THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

LOCAL NEWS.

Condon Coons.

Condon Coons tomorrow night.

W. A. Cummins has returned from Portland.

Mrs. Will Myers has been seriously ill for several days.

"Hi dar Chile!" Don't miss the Condon Coons.

Hon. W. W. Stewer, of Fossil, was in town Monday.

Frank Stevens was in from Poplar Farm yesterday.

Mr and Mrs Geo Gibbons were over from Mayville Tuesday.

Miss Dora Downing has returned from a visit in Idaho and Washington.

Miss Lulu Keizur visited friends in Mayville precinct during the week.

A. S. Hollen and J. E. Lancaster went to Arlington Monday on a business trip.

Rev. Mount, of Fossil, filled his regular appointment in the Baptist pulpit last Sunday.

John Madden, W. R. Roberts and Geo. Earhart, of Lone Rock were in town Tuesday.

A fine young daughter came to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Myers Friday morning.

Geo. Gibbons, jr. who is working in town this winter visited his parents on Key's Flat Sunday.

Geo Stephens, a former resident of this County, now of near Weiser, Idaho was here during the week.

Winnie Keizur who is chief navigator of D. C. Henry's band of sheep this winter was in town Saturday evening.

F. A. Bauer, an old time resident of Juniper Canyon, now living in Marion county, was here last week on business.

W. R. Roberts left an order for posters at this office the other day for balls to be given at Lone Rock February 22nd, and March 17th.

Clare G. Morey, a former principal of the Condon public school is teaching this Winter in Dist. No. 28 (Montague's) in Willow creek precinct.

The Gilliam County Caledonian Club will give a big Scotch concert and dance here Friday evening, February 7th. See ad in another column.

J. M. Downing returned from Heppner Saturday where he delivered a lot of cavalry horses. He is still in the market for horses of that class.

Markham's New York Theater Company gave good shows here Monday and Tuesday nights. The trick bicycle riding was particularly fine.

Elder Swift was over from Gooseberry during the week. He says much plowing was done during the recent fine weather, in his neighborhood.

The telephone line from Upper Thirtymile has been completed to Condon with office in Dunn's store. The line will be extended to Lone Rock next week.

As will be seen from bills printed at this office Howard Propst will sell his household goods and farming implements Saturday Jan. 25. The sale will be held in Condon.

Posters were turned out at this office the other day for a grand entertainment and dance to be given at Olex on the 24th. inst. A good time is promised. Proceeds for the benefit of the school,

Syl Palmer received a letter from Al Wright a few days ago, written from Sacramento, California, where Mr. and Mrs. Wright are now living. Al is working at the barber trade and is getting along O.K.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Crane returned Sunday from a pleasant visit in the Willamette valley where they spent over a month. They had an enjoyable visit but got tired of the rain and mud and are glad to be back to grand old Gilliam once more.

From posters printed at this office it will be learned that a grand ball will be given in the Armory hall on February 14. It is proposed to make this the event of the season in Condon social circles and a large crowd is expected to be present. The best of music, floor managers etc. will be provided. Don't miss it.

Walter A. Campbell, of Ferry Canyon is registered at the Perkins in Portland. Mr. Campbell has about abandoned his orange grove project and decided to plant his fine Ferry Canyon farm to dates, figs and bread fruit—mostly bread fruit. He may also conduct a hen fruit business as a side line.

C. F. Lancaster, of Seattle, writes his brother J. E. Lancaster of this place that he expects to close out his interests on the Sound between now and Spring with a view to coming to Condon to locate. Should he do so he will erect a business building and residence here next Summer.

Word has reached here that Miss Grace Crane, of near Mayville, and Mr Orin Jackson, of Condon, were recently married at Hillsboro. No particulars of the event have yet reached us. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs R W Crane and is one of Gilliam's most highly respected young ladies. The GLOBE offers best wishes.

D. M. French, one of the most prominent and highly respected citizens of The Dalles and of this section of Oregon, died Sunday morning. He was a pioneer of the state and for years had been a leading spirit in financial and business circles in Wasco, Gilliam and Sherman counties. He was 74 years old. The funeral took place Tuesday at The Dalles.

A. C. Hawson, formerly of Arlington, now located at Grangeville, Idaho, writes the GLOBE that the following named ex Gilliamites were seen on the streets of Grangeville one day recently: A. H. Weatherford and son John, Harry Ladd, Geo. W. Good and his brother, Byron March and "Doc" Hawson. Ex-Sheriff Leslie, of Sherman county, was also in evidence. Grangeville is a good town and is expecting a boom in the Spring when the rush to Thunder mountain starts.

Mill Machinery Ordered.

A. S. Hollen received a letter Saturday from his partner Carl Marquardsen who is in the East stating that he has bargained with the Great Western Manufacturing Co., of Leavenworth Kansas for the machinery etc. for the new flouring mill. Contract of the deal was enclosed for Mr. Hollen's signature and the same has been signed and returned. The machinery is of the very latest improved pattern. It will be shipped about April 15th next.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's parents near town, Sunday, January 12, 1902 Miss Ethel Harrison was united in marriage with Mr. Karl F. Weise, Elder Swift of the Church of Christ performing the ceremony. Both parties are well known here and the GLOBE joins their many other friends in the usual congratulations.

A Cure for Lumbago.

W. C. Williamson, of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies had failed to do. Sold by Hudson Pharmacy.
