AVERILL'S

We Must Wash

We may live without poetry, music and art;
We may live without conscience, may love without heart;
We may live, without lovers live, without hope;
But civilized women, cannot live without soap.
We may live without looks, what is knowledge, but sorrow;
We may live without beauty, it fades on the morrow;
We may live without law suits, indictments are quashing;
But, where is the one who can live without washing

MANY YEARS AGO.

(From the Recorder, June 4, 1905)

John Swing with his gasoline boat was over from North Bend helping Engineer Tower with a survey of the harbor.

W. T. Panter and brother Will took charge of Sanderson Bros.' store.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hoskins.

Bids were asked for the construction of the Odd Fellows' building.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Taylor of Prosper.

Mrs. Francis Koontz died, aged 61.

(From the Recorder May 31, 1905)

An infant son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dennett.

Wm. Knight of Riverton was married in Bandon to Miss Amanda Prescott of Bear Creek by Justice Morse.

Mr. Kennett rented the Ocean house and opened up a hotel there.

M. Bennett joined the Recorder's list of subscribers.

Captain Geo. Lawson had charge of the Antelope for a few days while taking for Captain Harry Lockwood who was laid up for a few days.

J. H. Bennett sold his property on Second and Baltimore streets to Mrs. Ida Gale, and the Gale property in Bandon, and took possession June 1st.

In Justice Morse's court Wid Taylor was tried for assault with a knife on William Prewett. The jury was unable to agree.

There was a large crowd at the auction sale of the effects of Maoma Webster, insane, at the Ocean house. The price brought by many of the articles reached the price of new goods.

A cannery was to be built along the river on two lots to be donated by Judge Dyer.

At the city election J. M. Upton was elected recorder, E. M. Gaither, marshall, Robert Walker, George M. Dyer, D. E. Stitt, C. A. Craddock and J. P. Tupper, trustees. The total vote was 139.

A camp of Woodmen of the World was organized by Deputy J. P. Feazter. Following are the first officers of the camp: E. E. Crook, C. C.; W. H. Grendy, A. L.; O. F. Phillips, clerk; M. Brauer, banker; Thos. Miller, escort; J. S. Anderson, watchman; John Miller, centry, Dr. J. B. Kime, physician; Alex Scott, Harry Lockwood, and Albert Thomas, trustees. The camp was christened "Seaside."

Easy For Uncle Sam

A letter addressed to the "Zenidone Oil Co." sealed at Odessa, Wash., and next addressed to the "Red Crown Gasoline Co." posted at Caledon, Cal. didn't bother Uncle Sam's servants one bit. The writers knew what they wanted and didn't know where to get it. The discovery was definite enough for the postoffice service here and it was short delay the letter was delivered in cash instead to the general manager Oil Co. station.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS

From the Myrtle Point Enterprise

Prof. T. S. Van Fleet, principal of the Bandon schools, and Prof. E. R. Jones, principal of the Bridge schools, who have been well acquainted for several years, had a very pleasant visit here Saturday and Sunday and joined the popular excursion to Powers.

The baseball season is again at hand. The essential apparatus of base ball is simple and inexpensive. Al base ball is simple and inexpensive. All that is required is a field, a stick, the ball itself and police protection for the umpire.

Frank V. Catterlin of Marshfield was calling on the grocery trade the first of the week.

E. N. Smith came up from Bandon the fore part of the week and spent several days here.

County Surveyor C. S. McCullough and his deputy, A. E. Radcell of Bandon, were here the latter part of last week and the first part of this week doing work on the county road near Rhuey Creek and near this city.

Miss Ida Gazelle who taught in the Myrtle Point schools last winter has returned to her home in Marshfield. (Miss Gazelle has been employed to teach in the Bandon schools next year.)

California Oil

The Standard Oil bulletin shows 70 California during April. 102 wells completed, 17 completed 4 abandoned production per day 244,201 barrels. Average price at the well for crude oil was 89c (sic) a barrel.

The Coos Bay Time shas been appropriatingto its own use a few chunks of news from the Bandon Recorder without giving credit therefor. In fact with a special date line and a big heading we scarcely recognized some of our verbatim compositions. Everything was there to make it a "scoop", special wire news item—excepting only the label of the Associated press, which was lacking.

WANTED—A reliable and active man or woman in Bandon to organize neighborhood magazine clubs. Members receive their favorite magazines at one third less than the regular price and pay monthly. New plan. Work of organizing pleasant and highly profitable and can be done in spare time. Regular monthly income. In replying give qualifications and reference.
