THURSDAY.....October 29, 1896

Five days after today we shall know all about it.

The fight is nearly over and Jones hasn't charged Hanna with employing hypnotic suggestions.

Cancel if Bryan wins, is the legend attached to thousands of orders from dealers who are buying their winter stock.

Bryan says panic would prevail for a time after the change to the silver standard. The people are not in the humor to vote for a panic this year.

Bryan's boast that he will carry but the Chicago platform if elected cuts no figure. The people will carry it out next Tuesday and build a McKinley bon fire with it.

The only thing that remains to wish concerning the election result is that the victory will be so complete and sweeping that the free silver fallacy will never dare show its head again.

The latest charge against the republican management is that Mark Hanna cornered the East India rice crop in order to boom the price of wheat in this country for political purposes.

Commercial reports all show that confidence is gradually being restored and business growing better as election draws nearer and the defeat of Bryanism, repudiation and dishonor grows certain beyond a doubt.

The power of the press on public opinion and as voicing the best thots of the people has long been recognized in this country. The newspapers which in any way may be called great that are supporting Bryan may be counted with the fingers of one hand. Those opposed to Bryanism and repudiation are numbered by the hundred.

Coin Harvey, who ought to be called Gold Coin Harvey now, is organizing a secret political order, the Patriots of America, all members of which must buy his new book. If the scheme works Harvey will soon have another batch of gold to lock up in a safe-deposit vault.

These were the sentiments of James G. Blaine: "If we coin a silver dollar of full legal tender below the current value of the gold dollar, we are simply opening our doors and inviting England to take our gold. With our gold flowing out from us we shall be forced to the single silver standard and our relations with the leading commercial countries of the world would be not only embarrassed, but crippled. What gain should we make, therefore, for the circulating medium if on opening the gate for silver to flow in we open a still wider gate for gold to flow out?"

"Better a thousand times enlarge the markets for American products than enlarge the mints for the silver product of the world," is what Maj. McKinley said to a party of visiting farmers. The utterance describes the whole situation. Free coinage will not create a demand for one extra bushel of wheat. It would not give employment to an idle laborer nor increase by the smallest fraction the demand for labor products. To the popocrat cry, "open the mints," McKinley says, "open the mills." The solution of the whole question is industry. Restore to us a policy which banishes idleness and the financial heresies which vex our politics will speedily vanish.

I have seen somewhere an inquiry says Maj. McKinley—"Cannot the United States establish a financial system of its own? Is it too weak and dependent to do that?" His answer is, "the United States now has a financial policy, which in the main it has been pursuing since the beginning of the government, and which it does not mean to change until it can find a better one." Precisely; those who make the inquiry are usually against our American policy of finance, and they are insisting that we shall adopt the financial policy of China and Mexico. It should not be thought an evidence of lack of national independence that we decline to accept their proposition.

THE CAMPAIGN OF LIES.

The campaign liar has been busier this year than ever before. His lying has been more useless and more reckless than in former years, and his lies more easily disproved. That seems to have made no difference, however, for no matter how frequently exposed or how completely brought into disgrace, he kept right on with his lying and appears to have found people to believe him and even repeat his inventions without question, often resorting to forgery to sustain his position.

* * *

The latest circumstance of this kind is a letter to Judge R. C. Bell of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, pretending to be from one J. Francis Forsythe, 711 Wall street, New York, giving Mr. Bell some pointers, a batch of bare faced lies, forgeries and scandal, to be used as free silver literature. Bell promptly made use of the stuff but when called to account for it by the republican press he was unable to produce any evidence of the truthfulness of the statements.

* * *

Barrels full of letters have accumulated in New York for Forsythe, which will have to be destroyed as there is no such person in New York. Judge Bell is energetic in pleading innocence of any endeavor on his part to carry out the lies, forgeries and scandal—after the style of the murderer who falls back upon the plea that he didn't know that the gun was loaded, but the Bryanites continue to use the lying stuff regardless of all decency in politics which they have ignored all along.

* * *

The pretended Forsythe, in the letter to Judge Bell, claimed to be a member of the Committee of Political Education of Wall street. There is no such committee. Inquiries by mail and by telegraph poured in upon republican headquarters both in New York and Chicago asking for authentic information on the subject. There is no No. 711 Wall street. The highest No. in Wall street is 120. No. 711 would be in the East river. After this fact was pointed out No. 11 Wall street was substituted for No. 711 in reproductions of the forgery.

* * *

No. 11 Wall street is the Mortimer building, where no such committee, nor such person as J. Francis Forsythe can be found, in any of the offices of the building, and diligent search among the bankers and brokers of the city has failed to reveal the existence of any one who knows or has ever heard of any man bearing that name.

* * *

The various firms who occupy rooms in the Mortimer building as tenants received so many letters of inquiry, respecting the alleged man, that they are unable to answer them and the mail addressed to Forsythe is refused by the janitor of the building. There are barrels of letters addressed to that name, now in the New York postoffice, which have not been called for, and will have to be destroyed. Still, in spite of all this, and the further fact that the forgery has been exposed, Bryanite sheets continue the infamous publications as if they were facts.

* * *

They seem to understand the wisdom of the saying, for their purpose, that a lie is always better than the truth, because a lie can be amended, denied, confessed, another lie substituted for it, or you can tell it again, Pennoyer like; but one has given utterance to the truth—it is past recall.

* * *

This appears to be the principle on which the populists, from Bryan all down along the line, have conducted their side of the present campaign. Illustrations of the application are too numerous to mention. This is only one of them. Others are found in their spurious quotations from the London Financial Review, the writings of Abraham Lincoln, the garbled speeches of James G. Blaine, the Bismarck forgery, etc., etc. It ought to put the people on guard for the next five days, as we may expect a flood of similar stuff yet, before election day.

* * *

In conclusion, this being our last work in this campaign, THE OBSERVER wishes to remark: This will not be its last say, in the event that the Bryanites do any dirty work before the polls open in Sherman county, as was done last June election.

The Wasco News says Canton's mayor is for Bryan. True; but the workhouse remedy proposed by Canton's mayor does not meet with the approbation of men who prefer freedom to stripes and ignominy. Salem Ohio, recently proved that Mayor Rice, this Canton mayor who is for Bryan, lied about the Salem people; a wholesale lie.

GREAT SALES prove the great merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Sarsaparilla sells because it accomplishes GREAT CURES.

The triumph of free silver means the triumph of free trade while republican success means a protection

"It is a mere pretense to attribute the hard times to the fact that all our currency is on a gold basis. Good money never made hard times." Maj McKinley.

We have in the currency today legal tender silver to the amount of $413,000,000. The policy of the republican party is to keep this great amount of silver at par with gold and keep it in circulation.

"The tariff is now 18 months old" said Maj. McKinley in 1892, "and is doing its own talking." The democratic tariff is now also two years old and it has talked thousands of once flourishing industries to their death. No man dare dispute these facts.

Never was a more grievous wrong done the farmers of our country than that so unjustly inflicted the past three years upon the wool growers. Altho among our most useful citizens their interests have been practically destroyed—McKinleys letter of acceptance.

Sherman county has very many democrats who denounce in vigorous manner the job of populist fusion put up by jugglery which forced Mr Sewall off the ticket entirely and attempts to force democrats to either stay at home, or vote for Bryan and Watson. One in Moro, who is still a democrat, and never will be a populist, calls upon democrats to repudiate the job and vote for Palmer and Buckner electors, the national democratic nominees honorably chosen.

Payment in any money of the United States government today, silver, paper, or gold, 100 cents to every dollar, will be entirely satisfactory.

A Good Windmill—Make It Yourself

I made one of the People's wind mills which I saw recommended in your paper recently, it only cost me $9.40 and is a splendid mill, my wife is dead but it pumps it all right and with very little wind; the neighbors all like it, and as I am a kind of a carpenter I have agreed to put up nine mills already, on which I can make a nice profit, and there are many others for whom I can put up mills this fall. I don't see why every farmer should not have a wind mill when they can make it themselves for less than $10, anyone can get diagrams and complete directions for making the wind mill by sending 18 two-cent stamps to pay postage, etc, to E. D. Wilson & Co., Allegheny Pa., and there can be dozens of them put up in any locality by any one that has the energy to do it. I A FARMER

There is not a business within the range of Sherman county (large or small), that would not be benefited by an advertisement in THE OBSERVER.

Churning Done in One Minute.

I have tried the Lightning Churn you recently described in your paper and it is certainly a wonder. I can churn in less than one minute, and the butter is elegant and you get considerably more butter than when you use a common churn. I took the agency for the churn here and every butter maker that sees it buys one. I have sold three dozen and they give the best of satisfaction. I know I can sell 100 in this township as they churn so quickly, make so much more butter than common churns and are so cheap. Some one in every township can make two or three hundred dollars selling these churns. By addressing J. F. Casey & Co., St. Louis, you can get circulars and full information so you can make big money right at home. I have made $80 in the past two weeks and I never sold anything before in my life. I A FARMER

The European House, kept by Mrs. H. Frazer at The Dalles, is where you want to stop. Meals 25 cents, and a free stable for your horses. The table is one of the best in Oregon, and guests are made to feel at home during their stay in the city. Special accommodations for invalids. Turkish baths at any hour during the day time.

A Wife Equal to a Gold Mine.

Will some of your readers give me a good receipe for making cold starch? I am selling self heating flat irons and iron a little at every house and have to use some starch every place and want to know how to make good cold starch. My husband was in debt and I being anxious to help him thought I would sell self-heating flat irons and I am doing splendidly. A cent's worth of fuel will heat the iron for three hours so you have a perfectly even heat. You can iron in half the time and no danger of scorching the clothes as with the old iron and you can get the most beautiful glass. I sell at nearly every house as the iron saves so much fuel everybody wants one. I make $1.50 on each iron and have not sold less than ten any day I worked. My brother is doing well and I think anyone can make lots of money anywhere selling irons. J. F. Casey & Co., St. Louis, Mo., will start any one in the business as they did me, if you will address them. I MRS. A. RUSSELL.
