Nothing like progression and metropolitan style. The Electric Light & Power Co will next be running street cars. Burns is a humper.

Bookkeeper Holland has returned from a visit to the P. L S Co. ranches in the southern part of this county. He will make a tour of the Malheur county ranches the latter part of the month.

Bids for concessions on the fair grounds will be considered by the committee at a meeting next Saturday, Sept 6. No bids will be considered under the schedule prepared, a copy of which can be seen at this office.

Ben Campbell was down from his Emigrant creek ranch this week and reports that the big timber belt from the headwaters of Emigrant and West of the King & Sayer's sawmill as far west as Buck creek is one mass of flames. It is not known how the fire originated Much valuable timber is being destroyed and unless rain comes soon the whole forest will be laid waste.

J. S. Locke, of Huntington, and Geo. Q Carey, of the firm of McCreary & Carey, horse and mule dealers of Omaha, arrived here yesterday after another big shipment of range horses. Mr. Carey went over to Dayville and Mt. Vernon to look after stock in that section, while Mr Locke goes to Diamond and that section. They expect to ship 1000 head of Harney county horses from Ontario the 13th inst and about 900 head from Hepner about the same date.

Job printing—The Times-Herald

Geo Hill was among our visitors this week.

Tom Jenkins has been spending a few days in our city.

Mrs. C. A. Byrd will take orders for ladv tailor made clothing for fall and winter.

A Venator and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Geer a few days this week.

E J Lampshire and wife have returned from a visit to the latter's old home in Engene.

The many friends of Mrs Geo. Marshall will be glad to learn the lady is much improved in health

Dr. H. S. Brownton was thrown from a horse last Saturday evening and quite painfully bruised up about the shoulders. It was not serious.

J. F. Mahon was in the city one day this week arranging to go out and receive 4000 head of sheep he had bought from J. D. Billingsly, the Malheur county stockman.

C. A Byrd with his usual luck and awkwardness stepped on a nail the other day and has been resting most of the time since. He will soon be able to follow his usual avocation however.

At an adjourned meeting of the city "Dads" Thursday, a contract was made with the Electric Light & Power Co to light Main street with six 100-candle-power lights at a cost of $25 per month

Some one entered Prof Finn's garden last Monday night and stole some turnips. It was evidently Indians as a white man wouldn't steal turnips from a garden that has an abundance of vegetables

Mrs I S Geer has the thanks of this shop for some of the finest string beans we have ever tasted Mrs Geer has an excellent garden which is a practical demonstration of what can be raised in Burns by attention and care.

A free dance was given at Floral Hall last Saturday evening by Fred Fisk to celebrate his marriage. His many friends who attended were high in their praises for his generosity and say he will now have the job of shaving the whole town.

Dave Cary made a flying trip in from the Crane creek diamond fields this week. Dave had several samples of the precious stones with him and says prospects are very flattering. We don't know much about diamonds but Mr. Cary says says that Mr Mumford, the discoverer, has much faith in the prospects and is preparing to prospect extensively for precious stones in that section.

M. Bonnett is in from Crane creek.

The weather has become somewhat cooler.

Thos Collins, an old timer of this section, was here a few days this week looking over the field with the intention of buying cattle provided the prices suited. This is his first visit for 17 years.

E. B. Reed and wife, accompanied by their sons, Homer, Nolie and Clifford and Jay Gould returned from Baker City the first of the week. They all report having had a royal time. The rumor that Homer had followed "Buffalo Bill's" show west and Nolie and Jay had signed with the Inland Baseball league seems to have been a mistake.

From the elegant four-in-hand turnout handled by C. Kaufman of M Seller & Co and E. Jacobson of the J. K. Gill Co., those houses are doing a prosperous business. These two rustling knights of the grip had a wagon filled with trunks and spent an entire week here taking orders for their respective houses. They took their departure yesterday.

We have made Ladies Dress goods and Trimmings a special study for a number of years and believe that we can conscientiously say that we have a better assortment in this line than any other house in Harney county. The greatest care was taken in selecting substantial and up to date patterns. Ladies it will pay you to see us before you purchase your fall dresses. —Lunaberg & Dalton.

MARRIED—At the home of the bride's parents in this city last Wednesday evening, Sept. 3, Dr. J. W. Geary and Miss Phebe Kelley, Rev. A J Irwin performing the ceremony in the presence of quite a number of invited friends. Both the contracting parties are prominent and popular in society here and enjoy the esteme of the whole community. The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome presents. Dr Geary and wife will make their home in Burns, having bought the J. W. Biggs residence. We join in extending congratulations.
