LASHINGS IN PROGRESS

Colored Man Found Dead Five Miles From Statesboro.

BODY PIERCED BY BULLETS

Two Old Men and a Boy Are Fired Upon in Their Cabin Dark—Lynching Causes Militiamen to Realign.

STATESBORO, Ga., Aug. 17.—One negro found dead by the roadside five miles east of the town, his body pierced by two rifle bullets; two negroes, one of the "old-time darker" and his son, 17 years old, shot in their cabin during the late hours of last night by unknown persons; half a dozen cases of lynchings, such was the history of the day. The scene of excitement has shifted from this city to the rich agricultural region surrounding it. At Riggs Mill, several well-to-do white planters met today and planned to rid their neighborhood of obnoxious negroes. Individual negroes were marked for lashing, and tonight part of the programme is being carried out. Over half the members of the Statesboro Guards, one of the two companies that were guards over the prisoners who were lynched, have asked for their discharges. They severely criticized Captain Hiltch, the commanding officer. Captain Hiltch and Lieutenant Griner have written their resignations. They, too, are very anxious to get away from here. The military mismanagement was also manifested when the officer in command, it is reported, took charge of the local telegraph office and for an hour censored all messages, and some messages were withheld from the wires. About 25 negroes left here today and more will follow tomorrow.

Governor Orders Investigation.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 17.—Governor J. M. Terrell, of Georgia, who arrived here today, sent the following telegram to Adjutant-General S. W. Harris, of the Georgia militia, after he had read the newspaper accounts of the rioting at Statesboro: "Upon arrival here I learned through the press of the occurrence at Statesboro yesterday. Please investigate fully and have report of same ready on my return."

TURNING OUT TO BE MURDER.

Skull of New York Man Discovered in Creek Found to Be Fractured.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Evidence of a mysterious murder have been disclosed by an autopsy held on the body of a man found in Spuyten Duyvil Creek on Monday. Identified at first by the police of the Kingsbridge station as a fellow-prisoner whom the victim had known for ten years, the body was later found to be that of Stephen McCarthy, a real estate agent, who was for several years a Government employe attached to the Appraiser's office in this city. McCarthy, who was at first believed to have met death by drowning, was found to have sustained a fracture of the skull and numerous cuts about the face and head, apparently made with a hatchet. No motive for the murder has been given, although the victim's clothing had been plundered of considerable money and jewelry.

Detectives Trap Go-Between.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—It is a detective working on the Antonio Manno kidnapping case, in Brooklyn, have arrested Salvatore Altadonna, who they assert, has been acting as a go-between for the principals in kidnaping and their families. The prisoner is alleged to have been about to deliver a message to Mrs. Lauduca from her husband, the alleged head of the gang who carried the kidnaping.

Chinese Arrested for Voting.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Notwithstanding scrutiny of the election inspectors the polls, Chinamen have been permitted to vote at elections, according to Joel M. Marx, Assistant United States District Attorney, who has discovered his discoverer, three Chinamen, one of them "Mayor of Chinatown," were arraigned before Commissioner Shields. They waived examination and furnished $500 bail.

Leader Charged With Extortion.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Philip Wetzel, the labor leader, who is at the head of the Union Building Trades strike in this city, was arrested today on a warrant charging extortion. The complainant is George J. Essig, a plumber, and the amount named as extorted is $500.

CONSULS IN HOT WATER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—American Consuls in the wine-producing countries of Europe are getting into hot water through their obedience to the orders of the State Department to make minute reports on the method of preparation and of shipment of wine destined for American consumption. The State Department is acting in this matter at the instance of the Department of Agriculture and of Commerce and Labor, with a view to the enforcement of the anti-adulteration act. The American Consuls have worked with surprising results. It is said, for example, that the extent of the adulteration, and the amount of foreign export wine never before had been appreciated. This activity on the part of the Consuls has engendered a bitter feeling toward them by the foreign wine producers and exporters, and in some instances they have succeeded in making the Consul's stay at the post unpleasant. The State Department will uphold its agents to the full extent, where their personality does not enter into the opposition.

BRAKES FAIL TO HOLD. Trolley-Car Collides With Express Train and Four Are Killed.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Four persons were killed and another fatally hurt and 25 slightly injured in a collision late this afternoon between an express train on the Chicago Great Western Railroad and a train of three trolley cars bound for the Hawthorne road. The trolley cars, owned by Mrs. Frank H. Raitman, were crossing the tracks of the express train at the crossing of Forty-eighth street and the Chicago Great Western tracks. The train was coming into the city and, according to some witnesses, was running at a high rate of speed. Others and the train crew state it was not going over 20 miles an hour.

Just as Train Rounds Curve. The trolley train, which was made up of a motor-car and two trolleys, was in charge of Conductor W. H. Condon and Motorman Michael Ryan. It approached the crossing at a rapid speed just as the train came around a sharp curve. Ryan put on the brakes, but they refused to work. The car struck the train between the engine and the tender. The motor-car was torn to splinters, the car behind it overthrew, smashed nearly to pieces, and dragged along the track for 100 feet. The third car was not dragged from the track, and but for the fact that the couplings between it and the second trolley broke, the last of the injured probably would be larger, as all of the cars were filled with passengers.

Motorman Ryan remained at his post until he was able to get away. To those who came to aid him while he lay on the ground, he said: "The brakes would not work. That's what caused it. When I saw that they would not work I reversed the current. Now get aside and be quiet and I will be all right."

Motorman Has Not Long to Live. Immediately after saying this, Ryan became unconscious. At the hospital it was found that his skull was fractured and death a matter of hours only. The scene of the accident is in the suburbs and it was some time before ambulances and physicians could reach the place, but the uninjured passengers and one physician, together with the crew, did all possible to aid the suffering. All of the persons killed occupied seats in the front of the first car. One woman, unidentified at the morgue, had just taken a seat. She lay rolled under the car and horribly mangled. All the members of the Chicago Great Western train crew and the conductors of the trolley-car were placed under arrest pending an inquiry.

HARD FIGHT FOR JAPANESE. Russian Emergency Force First Drove Them From Wolf's Hill.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Tokyo correspondent of the Times says the capture of the Wolf's Hill, near Port Arthur, entails the most arduous operations. The assault began on July 23, but was driven out by strong Russian resistance. During the night of July 23-24 the Japanese assaulting force was greatly increased, enabling it to attack from the direction of the Wolf's Hill. The position was finally carried. The Russians abandoned two Maxim guns and one 90-pounder. By the evening of July 30 all of the works were in possession of the Japanese, who began to mount siege guns.

HER REPLY UNSATISFACTORY.

China Deals With Chefoo Affair in a General Way in Note to Russia. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 17.—China has replied to the Russian representations regarding the Ryashteln and her reply is couched in general terms, professing friendship and the desire to preserve the strictest neutrality. It explains the Russian demand for the Ryashteln and its ability to protect the Ryashteln and reports that he took all the precautions possible, but could not prevent the night attack. The reply also says that one of the Japanese destroyers was overhauled as she was leaving the harbor, and that a protest was lodged against her action, in view of which the Japanese Captain promised to return the Russian boat, but did not do so. The reply says the Ryashteln's restitution was demanded, but China's reply is considered unsatisfactory.

Information received in St. Petersburg shows that the Japanese will decline to restore the Ryashteln to the Russians. Nevertheless, it is understood that Great Britain, as the ally of Japan, has advised her to apologize. It is believed that the Japanese will accept this course will not follow it, because it would mean a loss of prestige in China, which concession has always been translated to mean weakness.

NOT EXPECTED TO SURRENDER. Russians Say Stoessel in So Doing Would Break Precedent.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 17.—The announcement of the Mikado's offer to allow non-combatants to leave Port Arthur, coupled with the demand for the surrender of the garrison, causes a revision of feeling here. The original military intention had been to permit to depart before the storming operations began was regarded as a humane and considerate act. The War office is without official information of the summons served on General Stoessel, but not the slightest idea exists in military circles that he will yield, so long as food and ammunition are held out, without a slight even to the great defenseless women and other non-combatants from the horrors of bombardment.

CRUISERS HEARD FROM. Russian Vessels Russia and Gromobol Reach Vladivostok.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—A dispatch to the Central News from Vladivostok, dated August 17, says the cruisers Russia and Gromobol, of the Vladivostok squadron, have returned here.

AINSLIE'S, SEPTEMBER.

Ainslie's for September continues the steady progress in quality which is a remarkable feature of this magazine. It is the beginning of a serial, and the publishers have been fortunate in inaugurating this novelty in having a story by Joseph C. Lincoln, who has written "The Booby Man," and Holman F. Day, whose story, "For the Hand of the Widow Johnson," is a lifelike sketch of the downtown Yankee. Other stories equally good are "Letters of an Outsider," by Felicia Goddard; "The Winged Harp," by Kate Masterson; "The Little Blue Rose," by Edith MacVane, a new writer of great promise; "The Doctor," by Frank Slevin; "Mrs. Lawrence's New Maid," by Anne O'Hagan; and "The Metamorphosis of Colin," by Rafael Sabatini. The poetry won for the cause of civilization, of civil liberty and of peace and justice. At this time it is only under the American flag that the people of the islands can preserve the public order, the individual freedom and the material well-being which have come to them as the direct consequence of the deeds of your brothers in arms of a younger generation. The work which has thus been done will not be undone, for the Nation remains true to the memory of your own great deeds. "As the representative of all our people, I bid you Godspeed and send you this expression of the honor and esteem in which the Nation holds the members of the encampment and their comrades throughout the country. "Sincerely yours, "THEODORE ROOSEVELT. "General Wilmon W. Blackmar, 73 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Mass. Adjutant-General Patridge's report showed that the members of the G. A. R. in good standing on June 30, 1904, numbered 196,211, not less during the year of 1903. The loss by death in 1904 was 903, or 1.52 per cent, as compared with 676 in 1903, or 1.53 per cent. According to proposed legislation in the National House of Representatives, an employee would retire after he reaches the age of 70 years. The encampment today adopted resolutions recommending that veterans be exempted from this provision. "Still another convention to be opened today was that of the National Order of the Sons of Veterans at Boston University. For the meeting of the Veterans, Symphony Hall had been elaborately trimmed with bunting and flags and the insignia of the organization had been used along the gallery fronts for tasteful effects.
