CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

GOOD EVENING

Read Locals on 4th page.

WHY NAMED.—The Independence West Side says: How many of our readers know the origin of the name "Long Tom," given to that stream emptying into the Willamette south of Corvallis? It originated thus: A party coming from California to Oregon in 1844, had in company a long, slim Irishman nicknamed Long Tom. One morning, performing his ablutions on that stream, he fell in and got a good ducking. Afterwards, any of the party referring to that stream, called it the Long Tom. This is the origin of the name. Soap creek derived its name from the old bachelors living in that section in 1845, from their being destitute of soap for the washing of their clothing. Among these bachelors were Kit Zumaet, David Stump and "Picayune" Osborn.

A LINN COUNTY HORSE.—Delco, oldest son of Oneco, of this county, now owned by Wm Hogaboom, of Walla Walla, did some fine work at Salt Lake City. He won the free for all trotting race in the three last heats, it having taken seven to decide it. The time made in the heats won was 2:26, 2:26 and 2:27¼. It was the finest race ever trotted in Utah. Delco also had another exciting contest with James F, a match race for $250 aside, and was the winner of the first heat in 2:25, and won the last two of the five and race, in 2:28¼ and 2:27½. Delco is now at Walla Walla, and will be trained for next year.

A PROMPT COMPANY.—Will Ulrich, of Medford, district agent of the Farmers and Mechanic's Insurance Company of Albany, was here this week to adjust the loss sustained by J A Cox of the burning of his Oak Creek store last week. The amount of insurance, $1000, was allowed without a kick and paid in full. "That's the kind of company to do business with," says L D Carll, the agent.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

GOOD FINANCIERING.—Some time ago one of D L Patee's horses fell into a well forty feet deep, and was given up for dead, but it would have cost about $40 to dig another well, so Mr Patee concluded to undertake the job of getting the horse out. He and A W Powers constructed a windless and drew the horse out and found that he had sustained no material injuries by the fall.—Ochoco Review.

PHILIP PHILLIPS.—Those fortunate in hearing Philip Phillips last evening in his chariot of songs, were given a treat. His singing, as everybody knows is wonderful. The scenes presented are very attractive, and as well instructive. Tonight he will take his audience through Europe, and there should be a large audience to go with him.

CROOK COUNTY GOLD.—Straud Price came to town from his Camp creek ranch on Monday. He exhibited some gold and silver buttons that were assayed from rock taken from a ledge on his place. Mr Price says that the mine assays all the way from $30 to $160 to the ton in gold, and a portion of the ledge is also very rich in silver.—News.

RESIGNED.—We understand that Shannon Conser has resigned his position with the S P R R, his leg incapacitating him from any kind of labor. He will likely sue the company in a few days to recover damages.—Guard.

PIANO RECITAL Friday evening of this week, by the pupils of Prof E G Lorillard. The object of these recitals is to show the progress of the pupils, and as the majority of those taking part are well advanced an interesting program may be expected.

TO-NIGHT.—The regular meeting of St Johns lodge, No 62, A F & A M, will convene at the Masonic Temple this evening. Come and hear the good things which may be said. By order of F E Allen, W M, O P Coshow, Sec.

A EUGENE AFFAIR.—The Eugene Guard has the following about a well known Albany young man: "Considerable excitement was caused about 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening by a couple of pistol shots at the house situated on the corner of Oak and 7th streets. It seems that Jimmy Fennell, a sporting youth of the tin-horn persuasion, had been caught in a very questionable transaction and had concluded to skip the town. He went to the house in question for his clothing, and while there had an altercation with the woman with whom he has been associating. He struck her, and she drew a revolver and fired at him, making a miss. About that time Nightwatch Witter came along and seeing Fennell in flight, called on him to stop, and to enforce the order fired into the air. Fennell stopped and was taken in charge by Witter and locked up. He gave bail in the sum of $20 to answer the charge of disorderly conduct this morning, but concluded that his presence was no longer desired in Eugene, wisely took the precaution to forfeit bail and skipped on the Monday morning overland train."

THE REFORM SCHOOL.—Listen, boys. An Athena boy was sent to the reform school last week for not minding his mamma. He was naughty. The reform school is a prison.—Athena Republican. No; the reform school is not a prison. It is an elegant and comfortable home, with a large school room nicely furnished with folding desks. Boys sent there must stay there and study and be punctual and well behaved—but it is not a prison.—Statesman. It is the kind of a place several Linn county boys might improve in as well as Athena boys.

SPANISH STUDENTS.—The famous Spanish Students will appear Thursday at the Albany opera house. Admission 50 cents; reserved seats, 75 cents. The Oregonian of Saturday says of the troupe: Rengifa's Spanish students made a hit in their first appearance at French's Park theatre last night. They were greeted by a good house and the entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The selection played covered a wide range in music.

Mrs Abigail Scott Duniway will again be heard from. She is to start a purely weekly literary publication in Portland. We'll wager the literature will run to woman's rights so fiercely as to characterize it. Mrs D. is not a popular woman in Oregon, if the writer is any judge, though, she is a "smart" one.

Mr U G Hayne, the sewer man, left this noon for Boise City, to bid on some sewer work there. That city is to put in $50,000 worth of sewers, the city having been bonded for it. The city furnishes the pipes and contractors bid on the labor. Mr J G Kelly, of Eugene, also left for that city a day or two ago, on the same mission.

Hon A Hackleman arrived here last Tuesday from Albany, bringing with him a fine trotting stallion, Alwood Breeze, which he will put on his Camp creek stock farm for breeding purposes. He crossed the Cascade mountains by the Santiam route and found no snow on the mountains, though heavy rains were falling and the roads were very muddy.—Review.

Rehearsal of Belshazzar tonight in the College building. Let all participants be present as a date for presentation must be fixed.

Z T Wright was fined $5 and costs in Roseburg, for being drunk. It is not necessary to state that this was not Portland's well known prohibitionist.

It is actually economy to drink Beech's Tea. Being absolutely pure, it is much stronger than the artificial teas, about one third less of it, or about twenty grains, being required per cup. As there are 7,680 grains to a pound, there will be seen to be between three and four hundred cups to the pound. As it is but 60 cents per pound, this is at the rate of about one fifth of a cent per cup. For sale at Allen Bros.
