LOCALS

Muriel Kilburn was a week end guest of Virginia Manus in Medford. The girls attended the show Saturday evening.

Billy Leever killed a 185-pound buck last week on Greensprings. His grandfather, Mr. W. C. Leever, says that they have been eating venison ever since.

We saw a couple of prospectors start out Wednesday morning without any bacon in their pack. They stated that they thought the government should grubstake men and send them into the mountains, instead of the CCC and other relief work becnuse they could live cheaper, be healthier and pay more of their own way.

Mrs. Bill Mitchell entertained Sunday with a birthday dinner in honor of Patricia Burgison. Those seated at the table were, Florence, Addie and Ruby Walker, Alice, Edna and Orval Smith, Mr. Pearl Stole, Mrs. Burgison and the honor guest and the hostess. A lovely dinner and a jolly time was the order of thte day.

John Eddy, who has work in Klamath, is unable to work during this bad weather. Will start work on the grader as soon as weather permits.

E. G. Brown from Azalea, who was injured by a swinging log and in the Roseburg hospital, is staying at the Walker home while recuperating.

Double your crop yield by adding lime to your soil. On sale at Faber's Feed Store.

The new Bolder Dam stamp is on sale at the post office.

City Marshal Bert Hedgepeth wishes to announce that the traffic law forbidding the driving of cars at more than 15 miles per hour on streets leading from the school grounds during recess, noon hour or after school, will be strictly enforced. Any student caught breaking this rule will be fined and license or permit revoked.

Mrs. Grigsby's daughter motored down from Medford and took her mother home with her to live. Mrs. Grigsby is confined to her bed most of the time.

Literature on the Estate Heatrola can be had by calling at this office.

Harvey Taylor fell out of a tree at his home and broke his leg recently.

Bear in mind the date of the annual Hallowe'en party to be given by the W. R. C. at the old Walker hall on Tuesday, October 29.

On returning home from Medford recently we found two nice locust trees in our yard, for which we wish to thank Shorty Terrill.

Mr. Flaherty received word from his brother in Los Angeles that his mother had fallen down stairs and broken her arm.

See Stone's Hallowe'en window.

Junior Ayers arrived here from Klamath Falls early Thursday morning and visited Roy Jones and his parents in Jacksonville before returning that evening to Klamath Falls, where he has work.

The students of the high school put out a very creditable little paper this week.

Geraldine Tex will leave Monday to visit relatives in Sacramento and Los Angeles for a few weeks.

O. C. Clary and family have bought the Smith property north of the A. J. Milton home.

S. E. Culbertson and family have moved into the Nellie Simmons house.

Roberta Pankey, who was operated on yesterday morning for appendicitis, is doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. E. C. Faber and Mrs. R. C. Lewis were guests of Mrs. Maynard Putney at the luncheon at the Presbyterian church in Medford Tuesday.

Mrs. Carrie Welsh of Klamath Falls, who has been visiting her daughter in Gold Hill for the past month, spent a few days with Mrs. M. L. Elliott this week.

FOR SALE——Tokay Grapes, 2c a lb. Inquire Marie Lange. Phone 307.

Verne Pendleton and Brownie Ross made a hunting trip to top of the Siskiyous and all they got was wet.

Dr. and Mrs. Heckman returned home from their visit in Pennsylvannia Sunday. They enjoyed a fine trip and come thru Pittsburg, Chattanogua, New Orleans, visited the Catalina Island, San Francisco and then home. They are glad to be back in the Rogue River valley.

Sidney Briston and son who were hunting in Eastern Oregon return home owing to the bad weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Alderson and little daughter Betty Lou motored from Independence in a new De Lux Dodge and spent the wekend with Mrs. Aldrson's mother Mrs. Mollie B. Homes and family Mrs. Alderson was formerly Audrey Holmes.

Mr. Clem Gleason, Mr. E. R. Gleason and Mr. Vaughan enjoyed a very successful pheasant hunt Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ollen and family left Minnesota in the spring and traveled about 6000 miles thru South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana North Dakota, Idaho and Washington before settling here in Central Point.

Bert Peck unfortunately sprained his leg just in time to kep him from his hunting trip.

L. Damon left for Redmond Sunday, where he will harvest his potato crop.

Norman Flarity has joined the C.C.C. but is not sure what camp he will be in at this time.

Mrs. R. E. Hanson accompanied her brother from Medford to Berekeley for a truck load of her furniture Tuesday. Mrs. Hanson and four children have moved to Central Point where the children are attendin school. Mr. Hanson wll arrive later.

Mrs. Lewis Swartz is suffering with the flu.

Jeanne P. Fisher Called by Death

Jeanne Paula Fisher passed away at a local hospital Monday night, after three weeks illness from glandular fever. She was born at New Orleans, La., December 10, 1864. Jeanne Boeringer was married to Lyle M. Fisher, September 27, 1902, at St. Paul, Minn.

She is survved by her husband and one son, William P. Fisher of New Milford, N. J., and one grandson, William, Jr.

The family have been residents of Jackson county for 30 years and in Sams Valley for many years, recently they sold the ranch and moved to Central Point.

Mrs. Fisher was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic church.

Funeral services will be held at the Sacred Heart Catholic church today, Rev. Father Francis Black officiating. Recitation of the Rosary was held at the Perl Funeral Home, Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. Interment will be at the Siskiyou Memorial park.

Miss Aileen Parker Is Wed on Friday

Miss Aileen Parker, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parker of Medford and Howard Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Pickering of Eddyville, Neb., were quietly married at the Christian church parsonage by Rev. Baird on Friday evening, to the surprise of their many friends.

Mrs. Pickering graduated from Medford high school and business college. Mr. and Mrs. Pickering will be at home to their friends at the Trowbridge apartments on West 10th street after a short honeymoon trip on the coast.

Health Unit to Hold Big Sale

The Central Point Health Unit will hold their fall rummage sale Friday and Saturday of this week in the building next to the post office. Any one having articles to donate call Mrs. Ed Vincent. Anything that is still usable, such as clothing, household goods or articles of any kind will be acceptible and appreciated very much.

Standley-Martin Wedding Monday

Miss Irene Standley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Chandler, of Phoenix, and Edward B. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Martin of Medford were united in marriage Monday morning at the home of Rev. E. Iverson, 60 Ross Court, Rev. E. Iverson officiating. The ceremony was performed before relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride was lovely in a gown of turquoise blue and black with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses, and was attended by Della Mast, of Phoenix, who wore dark green, and Mrs. Maynard Putney of Central Point, wearing a dress in gold and brown.

Maynard Putney acted as best man for the groom.

The room were decorated with fall flowers.

Mrs Martin is well known in Phoenix and Medford. She has been employed for some time in the United States Forest Service offices. She graduated from Phoenix high school, later attending business college here and in Los Angeles.

The groom is an employe of the California Oregon Power company now stationed at Hornbrook, where the couple will be at home following their return from a honeymoon trip which will take them to southern California and the San Diego exposition.—Mail Tribune.

No Report Obtainable On Community Chest

We did our utmost to have a report on the Community Chest drive for our readers this week but all we were able to get at this time was the fact that amounts were not to be published yet. Our Central Point district was doing as well as last year with some places to be covered yet.

Before our next issue you will be able to get the report through other channels.

Mrs. Nelson Hostess At Birthday Party

A party was given at the Illihee Orchard October 11, in honor of Mr. and Mrs.'s and Miss Virginia Stimson's birthdays.

The evening was spent in playinng cards and at midnight refreshments were served. Music was furnished by various members of the group. This was enjoyed while the card playing was under-way.

The party was enjoyed by the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stimson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Day, Mr. and Mrs. Arley Walker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Beckman and children, Lucy Grissom, Will Nelson, Edith Vincent, Nellie Grissom, Lawrence Sanderson, Orin Day, Charles Nelson, Marion O'Connor, Lenard Stimson, Kenneth Stimson and the hostess Mrs. Myrtle Nelson.

Little Rosemary Watkins spent Wednesday with her grandparents and enjoyed dinner with Mrs. Jake Myers. She reports that she will be three years old today.

Mrs. Green, who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Swartz, has work out by the Sterling mine.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hogan were guests of Mrs. Hogan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fox.