A NEW PRINCIPAL.—At a meeting of the board of trustees this forenoon Prof J B Horner resigned as Principal of the public school of Albany, and W J Crawford was elected at the same salary. Prof Horner will enter an important chair in the Agricultural College at Corvallis, at a salary of $1750. Mr Crawford, who was at one time pastor of the Baptist church, of this city, is well spoken of as an educator. Following is Prof Horner's resignation:

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 25th, 1891.

To THE BOARD OF SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 5, LINN COUNTY, OREGON.

GENTLEMEN:—As a chair has been offered me in the Oregon State Agricultural College I hereby tender my resignation as principal of the public school of Albany, on condition that you can secure another principal whose services will be satisfactory to you. Thanking you for the courtesy you have always extended to me, I remain,

Very Respectfully,
J. B. HORNER,
Principal.

NEW ORCHARD.—Mr C H Walker, Superintendent of the Indian school at Warm Springs, and son-in-law to Jason Wheeler, of this city, has just completed setting out an orchard of twelve acres which he bought off Mr Wheeler's home farm, a mile and a half from this city. He put out 500 Italian prunes, 150 Silver prunes, 280 Royal Ann cherries, 280 Bartlett pears, besides apples, raspberries, blackberries and other small fruits. This is a step in the right direction. The time is not far distant when this valley will be thickly dotted with fruit farms. No better selection of lands could be made than the tracts now to be had at the Wheeler home farm.

THE THREE SISTERS LIBELED.—Deputy U S Marshal Minto, upon arrival of the Oregon Pacific's steamer Three Sisters here last night, served papers on her and tied the vessel up at the wharf, leaving her last night in charge of Ed N Edes. The papers were issued from the office of the U S commissioner at Portland and were to satisfy the claims of Gus Johnson and Fred Slaneck for seaman's wages, claiming $64 and Slaneck $69. Unless the matter is settled today or soon the matter will be heard on January 10th. But it is probable a settlement will be had, as the Oregon Pacific company can ill afford to have the vessel tied up at this busy season.—Statesman.

IN THE SUPREME COURT.—The following Linn county cases were argued and submitted. Margarette Custer, respondent, vs Ruel Custer, appellant. Cyrus Smith, respondent, vs G R Farra and D B Monteith, appellants. D M Osborne & Co., appellants, vs L W Devoe et al, respondents. In the case of A E Currie, respondent, vs S P R R Co., appellants; appeal from Linn county. The judgment was affirmed as usual, the railroad company coming out second best.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—Following is the program of the Thanksgiving services to be held at the Baptist church tomorrow, at 11 o'clock: Doxology. Invocation, Rev S E Meminger. Proclamation of President and Governor, Rev Dr Irvine. Hymn. Scripture, Rev E R Richard. Prayer, Rev L S Fisher. Anthem, choir. Sermon, Rev Geo W Hill. Collection for Orphan's Home. Hymn. Benediction, Dr Irvine.

TOOK THE FORT.—Eight members of the Mascot Rod and Gun Club attended the turkey shoot near Tangent yesterday. They took the fort and completely vanquished the enemy. The owner of the gobblers didn't get a third of the regular price for his fowls. Only about a dozen were fired by them and sixteen turkeys captured. I Rawls got six of these, and was ruled out entirely. Poor shots by outsiders probably made up for the brilliant work of the Albany men.

County Clerk Payne had his hands full today making out marriage licenses. Up to press time the following was the record: George K Froman and Merica Wallace, Ambrose L. Mills and Joy Mealey, D F Rowland and Rachel Harrison, Silas A Gentry and Mattie Settle, J L Underwood and Cora Loftin, John McChesney and Sandis Conn, Thos. A Beard and Myrtle I Loftin.

GOT SIX YEARS.—Chas E Stone, who was recently taken to The Dalles, on appearing in court there, plead guilty to three charges of forgery and was sentenced to six years in the state penitentiary.

INITIATION.—The regular meeting of Albany Lodge No 4 I O O F will be held this evening at 7 o'clock sharp. All brothers and sojourning members are specially invited to attend. There will be work in the initiatory degree.

THANKSGIVING DINNER.—Thanksgiving dinner will be given at the Delmonico restaurant on Thursday. Turkey and all the choice delicacies of the season will grace the tables. Call and you will never regret it.

FINE SUITINGS.—Mr W R Graham has just received a fine line of suitings from the East, which are as fine as anything ever brought here, embracing the latest patterns. He is anxious to have the public inspect them and get prices. His long experience will enable him to suit the most fastidious.

CHINESE PHEASANTS WANTED.—Parties having same for sale please address,

Yesterday at Stockton there were two world's records broken. The yearling filly Frou Frou, by Sidney, was driven by Willard Sanders in 2:26, beating Bell Bird's time one-quarter of a second. Monroe Salisbury's wonderful pacing stallion Direct, by Director, was driven by George Starr against his record of 2.06, and made a mile in 2:07¼. The horse was not ready to go his best. Starr sent him too fast on the first half mile, which was made in 1:01¼.

A FORMER ALBANIAN IN IT.—The still monotony at the county jail was broken yesterday and the dismal silent walls now echo back the muttering of three meditating criminals from Yaquina City. They were incarcerated yesterday on a commitment issued by Squire Russel. They are Henry Hardisty, James Nagle and Sidney Ennis and were convicted of the crime of assault and battery and were given a three months' sentence.—Corvallis Times.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE OF A CHATTEL MORTGAGE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT by virtue of a chattel mortgage duly executed by Thomas Price to Martha Laird, on the 11th day of May, 1891, to secure the payment of the sum of $1000, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from May 27th, 1891, and cost of foreclosing said mortgage which said sum became due and payable on July 11th, 1891; that the terms of said mortgage was broken in this that said sum of money was not paid when the same became due as therein provided.

I did on the 24th day of November, 1891, take into my possession the personal property described in said mortgage, to foreclose the same according to the terms and conditions of said mortgage, and will at the hour of 10 o'clock a m, on Thursday, the 3rd day of December, 1891, at A Dodge's barn, situated in the town of Lebanon, Linn county, Oregon, offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, to satisfy the amount of said mortgage the following described personal property towit: One pair of grey horses about ten years old; one pair of horses, one a roan and the other a black, eight years old: one pair of horses, one a dark brown and the other a sorrel horse, seven years old; five span of mules, the property of Thomas Price, from seven to eleven years old, all colors; five lumber wagons; five hundred dollars worth of tools, consisting of drag scrapers, wheeled scrapers, plows and slip scrapers, and any and all tools and teams, forming one complete grading outfit, and all now in the possession of the said Thomas Price.

Dated this 25th day of November, 1891

M. SCOTT,
Sheriff of Linn county, Or.

Don't go to the trouble of running all over the city, but go directly to Conn & Hendricson's and get what you want in the GROCERY line. Their stock is large and well-selected. Fresh produce and fruits can always be secured at their stands at the lowest prices. You get good goods and prompt attention. In crockery, glassware, lamps, etc., they are also having a big run. No better place in the city for bargains in this line. Don't close your eyes against these facts.

Klein Bros have a large and choice stock of boots and shoes for sale at reasonable prices. Do not invest in foot wear until you have seen their stock and the elegant piano at their store.
