every day.

—A very pleasant surprise party was had on the two Mr. Robertson's of Dundee on Christmas night. There was a large attendance of the young people of Newberg and a very pleasant time is reported.

—There should be street lamps put up at the depot along Main, First and Center Streets. Strangers getting off the evening train these dark nights are at once disgusted with our otherwise enterprising city. Let us have light.

—"Bruiser" Smith says, that pa and ma forgot to lock the front door, when they went to the Christmas tree and that Santa Clause came into the house while he was asleep and left him three pairs of rubber boots.

—There is a clamor to have some of the new streets in the east part of town opened. Residents in that part of town say the streets have been fenced long enough. It is hard to get new streets opened fast enough to suit the people.

—We feel sorry for the young man who had to call at so many different houses Christmas eve before he found where his best girl lived. We suppose it was because our city is growing so fast, that he was unable to keep track of his girls residence.

—There is considerable complaint about the boys pluging shot key holes about town. We suppose the boys think it is fun, so we have no complaint to make as we like fun ourselves, but the man whose key hole is pluged shut when he is in a hurry does not think it much fun, and we should always respect others rights, and do so no more.

—Rev. W. A. Willison, wife and two daughters, spent last Sunday and Monday in town, being guests of Mr. and Mrs. Britt. Mr. Willison preached morning and evening at the Free Methodist church. We scarcely ever meet more social or genial people than Mr. and Mrs. Willison. We hope they will make their home in Newberg, instead of LaFayette.

—The Hotels of Newberg with their usual enterprise made a special effort on Christmas dinner. The Newberg house gave a dinner that was well enjoyed and appreciated by all that partook of it. At the Arlington a sumptuous repast was served, and all the appointments were first class and many partook therof. Their guests amounting to about 60 during the day.

—If any of our readers are not taking the weekly illustrated West Shore they ought to do so. It combines the desirable features of all the eastern weeklies and is superior to any one of them. Especially in its graphic pictures of western scenes is it of great interest. Aside from the local paper it is the best publication that can be taken, and should be in every house. Published by L. SAMUEL, Portland, Oregon, at $4.00 a year.

—To those who receive a sample copy of the GRAPHIC this week, we say read it carefully, and if you wish to become a regular subscriber, send us your name, whether you have the money or not at the present, and we will send it to you regularly and you can pay us any time inside of a year, as soon as you get the money. If any should like to have either of the Journals we offer in connection with the GRAPHIC, send us the money for one year's subscription, as mentioned elsewhere, and you will receive the two papers. We can only offer the two papers to CASH subscribers. You may rest assured that the GRAPHIC will be better as it grows older, and that it will work for the up building of this beautiful valley.

—Newberg had a happy Christmas all around so far as we have been able to learn. There were two trees in town on Christmas eve. Mr. & Mrs Santa Claus stopped with the tree at Jones hall where about 100 had gathered. The exercises were good. Miss Hanson and Miss Carter each gave very good declamations with another exercise by 7 young ladies. Newberg band was present and discoursed music during the evening. The tree was loaded with presents and all went home happy. At the Friends church there was also a large crowd, our reporter was unfortunate enough to get a back seat with several tall bonnets and hats with high feathers directly in front and was unable to see or hear all the exercises, but so far as he could see and hear they were first class. Miss Nicholson gave a splendid declamation. The tableau "Rock of Ages" by Miss Nervie Wright was good. There was another exercise by several young ladies but as our reporter could not hear we are unable to say wheather it was good or not but knowing the parties who took part we feel safe in saying it was first class. This tree or arch was also loaded with presents, some very fine and costly, but all were gifts or tokens of good will to each other, and all young and old went home happy and contented.

Married.

SMITH—CLARK. At the residence of J. R. Smith on December 25th 1889, by J. M. Wright, Justice of the Peace, Mr. Lee M. Smith and Miss Alvina Clark.

Both of the contracting parties are well known in this vicinity, Mr. Smith being engaged in business in Newberg for some time. The GRAPHIC, as well as their many friends wish them all the good, and none of the evil things of life.

Married.

CHRISTENSON—LARKIN. Married at the residence of the brides parents, near Newberg Oregon, Dec. 24th 1889. Mr. N. C. Christenson to Miss Josie Larkin, Rev. McCutcheon of Carlton, officiating. Mr. Christenson is well and favorably known as one of Newberg's most highly esteemed citizens, as also a thorough business man, having control of the grain elevators near the depot. Miss Larkin is known as one of our most respected and accomplished young ladies. The wedding ceremony was performed at 12 M. Dinner was served promptly at 1 o'clock, and is spoken of by those partaking as very sumptuous in every particular. Just such a dinner as Mrs. Larkin knows well how to prepare. The bride and groom took the 2.30 p. m. train for Portland, preparatory to starting on an unlimited tour up the Columbia, to view its magnificent scenery. Upon taking their departure, among the handshaking's, "goodbye's," "goodwishes," etc, etc, showers of rice and old shoes followed the carriage. They have the best wishes of the entire community and the GRAPHIC wishes them a long prosperous and happy voyage through life. That they may encounter but few storms, that their bark may be ever steered clear of all shoals and rocks and proudly sail over the billows of life's tempestuous sea, is our sincere wish.

The following is a list of the wedding presents. Mr. and Mrs. John Larkin, one choice bedroom set, two stoves, one doz. chairs, one center table, one cupboard well filled with dishes. Mr. and Mrs. Hans. Christenson, one 8 day clock, one set of silver ware, one silver pickle castor, one pair of slippers. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Christenson, one toilet rack. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fendall, one plush album. Mr. and Mrs. C. Christenson, one pair Persian marble images. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Christenson, one crystal fruit dish. Mr. John Larkin, one set of silver table spoons. Mr George Larkin, two cane rockers. Miss Nellie Larkin, one Marseilles counterpane, one pair white bear blankets. Jennie Larkin, one doz. napkins. Miss Mabel Dear, one alarm clock. L. and G. W. Wyman, one extra fine writing desk. Mr. and Mrs. Enos C. Hanson, one fine opal water set. Miss Bertha Hanson, one decorated candle stick. Mr. Earl Hanson one paper knife. Grace and Carrie Christenson, one bottle of perfumery. N. C. Christenson, to bride, one plush toilet dressing case. Miss Josie Larkin, to groom, one volume Whittier's poems.

daily attracted by the GENUINE bargains we are making in our varied assortment of Staple Groceries, Dry Goods Boots and shoes, Hats, Queensware and Fancy Notions.

The BITTER OPPOSITION shown us by our COMPETITORS on the one hand and our WELL PLEASED PATRONS on the other, is sufficient evidence that our efforts to
