TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

Edited by Albany W. C. T. U

The membership of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the United States, for 1890, as shown by the treasurer's report, was 149,527. In addition there were 14,970 honoraries; 20,212 members of the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and 135,240 children in the Loyal Temperance Legions, making a total of 320,149.

The first petition for prohibition in this country came from Passaconaway, chief of the Penacooks, who lived on the Merrimac. He was a sagacious ruler, and seeing the demoralizing effect of drink upon his 3000 braves, besought the English government not to sell them fire-water. In 1668 an English "trucking house" was opened among the Penacooks, and the "drunken Indian" became so numerous that a delegation of chiefs journeyed to Piscataqua to enter their protest in person against the sale of spirituous liquors to their tribe.

Down south, since the national convention, even the birds have taken up the song, "The Saloons must go." A parrot on a veranda near the church where the children rehearsed their "Marching Songs," for the convention, caught the patriotic refrain, and still sings to passersby, "Saloons, saloons, saloons must go-o."—W C T U Bulletin.

The evangelists, Messrs. Crittenton and Carpenter, have been conducting revival services in Oakland, the last few weeks, with marked success. About 150 have been converted, many reformed men among the number. The W C T U has co-operated in these meetings, helping thereby to assist in throwing around these men an influence which will enable them to stand firm.

San Francisco cannot be said to be awake to the evils of intemperance, but her eye lids are trembling, and by and by she will be aroused, for the dynamite of truth is being placed under her. The police commission has refused to license certain low dives for the sale of liquor, and they had to close up. Some tried to defy the authorities and sell without a license, but were arrested and fined.

A SCROFULOUS BOY

Running Sores Covered His Body and Head. Hands Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When six months old, the left hand of our little grandchild began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but it grew worse. About five months after it began running sore. Soon other sores formed. He had two of them on his head, and as he grew came more and more like it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the lower lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid sore, discharging a great deal. He was his condition at over two months old, when we undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than two weeks old, of consumption (in advanced stage). He could walk a little, but could not stand alone. If he fell down, he could not rise without help, having no use of his hands. I commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and finally. One sore after another healed, a healthy scarring in each one of these five deep sores before healing, which would finally grow out and were taken out; then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I present. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. MRS. E. S. DILLON, May 9, 1888. 612 E. Clay St., Bloomington, Ill.

My grandson remains perfectly well. No sign of scrofula and no sores. MRS. E. S. DILLON. Feb. 7, 1890. Bloomington, Ill.

"German Syrup"

For Coughs & Colds.

John F. Jones, Edom, Tex., writes: I have used German Syrup for the past six years, for Sore Throat, Cough, Colds, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine—German Syrup is the best.

B. W. Baldwin, Carnesville, Tenn., writes: I have used your German Syrup in my family, and find it the best medicine I ever tried for coughs and colds. I recommend it to everyone for these troubles.

R. Schmallhausen, Druggist, of Charleston, Ill., writes: After trying scores of prescriptions and preparations I had on my files and shelves, without relief for a very severe cold, which had settled on my lungs, I tried your German Syrup. It gave me immediate relief and a permanent cure.

FAIR WARNING.

Sheriff Scott Does Not Want the World, but he Must Have the Delinquent Taxes.

Sheriff Scott proposes to make it warm for delinquent tax payers unless they settle at once. The following notice has been published several weeks; but it does not work as effectively as it should:

By order of the County Court I am directed to force the collection of all taxes standing unpaid on the assessment rolls of this county. If such taxes are not paid immediately I shall proceed to levy upon and sell the property of delinquents to make collection. I mean business.

M. SCOTT,
Sheriff of Linn county

Now he proposes to enforce the collection of all unpaid taxes, which, though not the pleasantest business in the world, must be done. Delinquents should come to time and pay up, thereby avoiding legal proceedings, as provided by the laws of Oregon. This is positively the last call. Look out for the explosion of the bomb.
