WASCO LOCAL ITEMS

Muslin goods at Webbers.

Buy Sandow flour of your grocer.

See those summer hats for 25c at Webbers.

Fresh pies and cakes at the Kandy Kitchen.

Webber wagons at cost. Wasco Commercial Co.

Eggs 25 cents per dozen at Jones and McPherson's

A good iron bed for $2.50 at J. A. Ellis Furniturd Store.

Ernest David, send address immediately to 1002 Jerome. 2-5

Subscribe for the "News" and get World's Fair tour coupons.

J. A. Ellis, the furniture man, is selling a supported bed spring for $2.15.

The ladies are the best judges, they say the best bargains are at Webbers.

Ladies and gents underware and furnishing goods at Jones & MacPhersons.

Get your job work done at this office and don't forget the World's Fair tour coupons.

The rooms over the "News" office are now under the control of Nixon & Gibson.

At the Big Slaughter Sale mens white shirts $1.00 kind 50ct. Reynolds old stand, Wasco.

Fancy brick ice cream—Hazelwood—every Saturday and Sunday at the Kandy Kitchen.

Shirt waists and summer goods are being sold at closing out prices at Jones and MacPhersons.

Have you seen those dressers that J. A. Ellis is making special prices on good bargains while they last.

Miss Bessie VanPelt is now an apprentice at running a typewriter in her uncle, Fred Meader's, office.

We are cutting prices on spring and summer goods in order to close our stock, now is the time to buy. Jones & MacPherson.

Fred Meader's father and mother will soon take up their residence in Wasco. His mother is in Moro this week on a visit.

M. L. Cochran, son of F. F. Crochran, and wife, of Washington, is on a visit to his father, and will remain a couple of weeks.

Before you buy elsewl ere, just step into the big slaughter sale and get prices, it will surprise you. Reynolds old stand Wasco.

Why not be dressed well when you can buy an all wool suit for $7.50 worth 18.00 at the big slaughter sale. Reynolds old stand, Wasco.

On a visit to Moro this week, we found the merchants there doing a big business and all very much pleased with the outlook for an exellent harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McKain moved their household effects out to McDonald station, Monday, where Carl is to have charge one of the W. W. M. Co.'s warehouses this season.

Don't forget that the "News" is giving coupons on the World's Fair tour. Subscribe for your next year's reading. We take subscriptions for any periodical published, and give coupons.

Mrs. Dorah Doop, who has been making her home for the past year and a half with Mr. A. F. Watkins and family, expects to start about September first. for her home in Kansas.

F. F. Crohran, of Monkland district, was in the city Tuesday on a business trip. Mr. Cochran is and old newspaper man and, appreciating the troubles of a county editor, always brings us a few locals.

Mrs. Will Chambers left last Monday with her little daughter Hazel, for Hillsboro, to reside. Mr. Chambers will stay in Wasco for the present. Little Hazel is just recovering from a severe illness, and the change to Hillsboro, their former home, was made in the hopes of benefitting her health.

Muslin goods at Webbers.

Mrs. Glass will visit at Seaside this week.

Tom Striker will start his thresher this week.

Eggs 25 cents per dozen at Jones and McPherson's

Pies, cakes and bread fresh every day. Kandy Kitchen.

John Venable's little boy is sick with typhoid fever.

That line of gents neckwear at Webbers is the real thing.

Geo. Crosfield has been on the sick list this week.

Children's mull hats at the Wasco Commercial Co. at half price.

Peter Fleck sold a bunch of hogs to Miller Bros., last Friday.

Orders for pies and cakes delivered the next day. Kandy Kitchen.

E. D. McKee and Joe Marsh each have put in a new show case in their stores.

The Kandy Kitchen now handles the famous Hazelwood butter. Fresh every day.

The Kandy Kitchen now has the celebrated Lowney's chocolates—the best ever.

Mrs. L. S. Hines and children, returned from Collins the fore part of this week.

Misses Dora and Clara Carson. of Yakima, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Fleck, this week.

Manager Robertson, of the Sandow Milling Co. in Wasco, was taken to the hospital this week.

When you want your house painted to look nice and wear well, see Ellis, he is here to stay, so, is his paint.

Notice the many new advertisements in the "News" this week. You will find something of interest in them.

When you want your house painted to last get J. A. Ellis to do it, he is here to stay, and uses paint that sticks.

See the new ad of Moore Bros. & Ginn's new warehouses this week. They are interesting reading to the farmers.

The finest line of ladies, misses and children jackets ever shown in Wasco will be at Webbers. Wait for our fall opening.

Our Wasco blacksmiths are about the busiest men in town of late; the ring of hammer and anvil being heard at all hours of the night.

"Leah, the Forsaken" and "The Indian" at the opera house next Monday and Tuesday. General admission 25 cents; Reserved seats 50 cents—on sale at Aker's store.

Mrs. Grant Armsworthy left Monday for a visit and outing in the Valley. Her baby has been quite ill for some time, and it is hoped the little one's health will be improved by the change.

Remember, the Margarita Fischer Co. opens the new Wasco opera house with a two-night's engagement, next Monday and Tuesday. The opening play will be "Leah, the Forsaken." For Tuesday night, "The Indian." Get your reserved seats at Chas. Aker's store.

A musical concert and reading will be given at the M. E. church tomorrow (Saturday) evening, by Mr. W. F. Smith, tenor, and Miss Gladys Hartley, of Hood River, accompanied by Miss Kelsey, also of that place. They will be assisted by the best home talent. Admission 50 cents; children 15 cents. Three artists are highly recommended, and are under the auspices of the M. E. church.

Mr. Wash Reynolds, formerly of this place, but now of Yerba City, California, surprised his many friends by suddenly dropping among them Wednesday. He will probably be in town for a month or six weeks, attending to business affairs. Mr. Reynolds reports his wife and family as healthy and enjoying themselves in their California home. He has a young orchard there that he expects to make some money out of when it is old enough to bear. He seems to be very much pleased with California as a place to live, and says that the hottest days this summer, in his locality, has only been about 100 degrees.

Mrs. Joe Marsh came up on Tuesday's train and reports her daughter, Minnie, much improved; she will be confined to the hospital for a couple of weeks longer, but her complete recovery is assured, unless some unexpected complication should arise.

Rev. Father Hickey, who is on his way to Portland, will hold devine services in the hall at Klondike, next Sunday, Aug. 21, at 9 o'clock a. m. He desires to meet all his congregation, as well as all his kind friends, who are interested in the erection of the Catholic church at Wasco. Father Hickey hopes to begin work on the new church this fall.

New Moro
Dental Parlors

A firstclass and strictly up-to-date dental office, located at Moro, Oregon.

Those in need of dental work can secure the very best professional services without going out of the county. We have secured the latest modern appliances known to the profession, for modern dentistry necessary for operative dentistry—gold plates, crowns and bridgework, porcelain crowns and continuous gum work. Also, Nitrous Opide Gas Apparatas.

All Work Guaranteed

and prices as reasonable as possible.

Dr. Floyd D. Idleman.

Notice For Publication.

Land Office at The Dalles, Ore.
August 15, 1904.

Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make commutation in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver at The Dalles, Oregon, on September 27th, 1904, viz:

Charles A. Bartleman of Quinton, Oregon.. H. E. No. 9912 for the S½ SW¼, NW¼SW¼ & SW¼NW¼ Sec. 35, Tp. 3 North, Range 18 E., W. M.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:

Jerry B. Lester, Arthur W. Witchey, William Bartlemay and Alfred Wolverton, all of Quinton, Oregon.

5-10* Michael T. Nolan, Register.

...Wasco Lumber Co...

Dealers in

Lumber Wood Coal Shingles
Lath Adamant Wall Plaster
Lime and Cement.

Builders Hardware of all Descriptions

Doors Windows Paints Oils, etc.

Agent for Genuine Cumberland Blacksmithing Coal.

All kinds of Builders Material always in stock.
ESTIMATES FREE

WASCO MARKET

We handle all kinds of marketable stock in large or small quantities. Also large hogs suitable for feeding.

Meats of all Kinds and of the best quality always in stock. Fish and Game in season.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

COURTEOUS TREATMENT PATRONAGE SOLICITED

Miller Bros., Propr's

Wasco Commercial Store

everything do you need any we sell you can get at lower price than at any other store in town

OILS
Axle Greece
CANNED GOODS

Tin cups given away FREE

Come to US with your orders

WOOD COAL WOOD

WOULD You like to get your winter's fuel at bed-rock prices? You can by sending your order to

W. J. Cross

1002 Union St. The Dalles, Ore.
CARLOAD LOTS A SPECIALTY

GRANT ARMSWORTHY

GENERAL BLACKSMITHING

ALL WORK GUARANTEED

WASCO OREGON