RISTIAN SCIENCE.—The following en handed us by Mr. A. J. Caroth- r publication, and explains itself :

e logical tendency and necessity of e premises of Christian science is to ay with the principles of morality, is really leading to this in several ces. If there be no sin, then we can- n, no matter what we do. If there body, then it matters not what we h our bodies, or other peoples', it is fiction, we have really done nothing. that is real is mind, the divine mind, we may regard our worst thoughts purposes as divine inspirations, and our lusts as religiously as the heath- Hence a leading teacher of the ce could annul her marriage without rce, and contract another without a ony, and regard the whole business as a new idea. This insane delusion needs to go a little farther to cure and prove to the nineteenth century its boasted wisdom is the most stupid gregious folly."

he foregoing is from the Christian Alli- and sets forth Christian Science in its light. All Christians should avoid it ey would rum.]

OKANE FALLS.—Hon F A Watts, in ng from that city, says : "It is cer- y surprising to an Oregonian to see vast amount of building and improve- ts that is going on in this place. In- the fire limits there is a greater num- of buildings under way (or they are vating for) than was destroyed by the And as a rule they will be much er and finer than the ones destroyed. le outside the limits business is spread- n all directions and wooden blocks are g up like magic. Prices on business prospective business property has e than doubled since the fire."

ORTSMEN'S TOURNAMENT.—At a ting of the Corvallis Rod and Gun b, held last Friday evening, a com- tee was appointed to ascertain the ad- bility and otherwise make arrange- nts for the holding of a sportsmen,s rnament in Corvallis at an early date. ler. By all means and Albany will d over some crack shots who will make r best Nimrods look to their laurels.

ICK AT ALBANY.—News was received e this week that Uncle Dave Prine is g dangerously sick at Albany. Re- has is that he is not expected to live, Dr Richardson had frankly told the erer that if he had any business to set- he had better attend to it without de- —that he was liable to die at any mo- nt.—Prineville News.

N INCOMPLETE ITEM.—On the road ding to Corvallis, A H Howard yester- morning met a two-year-old baby, and knowing whose it was took the child to house of Sam'l Gourley, three miles thwest of Albany.—Leader. That nds like a good item; but a DEMOCRAT n who interviewed Mr Gourley, ascer- ed that it was only Mr Gourleys baby taking his regular daily stroll.

HE TAX LEVY.—The County court xed the tax levy at seventeen mills in- d of seventeen and one-tenth mills, as ed yesterday by the DEMOCRAT. This he highest for a number of years, the e amount of bridge building nesessi- g on increase.

OOD BLOOD.—The Altamont stock con- es on its career of victory in the Will- tte, Lady Beach having trotted at Mc- nville last week in 2:27½ and Altao a e-year old, on the same track in 2:29- Pricemont trotted an exhibition heat illsboro in 2:27½.

IED.—Mr F P Nicholls died at his e in Smithland, Iowa on September . Mr Nicholls resided in Albany ral years ago, running one of the s. He was a brother of Mrs H Lamp- n, and there are many here who will et hearing of his death.

NATURAL ARTIST.—A crayon picture n old lady, the work of C H Hart, the se and sign painter, may be seen at ss & Sons. It is a very nice piece of k for an amateur, surpassing the work nany professionals.

XPECTED.—Four car loads of machine- or the woolen mills is now daily ex- ted to arrive from the east. The work the mill is being pushed along with dis- ch.

ONEY TO LOAN.—At a low rate of in- st, on good farm property in Linn nty, or on best improved city property Albany. Apply to Blackburn & Wright, bany, Or ABORERS AND STATION MEN—For k on the O P. railroad Apply to ran & Monteith.

O FARMERS.—Farmers will do well to their fruit, garden or farming lands h Wallace & Cusick.

A LOUD SHOW.—An audience of over two hundred greeted the Mabel Santly Burlesque Opera Co. last evening. It was composed entirely of men during the performance. Just previous to the raising of the curtains a couple women and two children took seats ; but the crowd was so boisterous and loud that they soon left in disgust in time to save a double disgust. The entertainment was a mixture of minstrelsy, song and dance, and burlesque opera. The crowd seemed to demand a high kicking show, and the company, composed of two men and seven women, gave it ; but were really hardly equal to the demands. The audience was the most disorderly ever in the Opera House. Cigarette smoking, hooting, yelling and gags was the order. Some parts of the entertainment were decidedly "rocky," to use a slang but expressive word, not being of a very elevating nature, morally. Such theatrical performances, though, in Portland and San Francisco would probably be tame and not noticed, we don't need in Albany.

NEED FENCES.—The cattle killed by the train wreck belonged to Mr W R Power, and we now learn consisted of two cows and a calf. Another calf was injured and will probably be killed. Monday another calf was killed near the same place, belonging to Mr Power. This looks as if Mr Power might be going out of the stock business. Though the cost would be great it is only a question of time when fences will be built all along the line. The large number of accidents in which stock of different kinds are the cause will necessitate it.

TRAMPS.—Last night was just a fair one for tramps, but Marshal Hoffman succeeded in capturing five. About twenty, more or less, got away and went off on the blind baggage of the California express, following the geese, and that is where we like to have them go. We don't need them here, for they are only on the eat and drink. They are warned to steer clear of Albany, for the Marshal proposes making it "warm" for them and it is nearly time for cleaning the streets of mud.

LAID TO REST.—The funeral of John P. Hall was largely attended this forenoon at the U. P. Church. The ceremony was an impressive one, and a just tribute was paid to an exemplary young man. Messrs. T. J. Overman, Floyd Dorris, Van Wilson, Percy Kelley, Ed Blodgett, Ed Crossen, Elliot Irvine and Carlton Sox acted as pall bearers. It is now learned that the immediate cause of Johnny's death was heart disease, with which he had been affected.

THE WRECK.—The ill-fated engine, tender, mail car and two other cars, wrecked at Halsey, were taken through Albany to-day for Portland for repairs. A piece of the engineer's cab was left at the baggage room at the depot. As it was the largest piece left an idea of the shock may be obtained from looking at it.

NOT DOG DAYS.—Yesterday A D Barker's bobtail dog got locked in a box car and was taken to Portland, thinking probably that with their numerous other days the Industrial fair also had a dog day ; but dog days ended over a month ago. His return is anxiously awaited at the depot.

OUT A BUCKBOARD.—On Wednesday of this week B Isenhoot entered suit against A Senders in Justice Luckey's court for the possession of a buckboard, says the Prineville News. The buckboard was taken out of the county by Allen Henry and sold to Senders. The vehicle was awarded to Isenhoot.

HE LEARNED HOW.—Answering advertising schemes in eastern papers is very seldom prolific of profit. An Astoria man recently sent fifty cents to a New York advertiser to learn "how to make money fast." He was advised to glue a $5 bill to the bottom of his trunk.

WOOD TURNING.—Richards & Phillips have opened a general wood turning establishment at the Cherry & Parkes foundry, and are prepared to do plain and fancy work of all kinds. Those desiring any thing in their line should give them a call. They can depend on prompt attention to orders and first-class work. The DEMOCRAT unhesitatingly recommends them as reliable workmen.

DON'T FRET.—Just keep cool, call at the Willamette Packing Co's store and leave your order for a Sunday chicken and several other nice things to go with it, and the thing is done, no matter who happens to eat with you.

TANGENT.

Last Saturday the band boys dressed in uniform and with their instruments in hand boarded the evening train for the purpose of serenading their former teacher, Prof Sibbits, at Junction City. The Prof was taken completely by surprise, and right royally did he entertain them during their stay.

E L Bryan has sold his farm adjoining Tangent to A C Ohling.

Rev. Hourd, of Weston, son of the pastor of the church at this place, filled the pulpit last Sunday in his father's place, preaching a very able sermon from the 17 verse of the 5 chapter of 2nd Corinthians.

The question has been raised here as to which is the greatest wrong, the killing of Chinese pheasants or playing croquet nearly all of one's time.

Quite a number are going from this vicinity to the Mechanics Fair at Portland.

Master George Thomas, of Portland, has been visiting relatives in and around Tangent for several days.

The familiar face of Squire Maine of Newport has been seen on our streets this week. He said that Newport was looming. Of course it would look that way to a man who had prospects upon a hill.

The public school is progressing under the able management of Prof Mitchner, there being 60 pupils enrolled and others to come.

Several changes have taken place here this fall.

E L Bryan having held the office of S. S. Superintendent and school director, now living in Corvallis, left two vacancies, the Sunday school filling one by electing J B McFarland Superintendent. Mr Editor, is it not the duty of the remaining two directors of a school district, when a vacancy is made in the board, to call a special meeting to fill the vacancy.

The welcome rain has come at last in copious showers and the farmers are happy.

Wild geese and ducks can be seen almost anywhere now.

THE PENITENTIARY.—G. S. Downing, superintendent of the penitentiary, has filed with the secretary of state his report for the quarter ending September 30. The total expenditures were $9339.05, and the total earnings of prison labor and receipts from rental of property, $6827. A pay roll of $3998.66 was included in the expenditures. Daily average number of quarter, 293, of quarter ending June 30, 305. Twenty prisoners were received, thirty-two discharged, and three commuted. Twenty-eight officers and guards were required in the conduct of the prison. Of the 290 prisoners, 209 were employed by contractors, sixty-eight in and about penitentiary work, and 18 were sick, aged, or decrepit.

A NEW MARBLE SHOP.—Mr. S. A. Riggs, of Salem, has rented the property adjoining the DEMOCRAT office and will open a branch marble shop within a week or two.
