NEWSPAPER LAWS.

Any postmaster is required to give notice by requesting the paper does not answer the letter, or if any one does not take his paper from the office, and the reason for his not being so, makes the postmaster liable to the publisher for payment. Any person who orders his paper discontinued must pay all arrearages, or the Publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no discontinuance till payment is made.

Any person who takes a paper from the office, whether addressed to his name or another's, is responsible as a subscriber, or not, is a question of fact.

If subscribers order his paper stopped before the time is out, the Publisher continues to send it, they are bound to pay for it if they take it from the postoffice. This proceeds on the ground that a man must pay for what he takes.

The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, without paying the bill, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.

FREE AT LAST!

BY NELLIE R. GRACE.

Jehovah is our only god,
The god we've long adored.
By every name our ignorant hearts
Their fullness have out-poured.
To Him for years we bent the knee
In gratitude and love;
In abject, cringing attitude
Our earnestness to prove.
And now we learn He hath not wished,
Nor hath He ever asked
For other homage to His name
Than holy lives be passed.
No more we'll lie with prostrate face,
And beat our breasts with woe;
And madly mourning, plead, and pray,
As for mercy from a foe.
Arise, my soul, oh godly gift,
And sing aloud in joy;
Rejoice that thou art freed at last!
Rejoice without alloy!

HARNEY VALLEY

Location, Resources, Climate, Soil, and Needed Developments.

As Reported by a Late Visitor Here in the Roseburg Review.

Harney Valley is a beautiful valley in Eastern Oregon in Harney county, between 118 and 120 degrees West Longitude from Greenwich and between 43 and 44 degrees North Latitude, about 3,500 feet above the level of the sea, with an area of about 2500 square miles, containing 1,600,000 acres of land.

This valley is nestled in a broken chain of moutains on the north, east, south and west with the highest peaks of the Blue mountains on the north and the Steen mountains on the south, towering up into the realms of perpetual snow. This valley has of water supplied by the Silvies and Blitzen rivers and their tributaries, and other smaller streams, all of which have their outlets in the Malheur and Harney lakes. The Malheur and Harney lakes have no outlets. These two lakes are connected by an artificial channel and are on a level with each other, to the contrary notwithstanding, as you will observe by the maps giving the geography of this region. These two lakes cover an area of about 150 square miles and are of the valley. Their shores are low, but they have never been known to overflow. The low shores of these lakes accounts for the shallowness of the wells in this valley, which are from eight to twenty feet deep. Irrigation is to raise crops and gardens. The soil here contains all the properties necessary to make a successful grain growing country. Small fruit and shrubbery, and berries of nearly all kinds can be successfully raised here.

NEAR THE CENTER

NOT NECESSARY

VACANT LAND

as level as your floor in bodies of thousands of acres, is here to be taken and is just as good as any that is occupied. Home seekers in Oregon cannot do better elsewhere.

This Eden will not long remain in an unsettled state, but in a few short years this land will be all taken, the golden opportunities now offered will be improved.

The climate is salubrious and will compare favorably with any other part of the "Inland Empire." Burns and Harney are the principal towns and in fact are the only towns in the Harney valley. These towns are about fifteen miles apart in the northern portion of the valley. Both towns have an adjacent, adapted to both farming and stock-raising. The town of Burns has two creditable newspapers viz: EAST OREGON HERALD and Harney Items, the former by his honor D. L. Grace, and the latter by J. N. Vaughn, Esq. The principal stock men of this valley are Messrs. Pete French, J. Devine and the L. F. Co. These parties are all said to be millionaires and their wealth is variously estimated from one to fifty millions.

The L. F. Company have lately consolidated their stock and land interests here with Mr. Jno. Devine, and are partners as "Lux, Miller, Mason & Devine" and are known on this coast as the Pacific Live Stock Association, which is perhaps the strongest on this coast if not the strongest in the world. Their dominions extend from Grant county, Or., to the southern confines of California. They can travel hundreds of miles from here in a southerly direction and camp every night on their free-holds. Peter French Esq. is administrator to the Dr. Glenn estate of California, Mr. French's wife being heiress of that estate.

Two established surveys

FOR RAILROADS

have been made through Harney valley by the Oregon Pacific R. R. Co. and the N. P. R. R. Co.

With the advent of railroad facilities this year to Harney valley and with the advent of the electric telegraph to our midst, we will ask for no more, for these are the requisites for modern civilization and the "evolution theory" of development will naturally follow. I have received letters of inquiry regarding this region and having lately travelled over a good portion of it, I send you the above as the best means of imparting the information desired through the columns of your valuable paper. More Anon,

H. B. H.

New York Ledger: "You are poor, are you not, young man?"

"Yes sir."

"And if you marry my daughter you will take her from a home of luxury and splendor to an humble sphere of life where she may be very unhappy?"

"I have thought of that, sir," responded the young man, with emotion; "and it occurred to me that if Clara should be unhappy we'd live with you until I should be able to carve out fame and fortune worthy of the beautiful girl whom I adore."

"So you have got a wife," said Jones to a newly married man.

"Don't know—don't know," replied the man, with evident hesitation; "sometimes I think I've got her, and sometimes I think she's got me. You see, I've been married only a few months, and I can't tell just yet how the combination is going to turn out.

A man who was seen coming out of a newspaper office with an exceedingly damaged countenance explained to a policeman that he entered simply to inquire if the editor was in. "And he was in," the victim mournfully added.

Minister (dining with the family)—So your papa lets you have two pieces of pie some times, Bobby? I'm afraid he is very indulgent."

Bobby—Yes, sir. Ma says he indulges altogether too much; but I don't think so."

An American traveller writes that he found the Rhine "much like a vast stream of lager beer." This will explain why the Germans have a "Watch on the Rhine."

IN Mohawk valley, Nev., Chas. Johnson's 3-year old son was bitten three times in the face by a rattlesnake. Whisky was given immediately; the entrails of several young chickens applied to the wounds, while warm with animal heat, and swelling was abatiog at latest accounts.
