CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.

"Hello! Good boys and girls. I am on my way to Burns. You will see me first at the Baptist and Presbyterian churches on Christmas eve.

"Your dear old Santa."

There will be Christmas exercises at the Baptist and Presbyterian churches on Christmas eve. The exercises will begin at 7 o'clock. The public is most cordially invited to come and share in the Christmas good cheer with us. There will be trees at the two churches or something to take the place of trees. The trees will not be open for promiscuous presents. Each child will share alike in presents from the trees. All the children of Burns and adjacent vicinity are invited.

For Sale—300 tons of hay and 600 acres of good pasture. Inquire at this office.

Mr. Meade and his company of local talent will produce the comedy drama "Friends" at Lochers Hall next month The play is strictly up to date, one of the greatest successes upon the boards that has been produced for the past 5 years and was in Portland and all the coast cities last winter. It is positevly one of the best comedies that has ever been presented to a Burns audience and a comedy treat is in store on that occasion. Admission price 25 and 50 cent. Space reserved for all who wish to furnish private chairs. Comfortable seats for all.

Dell Dibble, W. B. Johnson and C. J. Johnson, who left Silver creek about three months ago with 700 head of cattle for Klamath Falls succeeded in disposing of most of them at a good figure. W. B. and Dell have returned leaving C. J. to dispose of what stock they had left on pasture. We are informed Dell traded half his band of cattle for an automobile with the intention of putting on a fast passenger line between here and Silver creek. Before reaching home however, he broke down and traded the machine for a pack mule on which to bring in his extra baggage. It is possible this is a mistake but our informant certainly is a truthful man.

CLOSING OUT AT REDUCED PRICES.

All the W. N. Jorgensen stock of jewelry, clocks, stationery, notions, etc. at his old stand must be closed out at a sacrifice and the goods are being sold at greatly reduced prices. Many valuable and appropriate Christmas presents may be found in this stock. Call early.
