THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1898.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

ARLINGTON.

R. H' Armsworthy has his new residence about completed, which he will occupy in a short time.

Colwell's sheep came in from the mountains the first of the week to their winter range.

The Northern Pacific R. R. land agent was in this section last week disposing of what land the Co. had left in Gilliam county.

R. T. Cox, Capt. Nelson, Dr. E. H. Hambick, E. Beeclay, Carlisle and Colwell went goose hunting the first of the week and succeeded in killing an even fifty birds.

One-half inch of snow fell here the middle of last week but did not lay on the ground but a short time. This has been an unusually dry fall for this country.

Our efficient R. R. agent, Mr. F. C. Hindle, has accepted a position as agent at Dayton, Wash. He has had this office for the past four years. We hate to lose such good people from our town.

The Arlington Band will reorganize this week, as some of its members have gone away, and others come to the city. We have the best band in the county.

There is some uneasiness among stockmen as to their stock this winter. The grass is very short, and it is getting so late there is no chance for green grass unless the winter is an exceptionally mild one.

The six Schilling's Best commodities are tea, coffee, soda, baking powder, flavoring extracts and spices

Every one is pure, good, business-like and money-back. 173

For sale by Dunn Brothers.
