June 27th and 28th are to be the Red Letter Days of the W. C. T. U. at the Lewis and Clark Fair. A program of varied interest has been planned and prominent workers from five or six states will be present, also platform speakers of national fame will be on the program, among them Rev. Anna Shaw. A diamond medal contest will be held on the evening of the 27th. All white ribboners are urged to be present.

The Yamhill county board of exhibits met at the fair grounds last Friday and took bearings regarding the display at the county booth. A committee composed of Judge Rhodes, D. Snyder and J. C. Cooper was appointed to look after the needs of the booth and supply any deficiencies that may exist. Some criticisms have been made regarding the exhibit and a general desire has been expressed to have it improved. If mistakes have been made it is unwise now to spend valuable time in recounting them. Let all loyal Yamhillers take a hand in every helpful way and the exhibit can yet be made first class.
