EUGENE A SEAPORT.—If the young man who is writing the "boom telegrams" for the Oregonian from Eugene City would only take the trouble to study up matters on which he writes, his statements would carry more weight. When he writes about Eugene securing a deep sea outlet by building a road to the Siuslaw, he displays about as much ignorance as Nat Cole, of the late Portland News, did when he wrote a double-leaded editorial about coasting schooners loading wheat at Walla Walla. Eugene is a good town and when she is looking for a deep sea outlet, her citizens are smart enough to know that Astoria or San Francisco are the only places they can reach.—Astoria Bulletin.

HYPNOTISM.—This subject, which is now attracting such wide-spread attention, and about which there is such a difference of opinion, is considered practically in No 3, of the Fowler & Wells library, under the title of, How to Magnetise, or Mesmerism and Clairvoyance, a practical treatise on the choice, management and capabilities of subjects, with instructions on the manner of procedure, by James Victor Wilson. Price, 25 cents; address, Fowler & Wells, 775 Broadway, New York City, N. Y.

"August Flower"

I had been troubled five months with Dyspepsia. The doctors told me it was chronic. I had a fullness after eating and a heavy load in the pit of my stomach. I suffered frequently from a Water Brash of clear matter. Sometimes a deathly Sickness at the Stomach would overtake me. Then again I would have the terrible pains of Wind Colic. At such times I would try to belch and could not. I was working then for Thomas McHenry, Druggist, Cor. Irwin and Western Ave., Allegheny City, Pa., in whose employ I had been for seven years. Finally I used August Flower, and after using just one bottle for two weeks, was entirely relieved of all the trouble. I can now eat things I dared not touch before. I would like to refer you to Mr. McHenry, for whom I worked, who knows all about my condition, and from whom I bought the medicine. I live with my wife and family at 39 James St., Allegheny City, Pa. Signed, JOHN D. COX.

MORTAR-SPOTTED SKIN

Covered with Scales. Awful Spectacle. Cured in Five Weeks by the Cuticura Remedies.

About the 1st of April last I noticed some red pimples like rooting out all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later on, when it began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and would come off in layers accompanied with itching. I would scratch every night until I was raw, and the next night the same process would go on, meanwhile was growing worse and worse all the time. In vain did I consult the doctors in the county, but without aid. After giving up hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your Cuticura Remedies, and purchased them from my druggist, and with almost immediate relief. I have to notice that the scaly crust gradually dropped off and I disappeared one by one, until I had been fully cured. I had the disease thirteen months before I began taking the Remedies, and in four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis of a great many who have taken the Remedies, and think me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babies with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express my thanks to you. My body was covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as clear as a baby's.
GEO. COTEY, Merrill, Wis.
