CITY AND COUNTY.

Mrs. Garlick is expected home this week.

Hicks' predictions for April were closely followed.

Look for earthquakes this month

Horace Strong is still afflicted with rheumatism but is able to be about.

Mrs. M. Damon is with their little boy who was taken to a Portland hospital for treatment.

R. J. Ginn and W. H. Moore put up wind mills as fast as the drills furnish wells in Sherman county.

L. K Moore returned from Grass Valley last week with a pair of twins—canines. Boze weighs about 40, Booze 5lbs, but they are just alike

There being a vacancy in the barbering business at Rufus, owing to removal to Baker City, Mr. Russell has opened a first class shop there.

Goldendale and Centerville nine combined to whip the Finlanders at Block-house on the 1st. The latter held them close, for the 1st game of the season, loosing by 7-14 to 21.

Frank Hulery was up paying taxes last week. His father, John M., of the pioneers of Portland, is spending the winter with him. Uncle John is in splendid health, weighs 178 in his shirt sleeves and talks of establishing a barrel factory here.

Sheriff Holder authorizes us to say that if The Dalles-Prineville people wish to put up a telephone line he can supply them with wire cheaper than anybody. He will then have enough left to build from Grass Valley to Antelope. Prineville had best get in on that proposition.'

Don't send your money out of the county after articles advertised in buyer's guides, and catalogues. The advertising columns of THE OBSERVER should be a buyers' guide, good enough for any resident of Sherman county.

A pure white snake, was killed on the Newton farm, Monkland, on the 30th, by Miss Alma Newton, assisted by J. B. Gregg. It measured three feet from tip to tip. This is the first snake of the kind ever killed in Oregon.

"Where Rolls the Oregon," is the title of a 16 page souvenir issued by the Imperial hotel, of Portland. It is neatly printed, gives a number of Columbia and Wallamet river views, and speaks volumes for the enterprise of Mr. Guinean, proprietor of the Imperial.

Do you know you can have the best photos in the Pacific Northwest made in The Dalles, by Mr. Hammond at the Herrin Gallery? He surely is the finest photographer that has ever been in The Dalles. That olive platino is simply grand. He will have a branch in Grass Valley during the musical.

A good mother was hearing her little child repeat the Lord's prayer the other night. As the child hesitated a bit over the expression, "Forgive us our trespasses," she interrupted long enough to ask, "Do you understand, dear, what trespass' means?" "Oh, yes," replied the little one, "It means keep off the grass!"

The man who got water in the great desert by the aid of a reed and a sponge, a week ago, evidently got the idea from the bushmen of the Kalahari desert in Africa. The bushmen find water by digging in bottoms of dried-up river beds, a hole three or four feet deep, and then tie a sponge to a hollow reed. The sponge absorbs the moisture at the bottom of the hole, and the natives draw it up in to the mouth through the reed.

Heydt Bros new Pyramid bike has arrived.

Wasco and other parts of the county are tapping the Moro brick kiln.

R. J. Ginn's imports from the eastern factories are coming along on time.

Miss Cordia Ragsdale returned home Friday, very much improved in health.

Wool speculators again refuse to make offers and the article is once more a drug on the market.

Robert Newton and N. W. Thompson, both of Monkland, will have strawberries to sell this season.

Hereafter we will charge for all local notices of entertainments where an admission fee is charged at the door.

May 5th the Columbia at The Dalles began to creep up again quite rapidly. It was 27.9 above low water on that date.

Aud. Winans' strawberry patch near The Dalles lies along the railway track convenient to tramps who have feasted upon them since April.

Uncle Johny Graham spent two months in Good Samaritan hospital last winter. He is now in good health comparatively, for one of his years.

May 3d the weather bureau in Portland were treated to a box of strawberries from Observer S. L. Brooks at The Dalles. The first of the season.

Grand Lecturer D. C. Herrin will visit Moro June 4th and Grass Valley June 5th and will give a public lecture at each place upon the subject of AOUW.

You'd better be getting your heavy freight up from Portland if you expect to get it up at all before the middle of July. High water is coming as in 1894.

Beef from California is inspected by U. S. inspectors before it is shipped. Oregon beef has never been inspected but according to Dr. Reed it should be. Recently he spoke of many dangers resulting from the use of animal food. He paid especial attention to the ptomains, rheumatism, gout and other troubles, which he maintained are due to the various deposits in the blood, about the tendons, joints, etc.

As soon as it become definitely known that the Biggs-Wasco spur is certain to be built, Moro will make a move. The railway will not stop short of Grass Valley canyon where will be established headquarters for the south eastern part of the county and from there it will be built up Barnum canyon immediately to Moro, where the southern part of the county will be accommodated until the spur becomes a necessity and will continue to a connection with the O. and E. at some point in Crook county.

To any person who will send us 75 cents between this date and June 1st, we will send THE OBSERVER six months, Word and Works five months, June to October inclusive, and a copy of a little book of 64 pages containing select chapters of a work by Rev. Irl R. Hicks, which is to be the crowning work of his life. This is a rare opportunity for any one to study the storm forecasts throughout the coming season besides the many other good things in Word and Works of interest to every member of a family. The regular price of this little book alone is 25 cents. Word and Works $1 a year and THE OBSERVER, the best local paper in Oregon, $1.50 per year. You get the full value of $1.75 for 75 cents. Present subscribers may renew on this basis. This offer ceases May 30th.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co.'s drug store.

A. K. Fuller was a pleasant visitor Saturday.

The AOUW program for June 4, will appear in these columns next week.

Mrs. Vintin and daughter Lottie, paid THE OBSERVER a pleasant visit Saturday.

Dr. I. M. Smith's handsome new harness came from the Moro shop of Heydt & Co.

Farmer Pike and Adjutant Parry are hosts within themselves when it comes to entertaining.

A new pestiferous fly has made its appearance in Sherman county. Long, lank and ravenous.

J. M. Donahoo was the fortunate one to secure the handsome wagonette imported by R. J. Ginn.

Spalding Chapel will give an entertainment Friday evening, 21st, for the benefit of the famine sufferers in India. A program and lunch.

Wesley Chapel, Rutledge, will be dedicated on Sunday next the 16th by Elder Warner and Rev. Frank Spalding. A basket dinner will be served.

C.T. Cartwright Monkland, made us a good visit Monday. Mr. C. is new beginner in Sherman county from the east and is well satisfied with the wild(?) woody west.

Misses Minnie and Addie Smith were in Moro Monday making purchases for the popular Grass Valley hotel. Miss Addie made THE OBSERVER an agreeable call.

Ed Rollins, son of Dr. R. of Grass Valley, returned last week for a tour of south eastern Oregon with his kintescope and phonograph. Ed makes a good impression wherever he goes.

J. H Fraser and J. V. O'Leary kept the wires hot last week between The Dalles and Washington city in an effort to open the ranges. Messrs John H Mitchell, McBride, Ellis and Tongue combined efforts in their behalf.

A wild bird, nesting in School Hall, took in part of Saturdays' program. It fluttered over the heads of the audience apparently conscious of the fact that it was in the house of its friends.

Luther Hill very narrowly escaped death Saturday from the explosion of a needly gun with which he was practicing at McGrath's. A fragment of the barrel struck him over one eye and for a time it was tho't had ruined his sight. Dr. Smith was speedily summoned and the sufferer is resting easy today.

The closing of The Dalles National bank last week by order of Eckels, against the protest of the bank officers, from this point of view was outrageous. Moody is the "main stay" of our already crippled sheep industry. We are proud of the fact that no bank was ever closed in the United States where creditors felt less uneasiness than do those of the Dalles National. Checks on Moodys bank will continue to be taken on THE OBSERVER account at this office.

Elder Harrison Neece, an aged and highly respected citizen of this vicinity, departed this life on the 8th, after a brief but painful illness and was laid to rest in Moro cemetery Monday afternoon. His death leaves a vacancy in Friendship Baptist church of which he was a very devoted and consistent member. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Fredenburg, and over 30 carriages filled with mourning relatives and sympathising friends and neighbors followed the remains to the grave.

The Sazarac Lying Club postponed its meeting Saturday night, L. K. closed up and everbody took in the genuine darkey show. Some of the songs were very good—but for fear Jones may imagine that the audience was entertained, it is proper to remark that the "performance" was anything but edifying. If those cullud gemlemen propose to keep the road they may thank their stars that science has demonstrated that bad eggs make good cement and they will be more profitable to the public for such purposes than to use them as a means of expressing disapproval of histrionic effort from barnstorming companies.

Judicious advertising pays.

Competition is the life of advertising.

An unknown attempted suicide in Rufus Monday night.

It will pay any man to advertise who deals in something that people want.

Judgment in advertising is just as essential as judgment in buying goods.

Ed Davenport of The Dalles has accepted a position in Scott's store, Sherman.

James Allen was down Monday looking much better than when we last saw him in Grass Valley.

Doug Radley says Ab Woolly's speech had nothing to do with his buying that new buggy and harness

The lamps in School Hall need new wicks and the wings of the stage evidence decay since the days of the Moro Dramatic club

The Dalles-Moro-Antelope stage company have raised a purse to pay for much needed repairs to the bad roads at Cross Hollows.

Hon. B. S. Huntington was in Moro Monday attending a land contest before U. S Commissioner Henrichs, Hawley v. Gilman.

Mrs. E. M. Shutt of Antelope was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hosford Monday evening. The lady was traveling to The Dalles and beyond on a visit.

The Regulator will transfer on the Washington side, over historic ground, a most delightful trip, during high water which now prevents operating the locks.

C. P. Bishop, the prominent merchant and Salem Woolens manufacturer, has opened a branch store in Portland. L. K. Moore handles those goods in Moro.

Remember the entertainment, by the ladies in Moore Bros hall, Friday evening 14th. A good program "An Evening with Longfellow," and an Ice Cream Social.

If you want to buy a good pair of work horses, or two, or three, or a dozen, cheap, call upon or address A. Dillinger, 7 miles south east of Monkland, Sherman county, Or.

Every one who is interested in advertising knows that there are hundreds of articles on sale over the country that would never have been known to the general public had it not been for advertising them.

The locks at the cascades of the Columbia will not be operated so long as the water is above the 32 foot stage. At 1 o'clock Saturday the river was at 33.2 and still rising at the rate of a foot per day, at The Dalles.

That advertising does pay and pay big when given constant business, brainy attention, is proven by the collossal fortunes made, and being made in trade, with advertising recognised as an important and essential factor.

A Salem correspondent speaking of a visit there by Hon. E. B. Dufur, says: "Mr. D. is a lawyer and a democrat—lawyer first, then a democrat. He is a pleasant speaker and as he warms up to the question under discussion becomes eloquent."

In one of his meanderings after beef cattle recently H. A. Page ran across a weasel. The little beauty was chasing after a mouse for a meal. At sight of Mr. Page the slick Simon disappeared, the mouse turned a thank you to Page and the latter rode away.

Heppner in winding up the sheep industry in Morrow county after shearing will ship 75,000 head to eastern slaughter pens. Morrow is driven to the wall with a clip this year valued at $3,500,000—what a consolation that must be to the blankety blank forestry crank.

For sale cheap—one 2 Gang plow Enquire of R. J. Ginn.

Now is the time to get machinery repaired before the rush, at Armsworthy & Co.'s.

If in search of land for a trade, or a home in Moro, call upon Ragsdale & Logan.

You get THE OBSERVER for one year for One Dollar from the date of payment of arrears.

Dr. J. W. Vogel, whose card will be found on the 1st page, will visit Moro the last week in August. His work is guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Parties who have entrusted their watches to T. A VanNordan, The Dalles jeweler, for repairs, speak in terms of praise about the way the work was done and the reasonable rates charged. Mr. VanNorden is an old hand at the business.

For Sale. One span good work horses, weight about 2600; one ¾ steel skein Mitchell truck with rack, one set team harness. The above has been used but little and is as good as new. To be sold at a sacrifice Inquire of Moore Bros., Moro.

THE VETERANS REUNION.

Pretty Close to a Fourth of July Celebration Saturday in Moro.

If Adjutant Parry had ordered weather expressly for the occasion it could not have been nicer than the quality provided for the GAR and WRC reunion and Camp Fire held in Moro Saturday. Business in the city was suspended and every division of the county was represented. Flags and a liberal display of bunting and the happy faces to be seen on all sides, the numerous hacks and carriages of visitors left on the campus, at hitching posts, and in the city barns, told how successful the occasion was, nearly the equal of a right jolly old time home made Fourth of July celebration, enjoyed by everybody and a source of great satisfaction to the survivors in our midst who so materially assisted in saving the union of states in the terrible civil war of 1861-65.

A splendid program was rendered opening in the forenoon with the national anthem, "My Country 'tis of thee," followed by prayer by Chaplain Cochrane, and a stirring Address of Welcome by Sheriff Wm Holder portraying a sterling tribute to the veterans. The balance of the morning exercises were as follows:

Recitation, "Relic of the War," L.D.Pike
Our Soldiers ..... Miss Anna V. Elcock
Song .....
A Flag on every School house. M. Cochrane
"Cover them over," Walter Parry, Arthur ..... Page, Lulu Bolton, Daisy Stanley
Song, "Only a Picture," Miss May Johnson
"We've drank from the same Canteen," J. B. Hosford
Dinner ..... Everybody Welcome

The song by Miss Johnson was a beautiful piece, happily rendered The afternoon exercises opened at 2:30 and were as follows:

Duet by Africans ..... Jones
Response to Address of Welcome ..... B F. Pike
Address by Hon. W. H. Moore, ... Boys of '61 and '97
Incidents of '61 in the Border States, ... J. B. Wheat
Address by Capt. W. Stanly, ... The GAR, its objects, etc.
Instrumental Music ..... Miss Sadie Orr
Toast, GAR ..... Comrade C. C. Kuny
Toast, Our Flag ..... Comrade E. F. Pike
Bivouac of the Dead ..... W. H. Ragsdale
Duet, by Africans ..... Jones
"Who Retook Chake Schneiders' Gun," Comic recital ..... Geo. N. Bolton
Address, "The Womens' Relief Corps, Its Work," etc ..... Mrs. E. F. Pike
"Why I am Bachelor," personal reminiscences ..... Comrade A. B. Wooley
Reminiscences, Comrades Cochrane, Pike, Smith, Johnson, Parry, Kuny.

The addresses by Mr. Moore, Capt Stanly and Mrs. Pike and the Yankee trick played upon Kuny, were interesting and instructive. Since those stirring days of 1861-65 a new generation has appeared upon the stage of action. The young men of '97, as Mr. Moore expressed it are the materials that made soldiers in '61 and when our old soldiers entered the field then they were young like these—the bulwark and defense of the most liberal government that the sun ever shone upon.

Memorial day will be celebrated in Wasco, and all who can go should make it a point to attend. The militia and Womens' Relief Corps will take part in the exercises.
