Daily Democrat.

The Pendleton E. O., of Monday, says: "A rumor has reached Pendleton of exciting times on the Oregon Short Line, resulting from the murder of a brakeman by four tramps. Near Glenn's Ferry the tramps boarded a freight train, and were bounced by the head brakeman. They afterward got on the train again, and overpowered the brakeman and, whom they threw under the train. Both of his legs were crushed and he died shortly afterwards from the effects of his injuries. The tramps were caught near Huntington and three of them were lynched by the angry railroaders. The fourth escaped."

DISEASES OF MEN!

Peculiar to their Sex, and not proper to name here, including all those delicate Infirmities and Weaknesses, which they would shrink from disclosing to their family physician, permanently cured in less time than was ever known to Medicine before, by Dr Boxell's "New System of Treatment."
