JULIAN BYRD — — — — Manager

The Times-Herald begins its twenty-fourth year with this issue. The present manager entered his apprentiship in this office twenty-one years ago next month and has been identified with the paper continuosly ever since, being away from the office only a short interval during the entire time. He might have followed some more remunerative line of business, but is satisfied with his lot and expects to continue at the helm for an indefinite time. The Times-Herald has just closed its most successful year in a financial way and hopes to merit the confidence and business of the people of Harney county in the future as in the past. Its religion will continue the same—that of boosting for Harney county.

The Times-Herald hopes the business men of Burns will all attend the get together meeting of the commercial club scheduled for next Saturday evening. It is a mistake to neglect such gatherings and depend upon a few public spirits to do the boosting for Burns and Harney county. With the right spirit shown, the personal and active participation of actual business men and heavy taxpayers this organization will accomplish results that we are seeking. Otherwise it will not be of as much force and influence in a general way. We should have our home meetings at short intervals and not wait until we have prominent guests to bring us together.

PORTLAND CLUB TO FEAST.

Local nimrods have been out and secured a fine lot of game which will be shipped at once to the Portland Commercial Club for a banquet at Thanksgiving time. The suggestion was made by W. G. Howell, the well known capitalist who has large land interests here and is a Harney county booster worth while. Mr. Howell will look after the affair at that end of the line and will see that the banquet is a success and that Harney county game will be given due credit.

The hunting parties are securing some fine ducks, geese and swan for the purpose and the game goes as a present from the Burns Commercial club to the Portland Commercial club. The Kellogg Stage Co. has very generously granted free transportation for the game as far as Prairie City and it will be expressed from there to Portland.

If the old adage is true that a "mans heart is reached through his stomach" Harney county and the Burns Commercial club will make a hit.

Uncle Sam Wants Irrigation Facts.

The thirteenth decinnial census of the United States will include a complete resume of irrigation progress in every state.

Special Agent H. W. Grunsky has been in Burns the past week gathering data pertaining to the larger projects affecting Harney Valley.

Mr. Grunsky urges upon every man in Harney County who has a ditch or a levee or floods any portion of his land to fill the blanks sent to him for the purpose and forward as promptly as possible.

"It should be a matter of county pride," says Mr. Grunsky, "that each one should do his part to make the proper showing in the census returns. The fact is, up to the present time, only twenty-five per cent. have responded from this county."

If you have lost your blank, or have not been notified and are an irrigator, take a blank sheet of paper, answer the following points and mail to A. P. Stover, Chief of Irrigation Investigations, Medford, Oregon.

1. Name and location of land.
2. Source of water supply.
3. Number of acres covered.
4. Kind of crop raised.
5. Date of beginning of irrigation on this land.
6. Approximate cost of works.
7. Approximate cost to maintain ditches each year.

Don't let the fact that you can't give exact replies to all the questions deter you from giving any information.

It is believed a full report from Harney County will indirectly help to advertise the district, and the matter should not be neglected.

ONE MEASURE FAR REACHING.

Among the initiative measures approved at the recent election was one that is very far reaching in its scope and more than likely would have been turned down had all the voters understood it. The proposed change is the judiciary amendment providing among other things for a three-fourths verdict by a jury in civil cases. The Oregonian has the following as to the effect of the passage of the measure:

The judiciary amendment replaces an entire article of the present constitution. The new article permits the abolishment of the county court, removes the implied limitation of seven of the number of justices of the supreme court, removes the salary limit fixed for members of the supreme bench now avoided by allowing extra compensation to the judges for holding court in Eastern Oregon, eliminates the sections creating the offices of clerk, sheriff and prosecuting attorney, eliminates the provision authorizing the governor to remove a supreme judge or prosecuting attorney upon legislative joint resolution, premits verdict by three-fourths of the jury in civil cases and in reforming procedure on appeals and changing jurisdictional features of the present laws apparently seeks to eliminate technical obstructions in litigation.

The new amendment continues the existing courts, jurisdiction and judicial system, except so far as expressly changed by the amendment, until otherwise provided by law. It is the apparent intent that the county court, clerk, sheriff and prosecuting attorney shall exist until a change is made by law. The amendment, in this respect, probably paves the way for submission of a commission form of county government to the voters by initiative or to the legislative assembly, by the framers of the amendment.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.

Furnished rooms, Plain Sewing MRS. DORA LESTER, Burns, Or.

Just arrived fine lot of blankets, ladies', gents' and children's coat sweaters—Fred Haines.

The officers of the Burns Commercial Club are arranging for a rousing get-togteher meeting to be held next Saturday evening, Nov. 26. The place of holding this meeting has not been selected but will be announced later. It is hoped the business men of Burns will attend as it is important to secure a greater interest in the work of the club.

Harry Butler and wife are back from Ontario and will remain here permanently. Mr. Butler has leased the King hall where Mr. Pardee has been conducting a moving picture theatre, and will put in a private electric plant and equip a first-class moving picture theatre and later put in roller skates. This no doubt will prove popular with our young people.

RIPARIAN RIGHTS AT ISSUE.

Wednesday's Oregonian says:—Peter Clemens, P. G. Smith, James Pirie and J. C. Creasman, Harney County ranchmen, were made defendants yesterday in the United States Court in a controversy over the diversion of the waters of Silvies River for irrigation purposes. The Pacific Livestock Company has asked for a permanent injunction, asserting that so much of the flow of the stream is diverted by the crop raisers that the cattlemen are unable to secure a sufficient supply of water for the use of their stock and for domestic purposes.

The Pacific Livestock Company asserts a riparian right on account of being the owner of a large acerage through which Silvies River flows and because the cattle have had the use of the water for many years prior to the date when the farmers began irrigating their quarter sections for the raising of crops.

The present suit represents the second controversy which has been litigated between the parties. The first suit was filed in 1901 and was settled out of court through an agreement which gave the farmers the right to repair one bank of the stream, put in headgates and build ditches, they having the privilege of using all water not required by the animals belonging to the livestock company.

It is asserted that the embankment has gone to ruin, that the headgate is in bad repair and that a large portion of the flow of the Silvies escapes into the ditches at all times. It is asked that the right of the livestock company to all the water of the stream be approved by the court.

MARRIED—Wednesday evening in the parlors of the French Hotel, Mr. Wm. P. Allen and Miss Edith Hunter, Rev. C. W. Holloman of the Baptist church, officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few frieuds. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler acted as best man and bridesmaid. An elegant wedding supper was provided by mine hosts, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Culp, that was complete in all its appointments, including decoration. The bride is a lovely young lady, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hunter, who now reside on the former C. A. Bonnett ranch on Crane Creek but who for many years lived between Agency and Ben Dier where the bride spent most of her life. Mr. Allen is one of the extensive sheep men of Malheur county, having large interests at Juntura, where he has a fine home for his bride. These young people start in life with bright prospects and the best wishes of a wide circle of friends throughout Eastern Oregon. They leave for their new home today.
