The county court has advertised for bids on the court house. Bids will be received up to March 21 for the completion of a brick building according to the plans prepared by C. H. Burggraf, of Albany.

Local Teacher's Institute.

The local institute held in the school house last Saturday evening was a decided success. Excellent papers pertaining to school matters were read by Miss Nellie Brown, Miss Joyce Hershner, Miss Belle Wilson and Miss Naomi Stengle while Miss Bertha Trimble favored the audience with a select recitation. Supt. Neal expressed his views on the needs of the school in a few well chosen remarks after which those who wished to make any remarks were given the opportunity. J. A. McMorris and Miss Stengle gave their opinions and a motion was made to adjourn until such time as the Superintendent should deem it meet to call another meeting. Altogether it was a pleasant and profitable meeting.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Madden is much better and was able to come to town Saturday.

J. B. Goff's house took fire about 2:00 p. m. Sunday caused by a stove-pipe coming unjointed. Luckily Mr. Goff and three boys were present and put the fire out before much damage was done.

Quite a crowd assembled in the town hall Saturday evening and were entertained with a drama rendered by about a dozen local lights. After the show a supper was spread and the way the good grub disappeared was a caution, the children of Isreal eating manna was no where along side of it.

Obituary.

Died at Scio, Cal., Feb. 21, 1903, of heart failure, George Moore an old time resident of this county.

For 20 years "George" as he was familiarly called by everybody has lived on his ranch adjoining F. B. Stevens' Poplar Farm, a very quiet and respected citizen of shrewd business capacity by which combined with years of hard labor he had succeeded in accumulating a sufficiency for old age had he lived to reach it.

After selling his property here he went to California to spend the winter and look for another location.

It is not known that deceased who was left an orphan at an early age, left any relatives, but in his quiet way gained many friends who will regret to learn of his untimely death.
