CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGS.

Wissman in Africa.

Berlin, January 2.—Baron Wissman cables that he hoisted the German Imperial standard on the East African coast January 1st.—S. F. Examiner.

Coal Mines Closed by a Strike

Pittsburgh, January 2.—Thirty coal mines along the Monongahela river are now idle on account of the strike for an advance in the price of mining. Three thousand men are out and the strikers claim the strike will be general in a few days.—S. F. Examiner.

Suffocated in an Ore Car.

Carson, Nev., January 2.—Lucius E. Muzzy was killed at the Eureka dump yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. For the past five years he has been engaged by the Eureka Mill Company. His work was to lower ore from the Virginia and Truckee Railroad dump with giraffe cars to the lower dump, whence it was taken to the mill on the narrow-guage.

Yesterday, when the cars came up for a load, the men, finding the rock short, called on Muzzy to lower some, but received no answer. Schooley, the engineer, went up to see what the trouble was and could not find Muzzy. Latter on a full car of ore was run down the track and dumped. As the car opened on the bottom the body of Muzzy appeard, limp and lifeless. The supposition is that Muzzy fell in the car, and the ore falling on top of him he died of suffocation.—S. F. Examiner.

A House in a Bottle.

Some years ago a blind boy residing in Chicago constructed a miniature house inside an ordinary four ounce medicine bottle. The building was made up of 40 pieces of wood, all neatly fitted and glued together. It would have puzzled a man with two good eyes to put the pieces in the bottle without the task of putting them together. As wonderful as the above may seem it is only a part of the remarkable achievements of this sightless lad.

After completing the house to his satisfaction he set about fastening the cork in the bottle, but how he accomplished the startling feat has ever remained a mystery. Inside the bottle, below the neck, a small wooden peg was driven through the cork, which extended far enough on each side of the stopper to prevent it being removed from the bottle. The boy is unable to explain the astonishing piece of ingeniousness.—St. Louis Republic.

Why Condemn King.

Why should we blame Jay Gould. Is it not fitting that this man, who over all other men represents the commercial spirit that now cotnrols our civilization as well as our government should assume his rightful place or ruler and dictator in American finance? He has earned the distinction he now enjoys as the incarnated genius of mammonism. And it is natural that with the news of his coronation should come the cheerful tidings that the same man who lately suggested that "the McKinley bill would raise the price of woolen goods," and simply compel the "poor man to wear one suit of clothes the year around instead of wearing two," has anounced that the "first thing that the railway combinations must do will be to raise the rates" in order that "monied men may have more revenue." We are also informed through Mr. Gould's associated press reports from Washington that while the stringency of the money market makes it very inconvenient for all other kinds of business, that den of usury, known as the National Banking system, runs more easily and securely than ever—that "ninety-five more banks have been established this year up to date than during all of last year."

And why not?

Is not the people,s calamity the usurer's opportunity? And if there is not machines enough to gather in the thickening harvest of tottering fortunes and ruined homes, why in the name of Gould should not our great factory at Waihington work night and day to furnish more?

So long as we uphold and encourage a system whoes inevitable tendency is to create and oppress wage-slaves and to reduce Americen labor in shop and field to the same level so long occupied in Europe, we should not censure Jay Gould, but congratulate him on his success in becoming king of the relm—a king who does not sit on the throne through accident of birth, but thro' actual merit.

Let us be consistent and either bow down and worship him or repudiate and overturn his kingdom, and then shout: "The kingdom is dead! Long live the commonwealth!"

The Behring Sea Trouble.

London, Jan. 5.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: "The case for arbitration in the Behring sea dispute is so clear, and Lord Salisbury's offer is so ample, and the feeling in America in favor of arbitration is so general and strong that it seems necessary to look for his warlike attitude elsewhere than in the merits of this case. It is clear that Blaine speaks not for the nation but for his party, and that he means to bluff the English people."

WOMAN'S INTUITION.

Nearly Always Right in her Judgment in Regard to Common Things.

An old gentleman over seventy, came into town from his farm without his overcoat. The day turned chilly and he was obliged to forego his visit to the fair.

To a friend who remonstrated with him for going away from home thus unprepared, he said: "I thought it was going to be warm; my wife told me to take my overcoat, but I wouldn't. Women have more sense than men anyway."

A frank admission.

Women's good sense is said to come from intuition; may it not be that they are more close observers of little things. One thing is certain, they are apt to strike the nail on the head, in all the ordinary problems of life, more frequently than the lords of creation.

"Everything to Dr. Alice Bennett, who recently read a paper on Bright's disease before the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, persons subject to bilious attacks and sick headaches, who have crawling sensations, like the flowing of water in the head, who are "tired all the time" and have unexplained attacks of sudden weakness, may well be suspected of dangerous tendencies in the direction of Bright's disease."

The veteran newspaper correspondent, Joe Howard, of the New York Press, in noting this statement, suggests: "Possibly Alice is correct in her diagnosis, but why doesn't she give some idea of treatment? I know a man who has been 'tired all the time' for ten years. Night before last he took two doses of calomel and yesterday he wished he hadn't."

A proper answer is found in the following letter of Mrs. Davis, wife of Rev. Wm. J. Davis, of Basil, O., June 21st, 1890:

"I do not hesitate to say that I owe my life to Warner's Safe Cure. I had a constant hemorrhage from my kidneys for more than five months. The physicians could do nothing for me. My husband spent hundreds of dollars and I was not relieved. I was under the care of the most eminent medical men in the state. The hemorrhage ceased before I had taken one bottle of the Safe Cure. I can safely and do cheerfully recommend it to all who are sufferers of kidney troubles."

Steady Progress

Has characterized Hood's Sarsaparilla ever since it was placed before the public. Wherever introduced, its sales have grown from year to year, until now it is the most popular and most successful medicine offered. Any druggist will confirm this statement. The secret of this success lies in the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a medicine of merit. It does actually accomplish all that is claimed for it, and when given a fair trial, is reasonably certain to be of benefit.

Positive Statements.

"Since Hood's Sarsaparilla has been in my hands for sale I have had frequent and unreserved testimonials in its favor. Although carrying this preparation for less than one year, my sales have been greater than of any similar preparation, and the testimonials in its favor are at once positive and personally noticeable." A. Wright, Healdsburg, Cal.

Sells On Its Merits.

"My boys say, 'Papa, why don't you buy more of Hood's Sarsaparilla at a time; we are always short.' It sells on its own merits." F. Beal, Portland, Oregon; the oldest druggist in Oregon.

And if you do not find just what you want, write me what changes you desire made, and I will accommodate you. Or leave Orders with THE HERALD. You will find it cheaper to erect a handsome house as to waste material on an unsightly building. Will aid you in reconstructing your present building. 41-tf

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down; let's have an experience meeting. How's the wife?"

"Oh! she's same as usual,—always wanting something I can't afford."

"Well, we all want something more than we've got. Don't you?"

"Yes; but I guess I won't will be my master.' I started to keep down expenses; and now Lil says I'm mean, and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street and she looked as happy as a queen!"

"I think she is; and we are common cattle,—have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition; she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk intelligently of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her flowers and these for the room, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we owed Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Gardening Department. But I can't tell you half!"

"What wonderful Magazine is it?"

"Thousand's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that's what Lil wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."

"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'll better rectify as soon as you can. Tell the young lady that I have, on my wife's account, she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our tin wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy with the new Premium List for clubs,—the biggest thing yet! If you don't see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publishers and tell them what you want, who her it is a tack hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special inducements for one, club, or for part of a club. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mrs. Tom. Only $2.00 a year—will save fifty times that in six months. Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 16th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

THE CRY OF MILLIONS!

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW,

SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me to such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

G. A. TUPPER,

Proprietor Occidental Hotel, Santa Rosa, Cal.

MR. LEE. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I thought you would follow her example."

MRS. LEE. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen,—and she makes all her own clothes. But she was what I have not."

MR. LEE. "What is that?"

MRS. LEE. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I doubt that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I can do as well as she does if I have the same source of information. She takes the big number of her Magazine lately, and I have more in one hour reading about various cooking matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every lady I see looks over to the Alcove side comes back and insists on my trying to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

MR. LEE. "Well perhaps I should send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole family."

MRS. LEE. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 16th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size, which alone makes each copy worth 50 cents, and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

THE MAMMOTH CYCLOPÆDIA,

IN FOUR VOLUMES.

A Great and Wonderful Work,

CONTAINING

2,176 Pages

AND

620 Beautiful Illustrations!

THE MAMMOTH CYCLOPÆDIA has been published at a price within the means of the masses for a comprehensive compendium of knowledge, practical, useful, and useless, in general. The work is published complete in four large and handsome volumes, containing a total of 2,176 pages, and is profusely illustrated with 620 beautiful engravings. The engravings have been expended upon this the most complete, valuable and useful work for the masses ever published. It is a work for everybody—man, woman and child, for every occupation or walk in life. The subject matter and practical utility of twenty ordinary volumes are comprised in these four, and so popular is the work with knowledge of every kind, so filled it is with useful hints and helpful suggestions, that we fully believe that in every home to which it enters it will soon come to be regarded as worth its weight in gold. For want of space we can only briefly summarize a small portion of the contents of this great work, as follows:

HISTORY. The MAMMOTH CYCLOPÆDIA contains a complete and authentic history of the great American Civil War, profusely illustrated, with numerous anecdotes of the Rebellion; a concise History of America, from its discovery by Columbus to the present time; graphic descriptions of famous battles and important events in the history of all nations, chronological history, etc., etc.
