WEATHER REPORT.

OREGON WEATHER BUREAU. CENTRAL OFFICE, PORTLAND, OREGON. CROP-WEATHER BULLETIN NO. 15, FOR THE WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, JUNE 20, 1891.

In western Oregon the weather has been cloudy with little sunshine. General rains have fallen the whole week amounting from 1 to 2½ inches. The temperature has been from one to two degrees a day below the average. Light frost on the morning of the 16th in sections of Polk county; no injury done. Some hail has fallen in the northern part, but no injury is reported.

Heavy rains have hindered hay making. Fall wheat has lodged to some extent and clover is injured. Spring sown crops are generally doing well, though sunshine and warm weather are greatly needed. Cherries are suffering from rain, in some places rotting on the trees. Although the weather has been too cool and rainy crops in general, with the exception of hay, are doing well. The hop louse is prevalent in Marion and Polk counties, but the crop is growing finely.

In eastern Oregon the temperature was generally below the average. There was a light rain about Walla Walla on Tuesday, and general rains in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, Morrow, Umatilla, Union and Wallowa counties, and south of the Blue mountains.

The rain was of great benefit to wheat. Hay has been injured to some extent. The acreage of wheat in Union, Umatilla and Walla Walla counties, has been increased twenty per cent.

A SCROFULOUS BOY

Running Sores Covered His Body and Head. Bones Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When six months old, the left hand of our little grandchild began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. The child had two of them on his head, and as his blood became more and more impure it took less time for these to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid sore, discharging a great deal. Such was his condition at the age of two months old, when we undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than two weeks old, of consumption (we believe of course). He could walk a little, but could not move his hands, owing to use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using them freely. One sore after another healed, so that no matter breaking in each one of those five deep sores just before healing, which would finally grow dry and were taken out; then they would heal up. One of these ugly bone formations I presume. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was perfectly cured, and is now, at the age of six years, strong and healthy child. MRS. E. S. DRIGGS, MAY 9, 1885. 612 E. Clay St., Bloomington, Ill.

My grandson remains perfectly well. No sign of scrofula nor no sores. MRS. E. S. DRIGGS, FEB. 7, 1890. Bloomington, Ill.

FAIR WARNING.

Sheriff Scott Does Not Want the World, but he Must Have the Delinquent Taxes.

Sheriff Scott proposes to make it warm for delinquent tax payers unless they settle at once. The following notice has been published several weeks; but it does not work as effectively as it should:

By order of the County Court I am directed to force the collecion of all taxes standing unpaid on the assessment rolls of this county. If such taxes are not paid immediately I shall proceed to levy upon and sell he property of delinquents to make collection. I mean business.

M. SCOTT.
Sheriff of Linn county

Now he proposes to enforce the collection of all unpaid taxes, which, though not the pleasantest business in the world, must be done. Delinquents should come to time and pay up, thereby avoiding legal proceedings, as provided by the laws of Oregon. This is positively the last call. Look out for the explosion of the bomb.

$500 Reward!

We will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Costiveness we cannot cure with West's Vegetable Liver Pills, when the directions are strictly complied with. These pills are purely vegetable, and never fail to give perfect satisfaction. Large boxes, containing 30 doses, 25 cents. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.
