Daily Democrat.

The other day while D M French and Mike Keating were joining sewer pipe an accident occurred which nearly caused the loss of Tink's optics, and which occasioned a mournful surprise party. Tink was absent for a time, and Mike stuffed a piece of pipe with wet rags. When Tink began to manipulate the melted lead it came in contact with the rags and exploded, scattering in all directions. His head was badly burned and several small pieces of lead have been removed from his eyes. He was confined to the house for two days.—Pendleton E O.

Our poet:

My dear, said she, when you go out
Be sure to send me some sauer kraut,
You'll find it good at M. & G.'s,
Who also keep that fine Swiss cheese,
Chow chow, pickles and mackeral "off shore,"
You'll find displayed at their front door;
Teas, coffees, spices and sugars without sand.
For cash they are selling cheaper
Than any other stand.
Their clerks are kind and pleasant,
And greet you with a smile;
And as for waiting on you
Its just in first-class style.
