HARNEY COUNTY ITEMS.

—See the program for the Races. Every effort is being made to get up a most attractive entertainment.

—The Harney Land office will be open for transaction of public business Sept. 2, 1889 at 10 a m. See adv. in another column.

—Geo. W. Hayes spent the day in Burns Wednesday.

—Fresh beef 10 cents a pound at W. C. Byrd's meat shop.

—W. T. Hill and John Hammond of Paisley, are preparing to locate with their families in Harney valley.

—Mr. and Miss Cawlfield, Mr. Wimberly and the Misses Ragon dined at the Burns, Saturday.

—Geo. Haygood of The Dalles is coming to this county this summer.

—E. A. King requests us to state that his saw-mill is now in readiness to accommodate the public with lumber of every description on demand; and will not be undersold by any lumber firm. Orders solicited. 50-tf

—John B. Embree was in Burns Wednesday. J. B. says if a man were to respond to every call in favor of the many enterprises on the tapis in our new county, he would shortly have no need for a purse.

—Fine roast at the Byrd meat shop.

—There was Sunday school in Burns last Sabbath.

—There were not enough extra HERALDS issued last week to fill the demand.

—The-Burns-Summer-Resort is where the best liquors are kept on hand all the time. Tex. has put in a full, fine stock of Whiskies, Brandies, Wines, Beer, Cigars, etc. Fancy drinks a specialty. The "Song of the Sample Saloon" (have you heard it?) begins:

"I drink me good whisky, I drink me good beer,
But the best of all drinkin', I'm drinking righ here!"

—If you lose stock advertise in THE HERALD and find it.

—Jno. E. Roberts was in town Saturday till Monday soliciting for the Harney Press, and we learn the people of Burns subscribed liberally for the new county newspaper.

—Saturday the three Hembree sisters Mrs. J. C. Wooley, Mrs. Burnison and Miss Hembree called on THE HERALD.

—J. S. Bowen and Geo. McGowan, near and in Burns respectively, have the best gardens in the country, outside the market gardens.

—Beautiful weather has visited this section of the county, i. e. for those who like dry, warm, sunshiny weather. A shower cooled the air one time this month.

—Read over the Burns' Races and prepare to take in a very large share of the pleasure when the time rolls around.

—From news received here by Abe Hostetter, we learn that Clay Rambeau shot Abe's brother George Hostetter on the 12th or 13th inst. in Warner valley.

—Ben Brown left Saturday morning for Chicago and will be absent several weeks.

—Miss Roberts from Enterprise was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Grace, last Saturday.

—Dr. and Mrs. Embree were in town to call on the pastor, and to shop.

—Prof. Baker passed through town on the way to visit the Silver creek school district, last Saturday.

—Ed. Wilson started Monday to Del Norte, Cal., in company with Chas. Tryon.

—J. H. Hunt, formerly of Coos co., Or., bought Charles Newbill's ranch on Lower Island for $650.00 spot cash.

—B. F. Lloyd informs us Dr. Wallace dug a well on his place at Saddle Butte, and found the purest quality of water at a depth of 20 feet.

—J. D. Shaw and W. R. Gradon took a spin to Harney Wednesday.

—W. W. Johnson is somewhat under the weather, from a chill.

—J. Durkheimer & Co. are sending teams to Huntington to receive their large invoice of new goods.

—The Artesian-well meeting of last Saturday, developed nothing new worthy of extended notice.

—P. M. Curry of Lakeview was in town last Saturday.

—When the Vale-Burns stage passed the Racine ranch after leaving Harney last Wednesday, the reins becoming untied one of them fell to the ground; the horses not heeding repeated whoas, the driver leaped to the ground to stop them when they changed their trot to a run; Wilson threw himself in front of them but was thrown to the ground and the vehicle ran over his thigh. After three attempts to catch them he succeeded. No other damage was done than a few bruises on the driver from the heels of one horse, the wheels of the stage and his fall; the horses are fine spirited animals.

—Porter house steaks at 10 cent a pound at Byrd's meat shop.

The Fourth in Catlow Valley.

The following account of a joyous occasion we have reason to believe is written by our occasional correspondent at Fort McDermit, and, therefore publish it, notwithstanding the omission of the writer's name:

EDS. HERALD: We desire you to publish a Fourth of July reception given at the residence of Horace Layton, "Mountain Home," ranch, situated in Wild Horse valley, in Harney co., Or. This home is at the extreme head of the valley, and falls heir to all water privileges of Wild Horse creek, consequently the hay and vegetables can rarely be surpassed in any county, and the manner of arrangements at this home is good evidence that its owner is long experienced in the business.

This party was free to all, and was quite an expensive affair. On the morning of July 4, 1889, among the guests present were:

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Shirk,
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Shirk,
Wallace and Miss Dora Crow,
J. L. and Miss Odie S. Shirk,
Ames Cole and Miss Mollie Turner,
Benjamin Street and Miss Mamie Crow,
Thos. Acty, Geo. Lambkin, John Sweitzer, Wm. L. Crum, all of Catlow valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Crow,
Mr and Mrs. A. J. Shirk,
Mr. and Mrs. Burt Monroe,
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scoulers,
John and Miss Flora Householder,
Robt. and Melvin Doan, Lucy Chamberlain, C. L. Barney, Wesley Hickerson, Henry Turner, Jas. Watson, John Carles, David Crow, J. H. Bustard, Ed. Clark, all of Wild Horse valley.

Edward Catlow, Michael Finn, James Hornbeck, all of Trout creek.

T. C. Ashmore, John Fitzgerald, all of Juniper Lake.

Capt. and Mrs. Smith, of White Horse valley.
Mrs. Packard, Miss Fannie Moore, Mrs. Wm. Baber, Eddie and Miss Sarah Evans, Miss Lula Vance, Miss Clara McConnell, all of Camp McDermit, Quinn River valley.

At 3 p m. dinner was announced. The table was loaded with every thing that could be wished for, there were 15 different kinds of cake, besides roast beef, pork, chickens, and turkey. This sumptuous and elegant repast was prepared by the fair hands of Misses Mamie and Dora Crow, both amiable and accomplished young ladies.

The musicians were Robt. Doan, violinist, and Eddie Evans, banjoist, who were assisted occasionally by Miss Sarah Evans, Miss Lula Vance, and Mrs. Mabel Shirk, all splendid banjo soloists. At 8 p m, the musicians took their places and introduced the pleasures of the evening with that good old tune "The Arkansaw Traveler," when all joined hands in a walk around, Mr. Layton being one of the number.

Dancing continued till 12, when refreshment was partaken of and was followed by recitations by Edward Catlow, from his own composition; Mr. C. is an accomplished, scholarly young gentleman, and was awarded for recitation in San Francisco, the gold medal.

After the recitations we were honored with vocal and instrumental music by Mr. and Miss Evans, and Wm. H. Shirk.

Next on the program was "Ladies Choose Partners" for the dance. Mrs. Rosa and Mrs. Fannie M. Shirk very hospitably saw that all were enjoying the dancing, and were highly complimented for the same.

About 5 a m, the guests gathered around our old friend Horace to bid him adieu, and wish him happiness beyond measure, many declaring they would not be surprised at a next Fourth of July entertainment to be, also, received by Mrs. Horace Layton. An interchange of good-byes were made and all departed with the hope of meeting again under as bright and happy circumstances. NEWS.

From Saddle Butte.

ED. HERALD: Hay is short on the land called the unsurveyed land.

—All are about done haying.

—Everybody, too, seems to be happy.

—A nice hop took place at the Dickinson hall the evening of the 17th.

—J. C. Garrett and daughters, Misses Stella and Arlu, are over from Silver creek, the former to assist his son Ras put up hay on his ranch.

—Dame Rumor says Ras Garrett is soon to furnish his little cabin with a housekeeping outfit such as a 14-year old girl would like to be mistress of.

—Considerable talk of a new town called Saddle Butte City being laid out where the two railroad surveys come together.

—Several new settlers near Saddle Butte.

—Hope the Burns Artesian-well project will prove a success. It is a right move in the right direction. The people of Harney valley have some enterprise that speaks well for them. HAY PITCHER.

The N. Brown Mill.

We accepted a seat in N. Brown's buggy Thursday morning to visit his works on his mill property near town, and found encouragment and disappointment.

The mill building looms up in the midst of a large grain field and needs but little work to complete it. The race giving an average depth of four feet is finished, much of it having been dug through solid rock.

The work on the dam is being safely, well done, no hasty insecure efforts to attain the object. Mr. B. has had no small obstacles to overcome in this work; in one place for instance he had to dry dam a slough that opens out of the river just above the mill dam.

This promises to be a very valuable piece of property at no distant future. Had not the late severe drouth so seriously effected the wheat crops, the mill would have been in healthy operation before October 1st.

It was most discouraging to any one to see what promised, (to judge from a single half-acre) to yield over 3,000 bushels of wheat burnt to the ground from lack of moisture This is in Mr. Brown's field and Geo Maupin's barley on the other side of the road is as bad. Mr. B. has also in some 8 or 10 acres of alfalfa that looks tolerably well.

—Wm. W. Cardwell, attorney-at-law, will hang out his shingle in the new Land Office building. Call on him and get acquainted with a pleasant gentleman.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cawlfield, Mrs. Wm. Buchanan, and Mrs. Pierce were in Burns, Saturday, the gentleman to attend the Artesian-Well meeting and the ladies shopping.

BURNS, OREGON.
The Burns Beer is a Fine Quality, and may be had by the Glass, Bottled, or in Quantity.

—Carpenters have been busy this week on the Land Office building.

—The association formed last spring to locate a town suitable for permanent county-seat, &c, has laid out a city in the Saddle Butte country on the line of the O. P. permanent survey, and named it Saddle Butte City. Applications for a townsite filling have been sent in, and the town is growing rapidly on paper. It is a progressive move, and sreves to keep the fires of hope aflame in the breast of the many disappointed over the failure of crops and range this season.

—Miss M. A. Douthit of Canyon City, returned home after several days' visit to Burns. Miss Douthit is an experienced school teacher, and we learn, thinks of returning to her former profession by becoming a teacher in the new county, wherein her ranch is located.

—A load of apples and plums were in from John Day, Saturday. The fruit was early, but of most indifferent quality.

—No church services Sunday on account of pastor being confined to his room with rheumatism.
