LOCAL RECORD

A LICENSE REQUIRED.—The law for selling patent medicines on the streets of the cities of Oregon, should be strictly enforced. The law is a good one, and in many places the officials are realizing the fact by demanding a sight of a license whenever a traveling troupe appears. The following from the Ashland Tidings is a sample of the restraining effect of the law: "Two men and two ladies who have been giving patent medicine concerts at the towns in California, stopped in Ashland last week, but did not like the Oregon laws regarding license for selling patent medicines and therfore did not open business here.

COUNTERFEIT TWOS.—Look out in the silver for the counterfeit two dollar bills. They are an excellent imitation of the genuine. There is one infallible way to test them and other United States paper money. Take a pin or a needle and run under the silk fibre that is scattered through the paper of the bill. If with the pin you can pull up the thread so it is plainly visible, then you can take that money for the face of it. The counterfeit twos are silver certificates.—Ex. Few people are going to spend their time picking threads out of paper money. If the money doesn't give itself away at a glance there is no use "monkeying" with it.

COMPLETED.—The new and elegant O P ticket office at this city is completed. It rears itself ten or twelve feet just south of the O P depot towards the heavens. The structure is a handsome one 11x14 feet including the front porch, and is painted in four colors, and is of quite modern architecture. As heretofore the Southern Pacific depot will be used as a waiting-room, etc., and right here we would like to remark that for its own use the lady's waiting-room is about a fifth of the size it ought to be.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.—Robert M Shoecraft, a newspaper writer well known in Western Washington, committed suicide by morphine in his lodgings in Tacoma at an early hour Friday morning. He wrote a bitter letter to his father just before taking the fatal dose, denouncing the latter as having ruined the 'last vestige of his son's reputation. The father is a prominent real estate man of Olympia. Shoecraft was in Albany a few weeks ago looking for a job. Our impression was that he partook of the cup that inebriates too much for his own good.

SKIPPED.—After receiving $250 for work on the Lebanon school building and $256 for work on the Presbyterian church of this city, Claud Reed and Charles Watts, two painters, left this city for parts unknown, leaving a bill amounting to $407 due Price & Robson, for material used. As the owners of the property are responsible for the extent of the material used, that firm filed a lien on the Presbyterian church and Lebanon school building. Property owners should always see that the material is paid for in such cases. This same game has been played in Albany several times before.

THE JEFFERSON MILLS.—Tuesday evening of this week Ed. Goin, of Scio, received a letter from Corbett & Macleay, of Portland, in which they proposed to rent The Jefferson Fouring Mills to Mr Goin for one year Mr Goin immediately came to this city and succeeded in enlisting Mr E N Thomas in a co partnership to take charge of the mill and run it for one year. An answer was immediately sent in which an offer was made, and it is more than likely it will be accepted.—Review.

A BIG ORDER.—Powell & Co. have received an order for ten car loads of potatoes to be shipped to Kansas. That is a big order but it will be filled. Any one having potatoes will now know of a sure puchaser. This firm, by the way is going sort of a wholesale business generally, their trade is increasing at a rapid rate.

A SUCCESS.—One of the most successful socials of the season was given last evening at the M. E. parsonage by the Young Peoples' Alliance, about thirty-five young people being present. The evening was spent very pleasantly in games, music, etc., and a nice lunch of ice cream and cake was served.

LOST.—A small gold pin, shape of pyramid, monogram in center and letters G H S on corners, Please return to the DEMOCRAT office.

DON'T RUN AROUND.—Every steamer, however foggy the bar, brings to Albany an immense quantity of fruits and produce. The best and largest variety always goes to Powell & Co's. Their stands are always full of just such things as the public wants. Save running around by calling at their store first.

NEW embroideries, flouncings, lace edging in cotton and silk, black and cream. Laces in imitation point, also new designs in black and white lace, including Medyek and Eifel Tower. New ruchings.
SAMUEL E YOUNG.

FINE PEACHES.—The finest lot of Ashland peaches ever brought to this city are received by Mulkey & Garrett to-day. Parties wishing to preserve peaches can get choice fruit at bottom prices, all early and receive the best.

BUILDING.—The ground is being excavated at the corner of Second and Lyon Streets for Mr Jason Wheeler's new brick. It is to be 50x100 feet, two stories high and of a neat architecture. The location is a good one, one that will gradually improve.

The Baltimore block is up one story. The stories will be 25 feet wide, large commodious rooms, and the building three stories high. The plans indicate that it will be one of the handsomest structures in Albany.

The Oregon Bank building is now fronted by a neat cement walk. Work is progressing on the counters and interior work. It will probably be Oct 1st before it will be occupied.

New residences are being begun every day almost, and of an attractive architecture. So many large, fine looking buildings have never been erected in a single year before.

HONEST PEOPLE.—A gentleman, who is recently from Kansas, was heard to remark a few days ago to one of Oregon's farmers, that it was a surprise to him that farmers could leave their grain sacked up out in the field without it being stolen. He said, "If a man should leave his grain out in the field one night in Kansas, it would all be gone before morning. Not that the people are dishonest, but that poverty drove them to such deeds." Farmers leave their grain out in the field all over the valley, sometimes for weeks, and it is a rare thing that a sack of grain is ever molested.—Journal.

THERE is one man in Oregon who can fight against odds and is not easily discouraged. The Eugene Guard says: "Mr Goodenough, of the real estate firm of Leinenweber & Goodenough, of Astoria, was in Eugene Saturday advertising Astoria city and suburban property. He engaged the Junction band and they furnished music in the afternoon and evening. He sold but four lots, the stringency of the money market being unfavorable to real estate transactions."

A POPULAR TUNE.—The Salvation Army has adopted the tune of "Little Annie Rooney" to the work of the salvation of sinners. The familiar words of "She's my sweetheart, I'm her beau; She's my Annie, I'm her Joe," has been translated for the purpose of the army to read: "He's my Jesus, He's my Lord; He's my Savior, He's my God." Some people may have an idea that this is a bit sacrilegious, but the army believes in "anything to save sinners" and so "everything goes."—Baker City Reveille.

A SMALL STRIKE.—When work commenced yesterday morning on the big bridge it was with a dozen new hands, that many of the old force the evening before having struck for better pay, and not having met with a favorable response to their request they quit work and new men were found for their places. The wages paid laborers by the bridge contractors are from $2 50 to 3 50 per day.—Statesman.

SAW A BALLOON.—Miss A Macauley informs us that on last Friday night at about 9 o'clock she saw a balloon pass over Independence, coming from toward Albany and floating off towards the coast. It was quite high, but the light from the fire beneath it attracted her attention.—Independence West Side. No one here knows anything about it.

A THING OF BEAUTY.—The art studio formerly kept by W H Greenwood, has been renovated and refitted in such a neat way as to make it "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." New furniture, new scenery, new appliances of the latest and most approved kind. The very best artistic work of the day can be had of the photographers, Wilcox & Conn on the most reasonable terms. Do not fail to call and view the new arrangement as they are highly pleasing.

LARGEST IN THE VALLEY.—Will & Stark have received the largest and finest display of silver ware in the valley, as their elegant display of novelties in the line will testify. They invite the public to call at their store and see their fine metropolitan stock.

L. SENDERS.

CALL AND SETTLE.—Those knowing themselves indebted to the old firm of Krausse & Klein, will please call and settle at once.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

"This is the meanest town I was ever in," said an old gentleman to the Man About Town. We expect he was right from his stand point, for he spent the entire day trying to sell a corn cure without success. No one would buy, though the medicine was a sure cure, and nearly everybody has corns. He couldn't see through it. Strange too, for everybody bought Texas Tom's stuff by the wholesale, and Dr Berry's catarrh cure that is about as valuable as ice sand on the sea shore. Sometimes people are very suspicious, but not always just at the most opportune time.

For instance, the few young painters should have been suspected a few hours sooner; but their faces were in their favor, and people supposed they were out here to grow up with the country.

It is about time for more railroad rumors, and how easily made. It now transpires that Col Hogg and party were not in San Francisco at all recently as reported. The result is people are getting so they won't believe anything until they put their finger on it.

"I won't work for anybody for less than so and so a day," said a carpenter. As the price was more than was being paid of course he did not work much; but run in debt for his living and spent his time in idleness, his wife doing most of the supporting. The Man About Town would like to help boost a few such men. The deserving man is going to work at some price, the best he can get, and doesn't boast around about how he won' do this and that, as his services are worth that or not anything. There is too much of this lazy, codfish spirit around.

The Man About Town soon expects to be able to give little items like this from a Baker City paper: "A lot of handsome gold nuggets were on exhibition yesterday at the First National bank. They were found on the Middle Fork of the John Day by E M Smyles, and were worth $850. The largest was worth $270, while the next in size was valued at $265."

The Man About Town noticed a woman with a child in her arms soliciting alms. A card stated that she was a widow with three children and could not speak our language. We know nothing about this case, but in nine cases out of ten like it, there is a screw loose somewhere. A few days ago one of the stranded members of the Chicago Comedy Co. solicited alms through the city, in order to secure enough money to get to San Francisco, and it is getting so people do it as a matter of course. It is always well to know something about what you are doing before complying with requests for aid.

Just Received for the Fall and Winter.

To tell the truth, the stock of suitings in the tailoring department of L E Blain, is a large one, and entirely new. It has just been received for the fall and winter trade, the remanants of light weights having been placed aside. The new stock embraces a variety of designs in imported and domestic goods that is a credit to the city. The present styles are very attractive, and a big field is offerred for a man to dress well, which is what the progressive citizen does. Mr E A Schiffler, who is superintendent of this department, is an expert at the business, and a suit made under him is assurred a perfect fit, which is always guaranteed. The progress being made in tailoring is well exemplified in the manner in which Mr Schiffler conducts this department, and a larger stock and bigger variety of goods is being carried for customers to select from than ever before.

TO THE PARENTS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN.—Klein Bros wish you all to know that they have just received a large invoice of the celebrated C M Henderson's Red School House shoes, in heel and spring heel, and every pair warranted to be solid sole leather counters and insoles. EVERYBODY SAYS SO.—If the wild waves could talk they would say, "Go to Powell & Co's for groceries and produce, for their stock is large, their prices low and quality the best." This is the universal verdict of their customers.

A VOICE FROM PORTLAND.

A Lady Relates two Astonishing Experiences.

To whom it may concern: I have tried almost every conceivable remedy for kidney complaint during the past five years as I am of a bilious temperament and suffer much from stomach and liver troubles. But nothing ever gave me the relief that I obtained from using Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. In fact I think it cures for those ailments. At the time I was using it I had a little girl living in my family whose neck was seriously affected by a large open sore, and we tried a great many kinds of lotions, salves and blood purifiers to no avail. I gave her some of my medicine (Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla) thinking it might benefit her and as it was purely vegetable, knew it could do her no harm. To my astonishment she began to improve, and within two weeks it was entirely healed and she is now as well as ever.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS!

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW,

SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 6th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in a manner that I was laid over. When I was able it was almost impossible for me to get up, or to put on my clothes, when I procured and used Dr. Healey, with his celebrated KIDNEY TEA, to my joy. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the people in the town, in a few days I was happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all sufferers as I have been.

MR. Z. T. WRIGHT,
Portland, Oregon,

Dear Sir: In reference to your inquiry as to how I liked my Advance Thresher, purchased of you this year, will say the Advance does more and better work than any other machine I ever saw, and I have seen all that are represented in Oregon

It threshes faster, cleans the grain better, runs lighter and saves the grain better from the straw, than any other machine, and seems to be strong and durable. I am ready at any time to go into a trial with any other machine [except the Advance] and thresh for from $100 to $500. They are the best in the market without doubt. If you desire you can refer to me at any and all times.
