Pravda raps Chinese' press for slanders

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Communist organ Pravda charged today that Communist China's press was slandering the Soviet Union with more energy and effort than it ever spent on attacking capitalism.

Pravda, in a report datelined Peking, said the Chinese press uses any critical material published in the Soviet press "to condemn isolated shortcomings" in trade or collective farms.

"The Chinese press has never spent as much effort and energy on criticizing the shortcomings of capitalist society as it is now spending on slandering the Soviet Union," Pravda said.
