If we Shouldn't Have a Fair, $749.04 Would Go to Roads—Five Per Cent of Public Land Sale Proceeds for Highway Work.

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)

SALEM, March 31.—Uunder the millage tax law for county fairs that was passed by the Legislature, there will be $44,532.31 available this year for the various counties. This sum will be raised by a 1-20 mill tax on assessable property in the state. The tax will raise $15,897.55 in Multnomah county but as the law limits that county to $10,000 and provides that the amount derived from the tax in excess of this sum be divided among the counties, each county will receive $173.46 in addition to its own tax.

The money for the county fairs will be available in July. If any county doesn't hold a fair the money may be used in building and repairing roads. According to a statement issued by Secretary of State Olcott the various counties will receive the following amounts:

IN CHARGE OF TWO HOTELS

Mrs. Cursey Now Running the Mountain View and the Altamont.

Mrs. W. D. Cursey, who has had charge of the Pilot Butte Inn dining room, has rented the Guerin house or Mountain View and the Altamont Hotel and will conduct these two hotels. The change was made Monday, and the first meal was served under the new arrangement at the Altamont last night.

The court at the Mountain View will be made into a dining room for use of the guests of both hotels. Until the improvements are completed meals will be served at the Altamont, but later it will be used to accommodate commercial and transient travel, while the Mountain View will be for the regular roomers, primarily.

A bus will meet the train morning and evening.

The Altamont, which has been owned jointly by J. J. Klein and Dr. E. R. Jackson, is now the sole property of Dr. Jackson, the final transfer having been made last week. Dr. Jackson has been here several weeks looking after his interests.

Mrs. Cursey will cater, as heretofore, to local people, but she expects to serve a large number of tourists. Already reservations have been made by several Seattle parties for the summer. The Mountain View has a splendid view of the mountains and Deschutes river, and there is an excellent lawn running down to the water edge. The house has been closed since last October when Mrs. Sanford Shultz left Bend. The property is owned by W. E. Guerin, Jr., of Columbus, Ohio.

LANDMARK BEING REMOVED.

The site is being cleared for the stone or brick building which L. H. Kermott of Minot, N. D., will erect on Wall street next to Rowe's store. The little building formerly occupied as a shoe shop but now the office of J. J. Ryan, the plumber, has been moved to the rear of the lot. The old frame building on the Mutsig lot adjoining is being torn down also. Nick Smith says this was the first building to be put up on Wall street, Creed Triplett having a furniture store there 11 years ago.
