Dave Miller has retured to his farm home after several weeks sojourn in this city under the care of a physician. Dave undertook to drive a colt out at the farm some three weeks ago and in the mixup was thrown out of the wagon and had some ribs cracked with the result he had to remain quiet for a longer period than he had rested for some time.

Married—Last Saturday evening at the home of Grant Kesterson on Poison Creek, Miss Cary Smith and Bud P. Kidwell. The bride is a daughter Sylvester Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Benson and was in connection with the ceremony that made Miss Fanny Kesterson and Elba Turner man and wife. In his experience of over forty years this is the first double wedding that Dr. Benson ever performed. The Turner-Kesterson nuptials were mentioned in this paper last issue but at that time it was not known there would be a double wedding. The Times-Herald wishes these young people a life of happiness and plenty.
