Local Events.

—See the nice green-house plants for sale by Mrs. Hoskins.

—It is quite fashionable now to have the measles in your family.

—Tingle, tingle go the wedding bells, that is they will pretty soon now.

—Monroe Ramsey was engaged in painting Mr. Larkins house last week.

—Don't fail to attend the closing exercises at the Academy during next week.

—The GRAPHIC force thank Miss Nervie Wright, for a bouquet of flowers this week.

—New catalogues for the Academy, are being prepared and will be out in a few days.

—Mr. Hurley, of Portland, was in town last week looking after his landed interests here.

—Mr. E. X. Harding, of McMinnville was in town Thursday and gave us a pleasant call.

—Mrs. Sadie Hoskins is ready to supply all who want nice green-house plants, with the best that is grown.

—Sarah M. Davis, aged 53 years, from the vicinity of Sheridan was committed to the insane asylum last week.

—W. M. Townsend, who was nominated last week by the Democratic convention for Secretary of State, was formerly a resident of this county.

—Wm. Mason from Washington Co Kansas was in town this week. He is looking for a location for several parties who are wanting land.

—I. W. Baird formerly proprietor of the Quimby House in Portland, passed through town Saturday and Sunday driving his fine black matched team.

—Lillie Smith has been out of school this week on account of an unexpected attack of the measles. Having had them once before she expected to escape.

—Several very sleek high headed horses may be seen in town now almost any time. Their owners will be very glad to give a complete, history of each horses' ancestors.

—Willamette lodge, No. 96 I. O. O. F. of this place, has elected J. L. Hoskins and C. Larson, representatives to the Grand lodge which meets in Portland May 21st.

—Mr. Larkin west of town is improving his place in the way of new picket fencing along the road. The appearance of his residence is also very much improved by a new coat of paint.

—According to the Sheridan Courier, the citizens of that town are expecting a boom. Three new real estate firms are organizing for the purpose of accommodating those who want to invest money in that town.

—The county court has advertised for bids for a first class bridge to be built across the Yamhill river at Dayton. The north approach is to be 693 feet long, the south approach 307 feet and the main span 200 feet.

—Allen Yocum, of Sheridan, sued the P. & W. V. railroad for damages on account of injuries sustained in a wreck on that road two years ago last March. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1,775.

—John Caubell, Frank Elliott, Ot. Wright and Clint Smith, are making arrangements to go with Surveyor Britt, on his summer surveying trip. The boys will no doubt have a jolly time and return, robust in health.

—The mercury has been as high as 83 during the week, and yet we can look twenty five miles to the west of us and see snow piled up in quantities sufficient to cool the atmosphere of the whole valley, if properly distributed.

—The measles going abroad here, although not at all of a serious nature are assuming a different form from the cases Dr. Mathoun had in the school a few years ago. Some of the old students can no doubt realize a very perceptible difference.

—Prof. Morrison has been very busy lately making preparations for closing exercises at the Academy next week. All friends of the Academy are invited to come out to-morrow at 3 30 p. m. to hear his educational address. It will be worth hearing.

—I. K. Vantress has a prospect of moving into Marion county beyond Silverton in the foot hills of the Cascade mountains to take charge of a stock ranch on the shares. We will be sorry to loose Mr. Vantress and family, but hope they will do well if they go —Our fellow townsman, J. T. Smith, returned from his trip to Southern California the first of the week. His stay in that country was short, but he saw many friends and acquaintances of former days. He returns with a stronger faith in our country than ever before.

--County school Superintendent L. H. Baker was visiting schools in this part of the county last week. He spent a part of two days in our school. We are sorry that the measles had lessened the numbers so much as we would be glad to have the Supt. see the school when full.

—On the 21st of last month, 23 sacks of mail were received at Tillamook. This was mail that had accumulated at North Yamhill on account of the snow in the mountains. It was finally shipped to Portland where it was loaded on a schooner and sent around by water.

—LaFayette had a horse show last week. John Hearcock took his young Clydesdale Laddie Jr. up and showed him in the draft ring. John wore a broad smile, on his arrival home as he exhibited a yard of blue ribbon and a five dollar bridle, which he carried off as first premium, Newberg knocks them all out.

—A lady named Mrs. Pike with her son from Grand Forks, North Dakota, were in town this week. They are out seeing the country and looking for a location. This lady's husband was so engaged at home that he could not leave and sent his wife. This is an unusual occurrence and yet some men would profit by the example.

—We understand that our old friend Dr. W. V. Coffin, of Lawrence Kansas, who was at one time Supt. of the Salem Indian school is thinking seriously of going to Alaska to engage in Indian work in that country. Dr. Coffin has a warm and sympathetic feeling toward the Indian race and will do good work in this way whenever he goes.

—List of unclaimed letters lying in the Newberg, Or., post office at the end of month of April 1890. R. Brintand, J. B. Hass, Thomas Haward, Lizzie Jones, Annie McHams, C. W. Morehead, Christ Otter, Hattie Oliver, Florence Orndaff, M. Oliver, Eva Smith, Charley Richard and Henry Thompson.

CHAS. F. MOORE, P. M.

—Last Saterday a resident of the Nehalem country was in town. A few days before, he came over the mountains by way of the Tillamook road, and found snow for six miles on the route. In some places it was six feet deep. There was plenty of snow around Sampson and Perkins saw-mill. The gentleman said the Nehalem country was filling up very fast with settlers.

—Prof. and Mrs. Hartley are engaged lately on a close study of Alaska in view of a trip to that country, which they have in contemplation during the summer. This will be a very pleasant summer trip for them and they will no doubt return with a largely increased store of information that will be of great benefit to them in their school work. We hope they will prepare for a course of lectures for the benefit of those of us who remain at home.

—J. T. Smith, who has just returned from southern California says that on vacant lots in the town of Whitteir—lots that were sold to "tender feet," in time of the boom—the mustard is about eight feet high. J. C. Hiatt told Mr. Smith that a few days before he was there, a lady resident of the town, who was afraid of getting lost in the wilds of the mustard growth, offered to give a free dinner to every one who would turn out and mow mustard. On the day appointed, forty hungry men were on hand and made a raid on the unsightly growth. The lady no doubt raised a flag to indicate the location of her residence, and yet from what Smith says, the keen scent of the forty men had located the welcome spot where the one good square meal was to be had long before noon with out doubt.

Chicago and St. Paul Items.

(April 25-30.)

St. Paul is going to have a drug store soon, with Joseph Orth proprietor.

Miss Jennie Geelan, daughter of Patrick Geelan, age 16 has joined the Sisters of Charity.

Fred L. McCrea had quite an accident Thursday, while logging. He was rolling logs over a perpendicular bank, some fifteen or sixteen feet high and one log went over before the team could be freed from it and part of the oxen went over. All would have went over, but Fred got a move on him and cut ox bows right and left. It seemed curious enough, them that went over were not hurt much, only the hair rubbed off by the chain.

If the people of Newberg want for amusement, just come down to the river, listen to the ox driver and they will conclude that ox drivers have a seperate kingdom in heaven.

St. Paul had her grand ball last Friday evening and it was a grand affair. There was ten of the fair dancers, and about twenty drinking men, which makes it worthy of comment.

Cherry trees are in full bloom now, and ere long we will have red ripe cherries. And I would like to see some of the Newberg girls come over about that time. I would advise them to have an escort that is familiar with the country, or they might loose their way as was the case last year.

J. C. McCrea will finish his spring seeding this week.

EDWIN MORRISON, Principal.

Union Party Meeting.

There was a meeting of the Union party club in Hobsons gallery last night, and completed an organization. Elected officers, and adopted constitution and by-laws. There were speeches made by S. Haworth, J. Votaw, J. H. Bowerman and N. L. Wiley on the subject of political reform. By which it was clearly shown that history repeats itself and that the surroundings are very similar to those at the rise of the Abolition party. The speakers manifested a zeal for the reform movement that is according to knowledge, and there will be a call in the near future for a mass meeting in the county when there will be a full county ticket nominated.

CHAS. MITCHELL,
Secretary for the evening.

School Report.

Report of district No. 9 of Yamhill Co. Oregon, for the month ending April 25th 1890. No. of days taught, 20. Total No. of pupils enrolled, 34. Total No. of days attendance, 566. Average daily attendance, 28. No. of visiters, 23. The following were neither tardy or absent. Samuel Atkinson, Harriet Atkinson, Minnie Sax, James Bryan, Ray Carter, Clara Christenson, Andrew Christenson, Carrie Clemenson, Luise Fiske, Willie Clemenson, Anna Rasmussen, Bertha Rogers, Alverdia Allumbough, Silmer Nelson and Walter Hess.

MARY K. CLEMENSON,
Teacher.

Crop-Weather Bulletin NO. 7, for week ending Saturday April 26th, 1890.

Weather.

The temperature has been slightly above the normal for the week. There was no rainfall. The days were bright, with warm sunshine, which was about the average. The nights were cool, light frosts, which did no apparent damage, occured on the 23d. This has been the first week of good, growing spring weather, this season, and the result is that vegetation has made marked progress.

Cereals.

Winter wheat is invariably reported to be in excellent condition. Spring seeding in Umatilla county, and in sections of the valley counties is done, but most of it is about being finished up. Early spring grain is up. Showers are desired in the Walla Walla valley to give the late spring sown grain a start. The effect of too much rain on wheat, on the low lands is shown to have been slightly injurious in the Willamette valley. Larger spring acreages than usual is and has been sown.

Fruit.

All varities of fruit trees in all parts of the state, save in the more mountainious sections of eastern Oregon, are in full bloom, and in many sections, the peach and cherry blossoms are falling. The frost on the 23d did not injure the fruit. Wild strawberries are in bloom. Grape vines are budding out rapidly. In Wasco Sherman, Morrow, Gilliam, back from the river, and counties to the south, the apple and cherry trees are budding. The present outlook is that peaches will be a short crop, but the other fruit will be plentiful.

Agricultural Operations &c.

Spring seeding is being finished. The weather is favorable for the lambing season. Sheepshearing will begin within the next 10 days. The grass is growing very rapidly affording good grazing. Vegetables are becoming very plentiful, and gardening is g nerally being very rapidly pushed. The weather for the week has been all that could be desired and all growing vegetation shows the favorable changes. The season continues about two weeks later than usual.

B. S. PAYNE,
Observer, U. S. Signal Service
Act. Director.

It is reported that a project is being discussed which aims to purchase the narrow gauge road, change its system to broad gauge, traverse down to Yaquina bay along the coast and connect with the Donohue lines to California. Yaquina bay seems to be enjoying a small boom at present from the amount of real estate transactions. Being Oregon's chief watering place, it will receive quite a boom this summer.—Oregonian.
