Still, Senator Burton has not resigned. It takes him as long to see the point of a hint as it does for his colleague, Reed Smoot.—Tellegram.

A few farmers in the Willamette Valley are tired of the rain. In Eastern Oregon the f[illegible]mers are figuring on an irr[illegible] scheme. Oregon is [illegible] ar-[illegible]igation [illegible] big state.

The people [illegible] from Bleeding, shou[illegible] begining to think that h[illegible]e come to a place which [illegible]d be called Leaking Oregon, [illegible]t never mind, Easterners, the Heavenly Plumbers will soon get to work.—Hillsboro Independent.

Some men are punished for being honest. Recently a tramp found $10,000, lost from a train by the Wells Fargo & Co's. Express, and returned the money to the company. Weary Willie was rewarded for his honesty with a good job.—Ex.

A girl in Columbus, O., eloped with a man she thought she loved and even went hungry for his sake. Then came the arrest of the couple in a boxcar. Both elopers went to jail. The girl cried and the man laughed. The girl will never cease to suffer. This is just a little sermon from a news item. The moral is obvious. —Ex.

She had occasion to dress her little nephew, who has arrived at the degnified age of knickerbockers. The sweet young thing has no brothers and of course could not be expected to know how to dress a boy properly; and after taking the little fellow for a walk all over town, and him feeling unconfortable enough to cry, someone discovered she had put on his knickerbockers wrong side in front. The discovery was the signal for another long walk by the young lady, this time alone.—Ex.

Notwithstanding the fact that airy, fairy springtime, with its sented and gently wafted zephyrs, when a young man's fancy, etc., is coyly holding aloof, it is presistently sumered that the sweet June bride will be numerous in this vicinity. Young Mr. Cupid is too sly a rascal to suspend operations until the breaking up of Oregon Winter, and has evidently been making a little hay despite the lack of the tender, softening influence of the sun's rays. —Newberg Graphic.

A Great Newspaper.

The Sunday edition of the St. Louis Republic is a marvel of modern newspaper enterprise. The orginization of its news services is world-wide, complete in every department; in fact, superior to that of any other newspaper. The magazine section is illustrated in daintily tinted colors and splendid half-tone pictures. This section contains more high-class literary matter than any of the monthly magazines. The fashions illustrated in natural colors are especially valuable to the ladies.

The colored comic section is a genuine laugh-maker. The funny cartoons are by the best artists. The humorous stories are high class, by authors of national reputation.

Sheet music, a high-class, popular song, is furnished free every Sunday in the Republic.

The price of the Sunday Republic by mail one year is $2.00. For sale by all news dealers.
