WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9 1899.

JULIAN EYED - - - - Manager.

GOOD PRICES FOR HAY.

The alfalfa hay crop in the eastern and sothern parts of this county as well as Malhuer and adjoining counties, is a failure this year caused from freezing out last winter. The wild hay crop of this valley is far beyond the average this season and our ranchers will realize a good figure for all they have to spare, as stock from those sections where the alfalfa was killed out will be driven here to feed next winter.

There is an abundance of hay for thousands of outside stock will have to be driven some where to feed, as this valley produces the best wild hay in the world and is located near they will be brought here.

So long the grass is good there is no reason why our cattlemen should rush their stock into market. Prices seem to be steady and there seems to be no danger of market dropping and the possibilities for a raise good. There is no shortage of beef reported in the market as yet, but it is likly there will be before fall as not only Oregon stock men are holding their beef but Colorado, Nevada, Idaho, and several other states are postponing their sales. Prices are bound to take an upward turn as soon as a shortage occurs.

By all means let the word honorable" be written in the discharges of the Oregon volunteers, however, well understood it may be that its omission would mean nothing against their records. The country these gallant lads from the North served so bravely can richly afford to do far greater things than this in their behalf.—San Francisco Bulletin.

Protectorate for Hati an annexation from Santo Domingo? Certainly. Heap up the burden. We're getting used to it, and our shoulders are broad.

The soldier boys of the Second Oregon are the happiest fellows this side of the Rocky mountains today. Home tomorow.

Another Ball Meeting.

There was another meeting last Sunday afternoon to make further arrangements for the base ball tournament to be held here next month Permanent organization was effected and the following officers elected: H. E. Thompson president and business manager, W. A Boxan captain, and W. E. Huston secretary.

A letter from L. N. Liggett of Prineville was read in which he stated it would be impossible to send a nine from that place to compete for the purse and that their band had disbanded for the time being.

Manager Thompson telephoned to Canyon the first of the week, giving the manager of that nine an outline of what had been done so far in the matter which was entirely satisfactory. Canyon was called up again last night, but the club had not held a meeting as yet and definite arrangements have been postponed until they have been heard from.

We understand Lakeview and Silver Lake clubs have been notified of the proposed tournament and asked to participate. These have not been heard from as yet.

About $430 has been raised so far by subscription which can easily be swelled to 500.

The tournant is now an assured thing and the program will appear at no distant date.

—THE TIMES-HERALD and Oregonian for $2 in advance.

Miss Ollie Frye wishes us to announce that she has dispensed with her rooms up town and those desiring mending and cloths cleaned can now find her at home.
