OFFICIAL PAPER of SHERMAN CO.

MORO, OREGON.

D. C. IRELAND & SONS. . PUBLISHERS

THURSDAY..... NOVEMBER 12, 1896

Indiana, Kentucky and Wyoming all went for McKinley.

Oregon gave McKinley 2594 plurality. In the United States McKinley's majority is 1,216,000.

Artificial ivory is now made from skimmed milk. It is not known just what they are making cheese of.

But little change is made in the reports published last Thursday. McKinley has 277 votes in the electoral college.

Our once proud sister state Washington has fallen into the hands of the philistines and will have a two years taste of populism.

Will Sylvester, the high ass tyhee of Portland be as good as his word and send in that resignation? Quoth the Raven "Not this time."

Five hundred and sixteen World's Fair exhibitors to whom medals and awards were credited cannot be found It is presumed that they are dead.

It is hard to make the parents of a dead football player see wherein the general physical training of the game is a compensation for the fatalities.

It will be worth as much as 20 years growth to Oregon to be known throughout the country as the only far western state in which investments are safe.

The Spanish colony at Buenos Ayres will present Spain with a $2,000,000 cruiser. Maybe Spain has money enough to buy it a proper silver service.

A new gunboat now building for the United States has been called the Princeton. Had Bryan been elected it would be some time before one was called the Yale.

Will eggs figure in future campaigns? It ought to be "good politics" for a candidate to get himself egged in the presence of a large assemblage of fair minded Americans.

The failure of Hilton, Hughes & Co., St. Paul, is said to have been due to the passion of the senior partner for stamp collecting, the mania absorbing him to the exclusion of business.

Bryan will be forgotten, as the Oregonian suggests, "even by his own party," long before the next nomination. "His own party," both of them, is (are) forgotten already. As the rocket bids the stick go.

Speaker Thomas B. Reed passed through Oregon en route east via the south Monday. In order that he might inform himself concerning further improvement of the Columbia he visited Celilo, the dalles and Cascade Locks. A popocrat paper in The Dalles sneeringly says "the train was delayed here to give him time to shake hands with his friends.

The American people appear to understand that the final test of success in any business is the profit it produces, the remainder that is left after all expenses are promptly paid. That the best management of government affairs is that which provides sufficient revenue to meet all the legitimate expenses of an economic administration and leaves a safe balance at the end of the year in the treasury, and so they've voted this year.

During the canvas an Indiana paper furnished a new version of an excuse for preaching politics from the pulpit. It repeated a conversation with a noted divine who said: "I don't wish to be accused of making a political speech in the pulpit. I do not think that politics is the preacher's province. But if I may venture on a little application of a certain phrase, I will say that those who expect to get a credit of $16 on the celestial books for every dollar they contribute are making a grievous mistake."

Is Mr. Bryan now conscious of the extent to which he undressed his soul in the course of his obiter dicta, his sidewise sayings, while traversing the breadth of the continent? Does he realize now that despite the decorous impersonality of the wooden sophistries of his set speeches an area of moral nakedness was revealed which gave old-fashioned people disgusted cause to look the other way? That which induced Bryan to create this spectacle is the fact that his blunted moral sense could not perceive that iniquitous element of his propaganda which stirred grave men, learned men, reserved men, statesmen, publicists and scholars to hot indignation. The lesson was a bitter one, but not without some beneficial results.

THE "IRON GATES."

Anent the opening of the locks at the cascades of the Columbia an inquirer asks: "What are the iron gates of the Danube about which we have heard so much of late?" This name has been applied to a rocky ledge about a mile in breadth, with toothlike points projecting above the surface lying athwart the stream, which when the river is low, forms a fearful cataract of tumultuous seething waters, somewhat similar to the dalles at Celilo, or cascades of the Columbia. It has been surmised that the rocky gorge of the iron gates was once closed and that the Danube burst its way through the pass. According to some authorities the great plains of Hungary between Belgrade and Pesth were once covered by the waters of an enormous fresh water lake, and if this were so it is considered reasonable to conclude that the overflow of the waters to the east may have gradually cut out the gorge of the iron gates. Attempts were made in ancient times to remove the obstructions to navigation on the Danube, and remains of works having this aim, attributed to Charlemange and others, similar to the ruins of ancient work in this county at Spanish hollow, are still to be seen. These obstructions have now been removed at vast expense of money and time and the Danube now pursues its way unvexed to the sea, and the great undertaking has lately been celebrated by great demonstrations of rejoicing, as at The Dalles last week.

Sherman County Resolutions.

At a mass meeting of citizens of Sherman county held in Wasco November 9th for the purpose of giving expression of feeling relative to the final completion and opening of the locks at the Cascades of the Columbia Hon John Fulton, county Judge was chosen chairman and V. C. Brock secretary.

On motion a committee of nine was appointed to draft resolutions and they reported the following which were unanimously adopted—

Whereas, The opening of the locks at the cascades of the Columbia will be of immeasurable benefit to the residents of Eastern Oregon and particularly Sherman county, and the same has been greatly hastened by the earnest and untiring efforts of the citizens of Dalles City, who, on the occasion of the said opening, extended such generous hospitality to our people; Therefore, be it resolved,

1st, That the long felt need of connecting the lower and middle Columbia has at last been met and that it will stimulate business, encourage immigration and greatly conduce to the prosperity of our county.

2d, That we recognise the invaluable aid that has been given by progressive and enterprising citizens of Dalles City in pushing this great work forward to completion. Their private expressions and their public press have unceasingly kindled the fires of energy in patriotic hearts who have labored jealously to free the Inland Empire from corporations grasping giving us an open river to the sea and we hereby extend to the citizens of Dalles City our heart felt thanks for their earnest labors in our behalf and shall ever remember their courteous treatment at the celebration of the opening of the locks and the entertainment at Dalles City Nov. 5th.

3d, Let us now put forth our united efforts with renewed courage to overcome the obstructions above Dalles City by connecting the middle and upper river thus extending commerce 300 miles farther into the fertile regions of Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

John Fulton, V. C. Brock, C. W. Moore, R. C. Wallis, R. C. Craven, W. H. Moore, D McDonald, W. M. Barnett, J. D. Gibson Committee. John Fulton, Chairman. V. C. Brock, Secretary.

There will be a clean administration working majority in the senate as not all so reported will in future stay by the party of disruption. Republicans will control the house by a vote of 193 to 164 all told against them.

A dandy Windmill make it Yourself

I have a neighbor that made one of the People's Windmills and I have been watching it closely, it is the best mill I have ever seen and anyone can make one for less than $10. I am going to make two immediately and don't see why every farmer cannot have a windmill when he can make it himself for so little money. The mill is durable, powerful and runs easily. Any person can get diagrams and complete directions by sending 18 two cent stamps to E. D. Wilson & Co., Allegheny, Pa., and any active man can undoubtedly make money anywhere putting these mills up for others, and I see no use of paying $50 or $60 for a mill when you can make one just as good for $10

That Wonderful Churn!

I want to add my testimony to the list of those that have used the Lightning Churn It does all that is claimed for it; you can churn easily in one minute, and get a large percentage more butter than with the common churns. I never took the agency for anything before, but so many of my neighbors wanted churns, that I ordered 50 and they are all gone. I think in a year every farmer will have a Lightning Churn in fact they can't afford to be without one as they make so much more butter and a good little bit of money can be made in every township selling these churns. By writing to J. F. Casey & Co., St. Louis, Mo., you can get circulars and full particulars about the churn. 3 A READER.

Marry this Girl, Somebody!

I have been reading in your paper about several men and women that have been very successful selling self heating flat irons and I concluded I would see what a girl could do. I have worked 12 days and have sold 151 irons and have 218 dollars left after paying all expenses. Everybody is delighted with the iron and I sell one almost every place I show it, as people think they can't afford to be without one as they save so much fuel and time and don't burn the clothes. I know I can clear five thousand dollars in a year. How is that for a girl. 3 A GRADUATE

Splendid my girl, splendid, you are a true American girl. Anyone can get complete information about the self-heating iron by addressing J. F. Casey & Co., St. Louis, Mo. It seems to be a winner, as everybody selling it writes in its praise.
