BAYLESS SELLS RANCH IN G.P.

Vern V. Bayless this week sold his 13 acre grade A dairy ranch in Grants Pass to Henry Irey of Santa Clara, Cal.

Mr. Irey plans to operate a grade A dairy although Bayless has 29 head of beef cattle on the place.

Sale of the ranch is aimed at permitting Vern Bayless to devote more time to his business in Rogue River.

He and his wife plan to immediately stock men's and children's shoes and to later add a line of men's work clothes.

OUR WEATHER

By R.H. Worrall
Times Weather Ed.

During the week ending Jan. 19th, inclusive we have had a touch of the terrific storms that lashed the west coast and raised such havoc with our neighbors in California.

It started snowing Sunday so that by 2 p. m. Monday we had five inches on the ground in Rogue River.

The sun tried to get through and gave it up so at p.m. it started snowing again.

Tuesday and Wednesday were good days except for high clouds and Thursday was clear and cold.

Friday the sun took a another look and gave up again so it started to snow in the evening depositing about another three inches in and near Rogue River by Saturday evening.

Outlying areas, of course, had a much heavier fall especially in the hills around us.

This snow and frozen slush made traffic very bad at times but outside of that we can consider ourselves very fortunate especially in the light of what has happened in Southern California.

Our sympathies are all with them.

Incidentally, our snow fall gave us another 12 hours and 40 minutes of power outage.
