—Nov. 15: Enterprise school examination.

—Nov. 16: Delivery of Bloomington Nursery Stock by the Agent.

—Nov. 21: Beginning of Vol. 3 of THE HERALD, when it is in order to renew subscriptions.

—Nov. 28: Thanksgiving dinners.

—Nov. 28: The G. A. R. Meeting.

—Old papers 50c for 100.

—Quite a number of strangers in town.

—Ball notices $2.50 each; payment in advance.

—For a neat turnout, go to the Red Front Livery stable.

—School books can be changed in Harney county until Dec. 1st.

—W. H. Flood, of Harney, was in Burns the early part of the week.

—All the records belonging to the Burns Land office, are in from Lakeview.

—Meals at the Parker House, just across the street from the Land office.

—Charges reasonable for livery service at the Red Front Livery and Feed stable.

—W. E. Grace is receiving, daily, new supplies for the only drug store in the county.

THE HERALD and Free Press, the best local and family papers, both for only $2.65 a year.

—The French hotel had the walk in front of the house neatly laid in gravel, last week.

—See Land Publication Notices of Messrs. Bailey, Bolcoff, Wadman, and Dees, in this issue.

—The Red Front Livery and Feed stable is the place to put up your team; horses fed, watered and groomed.

—Wm. Minot, of the Red Front Barber shop, notifies our readers that he is ready at all times to do first class work. Give him a call.

—Ladies coming in from the country to shop, will find the Parker House the very place to get a good, nicely cooked, palatable dinner.

—Paul Locher, the Burns Brewer, is in luck, his second boy born in Burns took place last Thursday afternoon. Mother and child doing well.

—Go to the Livery and Feed Stable of Reed & Cavin at the old Pioneer stand in Burns, when you want to obtain good livery accommodations. 39—

—Ex: Mr. Bodyfelt, owner of the ranch at the Cold Springs, on the other side of the summit on the McKenzie wagon road, has sold his place and moved to Eugene.

—Baker City Democrat: Miss Rose Hembree, of Burns, Harney county, sister to Mrs. D. L. Moomaw, has returned to the city after a summer's absence and will remain for the winter.

—M. R. O'Connor, the Bloomington Nursery Agent, got in last Thursday, and assures the arrival of stock at Burns and Harney by next Saturday, Robt. McKinnon Jr. being expected in with it at that time.

—Mrs. Seth Bower, taking advantage of our low club rates for the best of literature, subscribed for THE HERALD and S. F. Examiner last Monday, for one year.

—A. Allen is putting a very attractive fence around the new Stenger residence. The grounds will be set out in shrubbery next week from the Bloomington Nursery.

—After reading this week's copy of THE HERALD, help to advertise Harney county by mailing it (a one-cent stamp only required) to: J. F. Kincade, Kingston, New Mexico.

—Silver creek is in first with arrangements for Christmas festivities. Advertisement will appear in our next issue.

—C. M. Caldwell has had a very narrow escape with his life the past week, the complication of ills that beset him requiring at his age, good medical attention and best of nursing. He is pronounced out of danger.

—Mrs. N. Brown and daughter, of San Francisco, are expected to arrive this week, and winter in Burns. Ben Brown started to Portland, Friday, to meet the ladies. This will be a pleasant addition to Burns society.

—We received a complete list of the lucky holders of prize tickets to the Staver & Walker Exposition Drawing, but, all Harney county tickets being blanks, there is not enough interesting reading in it to warrant its publication.

—News reached Mrs. Haskell that her husband died in San Francisco, Nov. 1st: the cancer was not removed. The sympathy of a host of citizens is with the widow, who freely gave about all she was worth to have Mr. H. restored to health, is doubly bereaved.

—The "Texas" stands out bold, grand, and majestic as a Club Room, Amusement Hall, and Evening Resort, and holds out for Refreshments whatever is called for in Wines, Brandies, Whiskies, Beers, Temperance Beverages, Cigars, etc., in any style ordered.

—One of the longest freight trains we have ever seen enter Burns at one time, came in from the railroad, Sunday evening; was composed of the McKinnon Bros., Ivers and Allison's 8 horse teams, eight wagons loaded to the guards with merchandise for the already heavily stocked stores of J. Durkheimer and N. Brown.

—Marion Bunyard is the giver of balls in the country, and last Friday night it looked as if the town were deserted, all the boys gone to Marion's dance. Yes, they had a good time, and everybody was there. We failed to get the list, THE HERALD having been engaged to be present at the church festival the week before Mr. Bunyard's announcement of his ball.

—Some enterprising John Day men brought in several wagon loads of fruit, Friday. One of them talked quite confidently of the impossibility of raising fruit in the Harney country. There are citizens here to-day, who remember the same prophecies regarding John Day. Just give us time, and let our farmers answer this aspersion on the future prospects of this section of country.

—The musical sound of the summons to the Band Boys to hold a meeting, was heard Sunday evening. This Brass Band is a feature of our town that should receive a more practical recognition of its merits than it has since last summer. As will be seen it is mostly composed of young business men of Burns, who can only afford the evenings in practice. They are arranging on an unusually large scale to entertain the people with the opening ball of the season, for the purpose of buying additional instruments, and every music lover should be in attendance with his wife, sister, or best girl.

A two-cent stamp sent to L. W. Noyes, of Chicago, will bring you a package of fine quality blotters. One showing a cunning little cupid dressed only in a traveling cap and grip, is represented as saying: "I am a 'runner' for La Verne W. Noyes, the well-known maker of Dictionary Holders, and am here to point out the fact that a book held with the edge up will become filled with dust, soiled and spoiled unless hugged together with strong springs. The Noyes Holders are the only ones thus closely clasping the book. About 125,000 are now in use, and the later makes are so greatly improved—indeed are so perfect that Mr. Noyes is sad because nothing more is desired or can be done in this direction."

—The Parker House is making its lodging rooms snug and warm for the coming winter.

—Married at Payette, Idaho, Nov. 8, 1889, by J. H. Lydston, of the Baptist church, Frank W. McClintock and Mrs. Jane Griswold, of Burns, Harney co., Oregon.

—If any one of our lady readers should by any chance fail to get the pattern she orders, we wish her to inform us at once, so the matter can be looked into; state the date the order was mailed; by whom put in; name of postoffice and oblige THE HERALD.

A Change for the Better.

As intimated last week a change took place in the affairs of our little town cotemporary, so far as outside ownership and political position are concerned.

In last week's issue of the Items a little clique of Republicans doffed their hats to the public, and in a leading editorial over the signature of "The Harney Valley Printing & Publishing Company," enter into the following agreement with all who subscribes for the Items:

1st. To make Items double its present size.

2d. To get additional material.

3d. To give reliable news.

4th. To use it in the interest of Harney county in particular, and East Oregon in general.

5th. Not let it be controlled by any clan or clique.

6th. Make it exponent of resources of this county and surrounding country.

7th. Indorse measures beneficial to Burns and Harney valley.

8th. Advertise for immigration.

9th. To make it a Republican newspaper, because "in the great questions of political economy there is no middle ground for a newspaper."

10th. Make it exponent of principles and policies of the Great Republican Party.

11th. Keep close watch on public officials; criticise their public acts; spare none in cases of violations of their trusts.

12th. To deal justly by THE HERALD and the Harney paper.

13th. To fight 'em back, but with journalistic courtesy.

16th. To use all the Company's skill to make the Items decent, respectable and thoughtful.

15thly. To continue it at present as a weekly.

N. B. THE HERALD takes the above as a highly esteemed endorsement of its course the past two years, if you substitute "Democrat" for the word "Republican."

Go to Tupker's.

Horse shoes, nails, and all kinds of wrought iron worked into shape to suit the public. Horseshoeing and other blacksmithing done on quick time at Tupker's.

The Burns Brass Band.

The Band met last Sunday evening at the Saddler shop to re-organize and elected the following officers for the ensuing quarter:
