E B London and wife arrived here from Portland last Monday evening. The mercantile house in this place, of which Mr. London is a partner, is growing in business, and we certainly wish the young married man success. Archie Mason, his associate in business, is as mad as a "march hare" because he can't get married and of course somewhat cranky just at this time, but the band boys think of serenading him instead of Ed, hoping thereby to ameliorate his harrowed feelings, smooth the wrinkles from his brow and change the expression of his face to smiles.

Died.—At her home on Silver creek Mrs. Ras Garrett of Puerperal convulsions on last Monday at 11 o'clock a. m. Mrs. Garrett was taken with convulsions at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, and continued having them about every fifteen minutes until Dr Marsden arrived She was unconcious from the first, and died at half past 11 o'clock Monday morning. We understand her husband was away from home, at Albert Lake, when he received the news of his wife's illness and made tha distance home from the place named in ten hours, a horse back.
